Ruth Ok, that's enough children. Do up your seatbelts! Let's go!

SPOKEN ENGLISH Sounding polite

- 1 In English conversation it can sound impolite to reply with just yes or no. We use short answers with auxiliaries.

'Did you have a good day?' 'Yes, I did/No, I didn't.'

- 2 It also helps if you add some more information.

'Do you have much homework?' 'Yes, I do. Loads. I've got Geography, French, and Maths.'

- 3 Reply to these questions. Use short answers and add some information.

- 1 Did you have a good day?
- 2 Do you like pizza?
- 3 Did you enjoy the film?
- 4 Has it stopped raining?

▶▶ Grammar Reference 1.6 p133

- 2 Rewrite Nick's lines in exercise 1 to make him sound more polite.

T1.5 Listen and compare the conversations.

- 3 Work in groups of three. Look at T1.4 and T1.5 on p118. Practise them, sounding polite and impolite.

WELCOME TO

The Kamau family from KENYA

PROFILE

FATHER: Boniface Kigotho Kamau, 35

MOTHER: Pauline Wanjiku, approximately 29 (exact age unknown)

DAUGHTER: Joyce Muthoni, 8

DAUGHTER: Sharon Wanjiru, 16 months

Boniface and his wife, Pauline, live in Ongata Rongai, a small town near the capital, Nairobi. They have two daughters: Joyce, who is in her third year of school, and 16-month-old Sharon.

Their home is a two-bedroom apartment, one of 20 in a single-storey block. Boniface works as a taxi driver at the international airport in Nairobi. Each morning he leaves home at 4.30am in his white Toyota – cracked windscreen, 200,000 miles on the clock – and is back by 10pm. On a good day he finds two clients. In a typical month he takes home about £140.

‘It’s a hard job but I like it,’ he says. ‘I meet new people, so I get some experience of the world – even though I have never been outside Kenya.’

Pauline is a dressmaker but isn’t working at the moment. She stays at home to look after the kids. The weekend is often the only time Boniface sees Joyce and Sharon. Boniface and Pauline met in 1994: ‘We liked each other immediately,’ says Boniface. ‘I didn’t want a woman from the city so when I learned that Pauline was from the country, I was pleased.’

They married in 1995 and at first they lived in a slum, and often didn’t have a lot to eat, just sukuma wiki (a green vegetable). Then, in 1996, Boniface won £60 in a cycle race. The money helped them move house to a better area and paid for driving lessons so that Boniface could become a taxi driver.

His salary doesn’t go far. Rent is £30 a month, and he gives the same amount to his parents, who don’t work. Also, as the most successful of six brothers and sisters, Boniface is expected to help their families too. He says, ‘I am always so stressed about money.’ Joyce’s school fees cost another £25 a month.

‘We are trying to give our children the best education,’ says Pauline, who, like her husband, never finished school. ‘Joyce wants to be a doctor.’

Next year, Sharon is going to preschool, so Pauline will have more time to start her own dressmaking business. By then, the family might have a new home. ‘This apartment is not a good place to raise a family,’ says Boniface. ‘The toilets are communal – one for every four families.’ Boniface plans to build a three-bedroom house in the suburbs of Nairobi.

THE FAMILY ARE HAPPIEST WHEN they have a bit of spare money: Boniface takes them to see the wild animals at Nairobi National Park.

OUR WORLD

The Qu family from Beijing, CHINA

FATHER: Qu Wansheng, 44

MOTHER: Liu Guifang, 43

DAUGHTER: Chen, 17

GRANDFATHER: (Qu Wansheng's father) Huanjun, 84

PROFILE

Qu and Liu have known each other since childhood. The most noticeable change in China since then is the size of families. Qu was the youngest of six. Liu grew up as one of five children. But they have only one daughter.

Unlike many Chinese parents, Qu and Liu are happy to have a girl. However, like most parents in China, they put the needs of their only child, Chen, first. She is trying for a place at the prestigious Beijing University. Qu, a propaganda officer at the municipal services bureau, and Liu, who works at the No. 3 computer factory, are saving every last yuan for their daughter's education.

The family have lived in their house in central Beijing for 70 years. It is in one of the capital's ancient Hutong alleyways. These are known for their close-knit families and warm hospitality. The elderly sit outside and chat. People wander to the shops in their pyjamas. It is a way of life cherished by Qu, but he can see that this relaxed routine is increasingly out of step with a nation experiencing one of the most amazingly quick changes in human history.

'We are not in a hurry to get rich,' says Qu. 'I don't want to rush around trying to make money – I am not a machine. I put my family first.'

Tens of thousands of alleyways have been knocked down in the past few years, and their house is said to be next for demolition. And when the old communities go, the traditional family structure, in which children look after their elderly parents at home, goes too.

But for now, the Qu family keep the old ways. The grandfather, Qu Huanjun, 84 and frail, is the centre of the family. 'My father lives here so this is the headquarters of the family,' says his son. 'My brothers and their families come to visit most weekends. We are very close.'

They are sad that their daughter has grown up alone because the one-child policy forbids them from having any more. 'Our daughter is lonely,' says Liu. 'I always wanted to have two children.'

Qu and Liu are proud of their daughter. Chen is bright and well-balanced. She wants to study archaeology. 'University will cost a great deal of money,' says her father. 'So we try to live frugally and save for our daughter.'

2 How often ... them? 7 Where ... next month?

3 Why ... morning shift? 8 ... business doing well?

4 How many hours ...? 9 What ... on Sunday evenings?

5 What ... like about his job?

T 2.4 Listen and check.

Talking about you

3 Make sentences about you using the prompts in the box.

I visit friends as often as I can.

... as often as I can.	... once a fortnight.
... eight hours a day.	... one evening a week.
... when I'm on holiday.	... twice a year.
... on a Sunday.	I hardly ever ...
I always whenever I'm not working.

4 Talk to a partner about you. Tell the class about your partner.

1 What's your background?

I'm 46, and I'm divorced. I have two kids, who I see once a fortnight. I live in Devon, in the south-west of England. I'm a police officer. I've been in the police force for over twenty years. I love my job, but my passion is surfing.

I work different shifts. The morning shift starts at 5.00, and I can't stand that because I have to get up at 4.30. My favourite shift is 2.00 in the afternoon till midnight because I get home about 12.30. What's good is that I work ten hours a day for four days, then have three days off.

My job is extremely busy and very hard. But I like it because it's challenging, and I never know what's going to happen. I like working in a team. We look after each other and work together.

My work is very stressful, so I surf to get away from it all. It's just me and the sea, and my mind switches off. I concentrate so hard on what I'm doing that I don't think about anything else.

I go surfing whenever I'm not working. Sometimes I'm on the beach before 7.00 in the morning. I go all over the world surfing. Next month I'm going to Costa Rica, and in the autumn I'm going to Thailand.

I've got a surf school. I teach all ages, from kids to pensioners. The business is doing well. I'm also opening two shops that sell surfboards. The boards are made in South Africa. They're the best.

I like Sundays best of all. I work as a lifeguard all day, then around 6.00 me and my mates barbecue some fish and have a few beers. Fantastic! I've been all round the world, but when I look around me, I think there's nowhere else I'd rather be.

THE OFFICE

Part 4

- 7 'Prince Charles has everything'. What does he have? What doesn't he have?
- 8 What is Duchy Originals? What is happening to it? What does it sell?
- 9 What title will Camilla have when Charles is King?
- 10 In what different ways is Charles referred to?
future King Prince of Wales . . .

The life of a hard-working future King

His eccentric habits are known to the world, but the Prince of Wales has every reason to feel content. A man with wide interests and deep passions, he is finally happily married. DANIELLA KENT reports.

- 1 P RINCE CHARLES is often portrayed as bad-tempered and spoilt. There are stories that every day seven eggs are boiled for his breakfast so that he can find one that is cooked just the way he likes it. His toothpaste is squeezed onto his toothbrush for him. And his bath towel is folded over a chair in a particular way for when he gets out of his royal bath.

He has an enormous private staff – secretaries, deputy secretaries, press officers, four valets, two butlers, housekeepers, two chefs, two chauffeurs, ten gardeners, an army of porters, handymen, cleaners and maids. They are expected to get everything right. When HRH (His Royal Highness) feels they have performed their duties well, they are praised in a royal memo. But if they have made mistakes, they are called into his study and told off. The Prince can get so angry that he has been known to have tantrums, throwing things and screaming with rage.

The private and public man

2 Charles is eccentric, and he admits it. He talks to trees and plants. He wants to save wildlife, but enjoys hunting, shooting, and fishing. He dresses for dinner, even if he's eating alone. He's a great socializer. Poets, artists, writers, broadcasters, politicians, actors and singers all eat at his table. Arriving at Highgrove, his family home, on a Saturday afternoon in time for a stiff Martini, guests are entertained in the height of luxury. They are then sent on their way before lunch on Sunday, having been shown round his beautifully-kept gardens.

The Prince also entertains extravagantly at Sandringham, one of the Queen's homes, at least twice a year. There are picnic lunches on the beach, expeditions to local churches, and lavish dinners with organic food from Highgrove. Conversation is lively, but the heir to the throne has to be careful what he says, because he knows only too well that anything he says in private may be repeated in public.

The future monarch that we don't see is a man of great humour, who cares passionately about the state of the British nation, and is devoted to his two children, William and Harry. He is madly in love with 'his darling wife', which is how he refers to Camilla in public.

A dutiful life

3 Together Charles and Camilla perform royal duties, both at home and abroad. He attends over 500 public engagements a year. He visits hospitals, youth groups, performing artists, charities, and business conferences. He hosts receptions to welcome visiting heads of state and VIPs. He travels abroad extensively, as an ambassador to the United Kingdom, representing trade and industry. He works hard to promote greater understanding between different religions. He is also President of the Prince's Charities, which are active in promoting education, business, the environment, the arts, and opportunities for young people. The group raises over £110 million annually.

Camilla shares Charles' passion for hunting, and also his interest in conservation of towns and countryside. The one thing she leaves to Charles is skiing. She prefers to stay at home when he makes his annual trip to Klosters in Switzerland.

Everything except the top job

4 Since his second marriage, Prince Charles has everything he wants except, as Diana (who was killed in a car accident in 1997) used to call it, 'the top job'. Yet despite not being on the throne, he has worked hard to accomplish so much. He is concerned about the state of the country he loves, and shows his frustration that governments do little to tackle those problems about which he feels so strongly.

The Prince of Wales has his own food company, Duchy Originals. It originally sold biscuits, but is now expanding to become one of Britain's best-known and most successful organic brands, with over 200 different products, including food, drinks, and hair and body care products.

Charles, well-intentioned, hard-working, conservative and old-fashioned, continues to do his duty as he sees it. But he is no longer alone. One day he will be King, and his darling Camilla will be HRH The Princess Consort.

5 Now you have read the article, have you changed your mind about any of your answers in exercise 3?

Vincent

Vincent Van Gogh, the genius unrecognized in his own lifetime

Vincent Van Gogh was born in Brabant in the Netherlands in 1853. As a young man he worked as an art dealer in London and Paris. He was dismissed from this job because he had argued with customers about art.

In 1881 he tried to commit suicide. He was depressed because he had fallen in love with his cousin, but she had rejected him.

In 1886 he went to Paris to study art, and it was while he was studying that he met Degas, Pissarro, Seurat, Toulouse-Lautrec, Monet, and Renoir.

After two years in Paris, Van Gogh went to live in Arles in the south of France. His friend and fellow painter, Gauguin, who he had met in Paris, came to join him. The two men settled down in Arles, but there was a lot of tension between them. Vincent used to drink heavily, and they quarrelled fiercely, mainly about the nature of art.

One evening in December 1888, Van Gogh left the house carrying a razor blade. He'd been drinking, and he'd had an argument with Gauguin. He cut off part of his ear.

After this, he moved voluntarily into an asylum for the insane at St-Rémy-de-Provence. He used to wake up at six in the morning and go out to paint. It was here, in the last two years of his life, that many of his most famous paintings were completed. These included Starry Night, Irises, and Self-Portrait without a Beard.

In 1890 he left the warm south and moved to Auvers-sur-Oise. Here he continued working despite his growing depression. It was while he was painting outside that Vincent shot himself in the chest. Two days later, he died. He was buried in the cemetery in Auvers.

When Van Gogh died, he had no money because he'd only sold one of his paintings, The Red Vineyard, in his entire life. His sister-in-law took his collection to Holland, where his work was published. He was instantly recognized as a genius.

Mercutio, Romeo's best friend

I Many years ago, in the ancient Italian city of Verona, there were two very rich but warring families, the Montagues and the Capulets. They had hated each other for so long that no one could remember how the feud had started. Fights often used to break out in the streets.

4 As dawn broke, Romeo raced to Friar Laurence and begged him to marry them. The Friar agreed, hoping this would unite the families. That afternoon, Juliet joined Romeo, and the lovers were wed. They parted, but planned to spend that night together.

7 Next morning the lovers could hardly bear to part. When would they meet again? More disaster was to come. Juliet learned that her father had agreed to give her in marriage to a nobleman, Paris. How could she tell her father she had already married Romeo?

10 But Romeo never received the Friar's letter. Thinking that his beloved Juliet had died, he bought poison and went to the tomb. He saw his beautiful, lifeless Juliet. He would never leave her side. He kissed her, and drank the poison.

Lord Capulet

2 Lord Capulet was planning a celebration for his daughter, Juliet. Romeo, Lord Montague's son, went to the party uninvited. He saw Juliet and fell instantly in love! They touched hands. They talked. They kissed. Only then did they discover their families were enemies!

3 That night Juliet stood on her balcony and declared her love for Romeo. Romeo had climbed up a wall and was listening. They swore eternal love to each other, and promised to marry in secret the next day.

5 Returning to Verona, Romeo found his friends, Benvolio and Mercutio being attacked by Tybalt, Juliet's cousin. Romeo tried to stop the fight. He failed, and Mercutio was killed. Romeo had to take revenge! He fought Tybalt and killed him.

6 The Prince, hearing of the deaths, banished Romeo from Verona. Poor Juliet! Her husband had killed her cousin, and now he was exiled. She was desperate. Her nurse brought Romeo to Juliet so they could be together one last time.

8 Juliet ran to Friar Laurence for help. The Friar gave her a sleeping potion to make her appear dead for forty-two hours, so she couldn't marry Paris. The Friar would tell Romeo the plan, and he would arrive as she was waking up. They could then escape together.

9 Juliet returned home and pretended to agree to the marriage. She took the drug. The next day, everyone thought she was dead. She was carried to the family tomb, from where, according to the Friar's plan, Romeo would rescue her.

11 Juliet woke up to see Romeo lying dead beside her. She wept and kissed him again and again, hoping that the poison on his lips would kill her too. Finally she took his dagger and, stabbing herself, fell dead upon her husband's body.

12 The families of the Montagues and the Capulets arrived at the tragic scene. They were overwhelmed with grief, and horrified at the pain that their families' hatred had caused. Thus they buried their feud, along with their precious children, Romeo and his sweet Juliet.

Education in Victorian England 1832–1901

In Victorian England education played a very small role in most children's lives. In 1840 only 20% of children had any schooling at all. Then, in 1870 an Education Act was passed which said that children aged 5–10 should attend school. However, many parents preferred their children to work and earn money for their families. It was not until 1880 that all children had to attend school until the age of 10. Then, in 1899 the school leaving age was raised to 12.

READING AND SPEAKING

Kids then and now

- 1 Close your eyes and imagine your bedroom when you were 10. What was in it? Were there many electronic items? Tell the class about your room.
- 2 Read the introduction to the newspaper article on p35. Answer the questions.
 - 1 What did a child's bedroom use to be like?
 - 2 Why is the bedroom of today's child like a space station?
 - 3 Why is it sometimes the most expensive room in the house?
 - 4 What question is asked at the end of the introduction? What is your opinion?
- 3 The main part of the article describes a modern-day family in an experiment done by a TV company. Look at the photo and the heading. Who are the people? What do you think the experiment was?
- 4 Here are some words from the article. Use them to predict each paragraph. Check new words in a dictionary.

Paragraph 1:

21st century family Jon made a fortune large house huge bedrooms hi-tech toys

Paragraph 2:

Jon's childhood small council house mother died five kids share household chores

Paragraph 3:

back to the 70s house stripped of all gadgets wash own clothes battered old van £39 a week

Paragraph 4:

tears and rows Hannah's wardrobe emptied
Josh – piano, no TV

Paragraph 5:

learnt to appreciate small treats baked cookies started to save

- 5 Read paragraphs 1–5 quickly. Were your ideas correct?
- 6 Read to the end of the article. Answer the questions.
 - 1 How did Jon make a fortune?
 - 2 How was Jon's childhood different from his children's?
 - 3 In what ways was his father strict?
 - 4 How did the TV company transform their lives?
 - 5 What did Hannah and Josh have to do that they didn't have to do before?
 - 6 How did the kids react to the changes at first? How did their attitude change?
 - 7 How did the kids make extra money?
 - 8 What is Jon's advice to other parents?

Vocabulary work

Read the sentences below. Find the phrasal verbs in the text which mean the same as the words in bold.

- 1 Electronic items increase the value of the rooms.
- 2 The father, Jon, founded his own business.
- 3 He was one of five children raised by his father, when his mother died.
- 4 Josh had to stop watching his wide-screen television and start piano lessons.
- 5 They enjoyed the vegetables they'd taken from the garden.
- 6 We shouldn't surrender to our kids' demands.

What do you think?

Discuss in groups.

- Do you think a lot of children are spoiled these days?
- What household rules do you think are a good idea for families?

You must always make your bed.

Everyone has to help at meal times.

Write a list of rules and read them to the class.

Kids who have it all

GO BACK JUST THIRTY YEARS and look inside a child's bedroom. What do you see? Some books, a few dolls or toy cars, some cuddly animals, and perhaps a desk. Look inside the bedroom of today's kids and it's a 21st century space station.

Computers and other hi-tech toys can make a youngster's bedroom the most expensive room in the house. But it's not only electronic items that push up the value. Today's children also have sports equipment, designer clothes, and accessories such as sunglasses, watches and jewellery. Do they have everything and appreciate nothing? A TV channel tried an experiment. TANYA BOWERS REPORTS

Back to the 1970s

- 1 The TV company, Channel 4, transported a typical 21st century family back in time to the 1970s. The Gregory family live in a large house in Milton Keynes. Fifteen years ago the father, Jon, set up his own business and made a fortune. The children, Hannah, 12, and Josh, 10, have huge bedrooms full of expensive hi-tech toys and clothes. They don't have to help at all with the running of the house.
- 2 This is all very different from Jon's childhood in the 70s. He grew up in a small council house in Leeds, one of five children brought up by their father after his mother died. Discipline, order and thrift ruled his life. "We ate what we were given. We walked to school and we had to share all the household chores. We had to do what we were told. Dad was very strict."
- 3 The TV company transformed the Gregorys' house and their lives. For two weeks the family had to go back to the 70s and live Jon's childhood. The house was stripped of all modern gadgets and equipment. Hannah and Josh had to wash and iron their own clothes, do all the washing-up, and help dig the vegetable garden. The family car was exchanged for a battered, old VW van and they had to live on just £39 a week.
- 4 At first there were tears and furious rows as the children tried to adjust. Hannah couldn't believe that she wasn't allowed to buy hair mousse and was horrified to find her wardrobe emptied, leaving her with just jeans, two tops and a 'Sunday Best'. Josh had to give up watching his wide-screen television and take up the piano. They didn't have to walk to school but were filled with embarrassment when their dad drove them to the school in their 'new' van.
- 5 However, gradually Hannah and Josh learnt to appreciate small treats. They enjoyed eating the vegetables they'd dug up from the garden. They made some extra money by selling cookies they'd baked to their neighbours. They started to save rather than spend and understand the value of a £90 pair of trainers.

What should today's parents do?

It's difficult to get things right as a parent. Jon says: "We shouldn't give in to our kids' demands. There's no feeling like getting something you've worked really hard for." Hannah now has £30 in the bank, all earned by doing extra jobs round the house. She has learnt some valuable lessons about life and she doesn't buy hair mousse any more!

LISTENING AND SPEAKING

Rocket man

- 1 Look at the pictures. Which rockets do you recognize?
- 2 Read about Steve Bennett. Who is he? What was his dream? How is it coming true? What do you understand by space tourism?

Rocket Man Steve Bennett

As a little boy, like lots of little boys, Steve Bennett dreamed of becoming a spaceman, but unlike most little boys, Steve's dream is coming true. Steve is Britain's leading rocket scientist and he's now building his own rocket. In a few years' time he's going to travel into space with two other passengers. He believes the age of mass space tourism is on the horizon.

- 3 T 5.7 Steve was interviewed for a BBC Radio programme called Saturday Live. Close your books. Listen to the interview.

- What's your impression of Steve? Would you describe him as 'a realist' or 'a dreamer'? Professional or amateur?
- Would you like to travel with him into space?

- 4 Work with a partner. Read the questions below. Which can you answer?

- 1 Why is Steve so sure space tourism will happen? Why are Richard Branson and Jeff Bezos called 'big names'?
- 2 In what way does he compare space travel with the Internet?
- 3 How will the passengers be like the early American astronauts? What are they not going to do?
- 4 What influenced Steve as a small child? Why is his rocket called Thunderstar? What was he not allowed to watch?
- 5 What was his parents' attitude to space travel?
- 6 Why does he think it is necessary for humans to be in space?
- 7 Why is skydiving good training for space tourists? How much have the couple paid?
- 8 What does Steve think about every day?

T 5.7 Listen again and check your ideas.

What do you think?

- Is space tourism a good idea?
- Is space travel important to the world? Why/Why not?
- Should the money be spent on other things? Give examples.

SPOKEN ENGLISH pretty

- 1 Look at how Steve uses pretty in the interview.

I kept it pretty quiet . . .

That's pretty much where the human race needs to be.

- 2 The adverb pretty is often used in informal, spoken English. It means 'not a lot' but 'more than a little'.

She's pretty nice.

The weather was pretty bad.

- 3 Work with a partner. Ask the questions and reply including pretty in the answer.

1 A Did your team win?

B No, but they played well, all the same.

2 A You haven't lost your mobile phone again!

B No, no. I'm sure it's in my bag somewhere.

3 A Do you enjoy skiing?

B I do, but I'm hopeless at it.

4 A What do you think of my English?

B I think it's good.

Life in

An international group of forty scientists have made some very surprising predictions about the future. They say that in the next fifty years the way we live will change beyond our wildest dreams. Here are some of their predictions. You may find some of them surprising.
BEA ROSENTHAL reports.

1 Life expectancy

Within 50 years, living to a 100 while still enjoying active, healthy lives will be the norm. Professor Richard Miller of the University of Michigan says: ' We will be able to do the same for humans.' So with regular injections, centenarians will be as vigorous as today's sixty-year-olds. Women will be able to give birth well into old age; their biological clocks could be extended by ten years.

2 Growing body parts

Professor Ellen Heber-Katz says: 'People will take for granted that injured or diseased organs can be repaired in much the same way as we fix a car. Damaged parts will be replaced. Within 50 years whole-body replacement will be routine.' But doctors will need huge supplies of organs for transplant. Where will they come from? Scientists say these could be grown inside animals from human cells.

3 Understanding the brain

We don't yet know how the brain gives us our awareness of being alive. 'But,' says Professor Susan Greenfield of Oxford University, 'in 50 years' time we may have a clearer idea of how the brain generates consciousness.' Studies of the brain and the nature of consciousness will bring much greater understanding of disorders such as schizophrenia and depression. Other scientists go further than Professor Greenfield. They believe that by 2060 computers will develop their own consciousness and emotions. Human beings may eventually be replaced by computers in some areas of life.

4 Understanding animals

Thanks to a device which can 'read' emotions, feelings, and thoughts, we will be able to 'talk' to animals. The story of *Dr Dolittle will be fact, not fiction. 'This could first work with primates, then mammals, then other vertebrates, including fish,' says Professor Daniel Pauly from Canada. ' [] , so we might all become vegetarian.'

* fictional character for children

5 Discovering aliens

A number of scientists predict that the biggest breakthrough in the next 50 years will be the discovery of extra-terrestrial beings. Dr Chris McKay of NASA says: 'We may find evidence of alien life frozen in the ancient permafrost on Mars.' Scientists hope that the current interest in space missions to this planet means that there is every chance of making [] Dr McKay also believes that evidence of alien life forms may even be found here on Earth.

6 Parallel universes

Advances in quantum physics will prove that there are parallel universes. In fact there may be an infinite number of them. These universes will contain space, time, and some of them may even contain you in a slightly different form. For years parallel universes only existed in the works of science fiction, but now Professor Max Tegmark says: ' [] '.

7 Our homes

What might our houses be like in the second half of the 21st century? This is Professor Greenfield's prediction:

As you enter the living room, sensors will detect your presence and the walls will start to glow. Talk to the walls and, activated by your voice, they will change to a colour of your choice, 'pink' to 'green' to 'blue', whatever suits your mood.

Sink into your glowing cyber-armchair, relax in the knowledge that the house computer will perform all your everyday household tasks. The voice system in the chair will address you by name and advise a change in position that will be better for your spine.

In the kitchen, [] and it will automatically send orders to the supermarket. However, it is in the kitchen where 'new' meets 'old'. Food remains in its old-fashioned form. Pills, so confidently predicted in the 20th-century to replace food, exist, but nobody wants them. There is too much pleasure in cooking, chewing and tasting all kinds of food.

Finally

Predicting the future has occupied mankind for generations. However, not always successfully. The huge influence of many of today's technical marvels, such as the Internet or mobile phones, was never predicted.

- 2 Talk about your kitchen. Answer questions 1–12 from the text.

▶▶ WRITING DESCRIBING A PLACE p108

My Kitchen

Italy

Housewife Santina Corvaglia, 61, lives in an old two bedroom farmhouse in south-east Italy with her husband, Carlo, 56, who's a mechanic. They have a 31-year-old daughter, Francesca.

- 1 Q How much is your house worth?
A About £50,000.
- 2 Q What is your kitchen like?
A It's not very big. It's my little corner of the house. It's where I belong, and where I'm happiest.
- 3 Q How big is it?
A 12 sq m
- 4 Q What's your favourite thing?
A My cupboard full of different Italian herbs.
- 5 Q How much time do you spend in the kitchen?
A About four hours every day. And the same in the garden.
- 6 Q How many meals do you cook a day?
A Three. For the three of us, and whoever comes by – friends, relatives. My family is the most important thing to me. I want grandchildren!
- 7 Q What's in your fridge and cupboards?
A Vegetables, water, wine, eggs, cheese, ham, sausages, lemonade, butter, pasta, tinned tomatoes, beans, honey, and home-made jam.
- 8 Q What would make your life easier in the kitchen?
A Nothing. I have all I need.
- 9 Q Who helps you?
A My daughter helps sometimes. My husband wouldn't dream of it, and I wouldn't want him to.
- 10 Q How often do you sit down and eat together as a family?
A Twice a day.
- 11 Q How much do you spend on groceries every week?
A I grow my own vegetables, and we have chickens and rabbits, so I only spend about £30 a week. But there is a drought this year.
- 12 Q What can you see from your kitchen windows?
A My garden, my orchard, and my olive trees.

The kitchen is the heart of the home. It's where the family gets together for the important things in life – food, conversation, and celebration. Three women from around the world invite us into their kitchens. PENNY ROGERS reports.

California, US

Elizabeth Anne Hogan, 45, is a lifestyle coach living in a 30-roomed house on the beach in California. It has ten bathrooms, seven bedrooms, an astronomy dome, a tennis court, a swimming pool, and a bomb shelter. Her husband, Mike, 47, is a businessman. They have two children, Hailey, 14, and Hanna, nine.

- Q How much is your house worth?
A About £6 million.
- Q What is your kitchen like?
A There are two. The beach kitchen is simple. The house kitchen is futuristic. I don't know how everything works, so it's all a bit 'alien' to me.
- Q How big is it?
A 45 sq m
- Q What's your favourite thing?
A The three ovens, but they take up too much space. The lift that brings the groceries from the five-car garage is handy.
- Q How much time do you spend in the kitchen?
A About seven to eight hours a day. But not cooking. It's the room we live in.
- Q How many meals do you cook a day?
A Two to three, if you count cereal and bagels. But only one, if you mean actually doing things with real food.
- Q What's in your fridge and cupboards?
A Fruit, vegetables, champagne, milk, yoghurt, pâté, cheeses, crisps, and cereal. Lots of take-away food. And dog food.
- Q What would make your life easier in the kitchen?
A A chef. We do everything for the kids ourselves. No nannies, housekeepers, or cooks for them.
- Q Who helps you?
A My husband and kids take food out of take-away containers and put it on plates. Does that count as helping?
- Q How often do you sit down and eat together as a family?
A Every morning and evening.
- Q How much do you spend on groceries every week?
A £300. Everything is low-fat and organic, pre-packed and prepared. It's all delivered.
- Q What can you see from your kitchen windows?
A A panoramic, 180-degree view of the Pacific Ocean.

India

Lakshamma, 50, is a housewife living in a three-roomed mud hut near Bangalore. Her husband, Adaviyappa, 55, works on a cattle farm. They have two sons, Gangaraju, 30 and Ravi, 25, who both live at home.

- Q How much is your house worth?
A To rebuild it would cost about £1,250.
- Q What is your kitchen like?
A It's small, dark, and crumbling. I dislike just about everything about it. It's so old.
- Q How big is it?
A 5 sq m
- Q What's your favourite thing?
A The stone where I grind my spices.
- Q How much time do you spend in the kitchen?
A Six to seven hours a day – sometimes more. I'm always cooking or washing.
- Q How many meals do you cook a day?
A Two or three.
- Q What's in your fridge and cupboards?
A We don't have a fridge. On shelves I have lentils, rice, spices such as chillies, turmeric powder, some vegetables, and salt.
- Q What would make your life easier in the kitchen?
A Running water. A daughter-in-law would be good as well! But God has given me life and I am grateful.
- Q Who helps you?
A My eldest son helps when he has time. My younger son isn't well and needs constant care. My husband doesn't help.
- Q How often do you sit down and eat together as a family?
A Men eat before women in our community. We don't eat together.
- Q How much do you spend on groceries every week?
A £4. Sometimes less. It depends how much money we have.
- Q What can you see from your kitchen windows?
A I have no windows in my kitchen.

$1 billion

JK Rowling

Author and billionaire

THE EARLY YEARS

Joanne Kathleen Rowling, author of the best-selling Harry Potter series of books, was born in 1965, near Bristol, England. Her birthday, July 31, is the same as her famous hero, Harry Potter.

School days

Joanne did well in school. Her favourite subjects were English and foreign languages and she studied French at university. She graduated in 1986 and over the next few years had a variety of jobs. However, her passion was writing. She had written her first story, Rabbit, about a rabbit with measles, aged six.

Harry Potter is born

She started writing the first Harry Potter book in 1990. The idea for Harry – a lonely, 11-year-old orphan who is actually a wizard – came to Rowling while she was travelling by train between Manchester and London. Although she left England a short time after that to teach English in Portugal, she continued to write Harry's story.

She returned to Britain in 1993, and settled in Scotland. After a brief marriage in Portugal, she was now divorced, with a baby, Jessica. It was a difficult time – she was out of work and depressed – but finally completed her first book, Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone. It was published in Britain in 1997 and quickly became a hit with both children and adults.

JK ROWLING TODAY

JKR has been writing Harry Potter books for nearly 20 years. She writes in longhand, and each book takes one year to complete. She has now completed the series of seven Harry Potter books. The last book, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, came out in July, 2007. Her books have won numerous awards including 'Children's Book of the Year'.

She married her second husband, Dr Neil Murray, in 2001 and has since had two more children, a boy, David, born in 2003, and a girl, Mackenzie, born in 2005.

Fans all over the world

The books have been translated into over 60 languages, and over 300 million copies have been sold worldwide. The first six books have been made into films. She has become the highest-earning woman in Britain, richer than the Queen! She has made over £600 million, more than one billion dollars. This makes her the first person ever to have become a billionaire from writing books.

GRAMMAR SPOT

- Does football unite or divide the world? How?
- Why are some clubs so famous worldwide? Which players are superstars today?
- Do you agree with the conclusion about why football has become a global passion?

The

Over the last hundred years the game of football has totally changed the worlds of sport, media and leisure. Football is played worldwide by more than 1.5 m teams and 300,000 clubs. An amazing eight out of ten people in the world watch the World Cup. It is, as the great Brazilian footballer Pelé described it, ‘the beautiful game’. Andrew Hunt reports.

How football began

As far back as 2500 BC the Chinese played a kicking game called tsu chu. Similar games were played by the Romans and North American Indians. In England in medieval times ‘mob football’ was wildly popular. In 1583, Philip Stubbs said of football players:

By the mid-19th century, with the help of English public schools, the game had become less violent. Each school had different rules for playing the game. On the playing fields of Eton the ball was kicked high and long. At Rugby School the boys caught and ran with the ball. Problems arose when boys from the different schools went to the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge and wanted to continue playing. This is from the description of a match played in Cambridge in 1848:

“... The result was chaos, as every man played the rules he had been accustomed to at his school.”

It became common to play half a match by one side’s rules, the second half by the other’s. That’s how half-time came about. However, this was not good enough for the university men. They decided to sort out the rules once and for all.

On Monday October 26, 1863, they met at a pub in London. By the end of the day they had formed the Football Association and a Book of Laws was on its way. The sticking point was whether a player could pick up the ball and run with it or not, and this was not decided until December 8. From this decision the games of both football and rugby were born.

Beautiful Game

Football around the world

Europe is home to the world's richest professional clubs: Manchester United, AC Milan, Real Madrid, Bayern Munich. These clubs are famous in many countries far away from their home grounds. Rickshaw pullers in Mumbai, tuk tuk drivers in Bangkok, on discovering they have an English passenger respond with 'Ah, English, Manchester United. You know Manchester United?'

South America has produced some of the most exciting soccer on earth. Many of the world's leading players have come from poverty to play on the world stage. They have been snapped up by wealthy European teams after making their mark at home. Brazil has won the World Cup five times, Uruguay three times, and Argentina twice.

North America is the only continent where football (or soccer as it is called there to distinguish it from their homegrown game) has become more popular with females than males. In 1991, the US won the first Women's World Cup. Interest amongst American men has been growing since the World Cup in Los Angeles in 1994, and more recently since the arrival of international stars such as David Beckham.

Asia: Over the past two decades heated rivalry among Japan, China, and South Korea has increased the passion for soccer across the continent, especially after Japan and Korea co-hosted the World Cup in 2002. However, not all Asian countries share the passion: India and Pakistan prefer cricket.

The Middle East: Countries such as Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and Qatar have lately been investing huge sums of money in football. They've hired the best players and coaches that money can buy.

Australia: Sport in Australia has long been dominated by cricket, rugby and surfing. However, since they qualified for the 2006 World Cup, Australians have become much more interested in the game.

Africa has produced a number of soccer superstars, but many of them have been lost to the rich European clubs. Africa is poor in resources but rich in talent, with thousands of gifted young players dreaming of big time football. South Africa's hosting of the 2010 World Cup is very important for African football.

A global passion

The game of football is played in every nation on earth, not only by the 120 m regular team players, but also by countless others on beaches, in playgrounds and streets. The world's love of football is simple – it's because football is simple. All that is needed is a ball, a piece of ground, and two posts. The world's greatest players, George Best, Diego Maradona, and Pelé, all learned their skills on waste grounds. These are the places where the sport is born and why football has become a global passion.

Hey there! Just a quick email to say Mum, please don't freak out about the photos. It looks much worse than it was!! I don't remember anyone taking the pics, and I've no idea who posted them on my Facebook website! I know you'll hate to hear this – but yes, I'd had a drink or two, but it was pitch-black dark and I was trying to climb up to the top bunk bed. Unfortunately my head hit the corner of the bed before I did (a METAL bunk bed!). Anyway, a scream of pain and lots of blood later, ooh, and I forgot to mention the ambulance ride to hospital – but now I'm fine. It's impossible to see the scar on my head!! I didn't want to say anything at the time for obvious reasons. Sorry if it shocked you!!!

Speak soon – lots of love from hot, sweaty, rainy Cairns.

Hello Mum, Dad and Izzy,

Had a great time yesterday. We went piranha-fishing on the Amazon in a canoe. Victor told us to throw bits of meat into the water to attract the fish but we didn't manage to catch anything. We stopped to camp on the banks in the evening and really enjoyed watching the sunset and swimming in the dark. Unfortunately, we'd forgotten to bring a torch so were lucky to escape from the crocodile.

Love to all

HANNIBAL CROSSES THE ALPS

247-182 BC

EARLY YEARS

Hannibal Barca was born in Carthage, North Africa, (now a suburb of Tunis, Tunisia) in 247 BC. At that time this once prosperous seaport was losing a long and exhausting war with the Romans over who should rule the western Mediterranean. His father, Hamilcar, was a general in the army, and it is said that he made his son promise to hate the Romans forever.

The 23-year-long war was finally lost in 241 BC. Hannibal and his family moved to Spain, where the Carthaginians were trying to build a new empire. Hannibal grew up to be a bold and fearless fighter like his father, and eventually became commander of the army. In 218 BC the Romans again threatened to attack. In a daring and dangerous plan Hannibal decided to march from Spain to Italy before the Romans had even declared war. This march was to be a journey of 2,415 kilometres across both the Pyrenees and the Alps.

Mao Zedong and the Long March

1893-1976

Early years

Mao Zedong (Mao Tse Tung) was born in Hunan province in Southern China in 1893. His father was an ambitious but illiterate farmer, who wanted his son to have the education he didn't have.

At university Mao became active in revolutionary student groups and, in 1921, helped found the Chinese Communist Party. He established a base in the remote Jiangxi province, where they formed the Red Army to fight against the Nationalist Government under Chiang Kai-shek. However, in 1934, after many bloody battles, they were forced to escape from the area. They set off on a remarkable journey, which became known as the Long March.

THE JOURNEY

In May, 218 BC, Hannibal left Spain with an army of about 90,000 men and 37 elephants, which he believed were needed to get them over the mountains. In the next few months under his inspiring leadership, they marched through Spain to the Pyrenees and then to the South of France. They moved about 16 kilometres a day, and were frequently attacked by local tribesmen. They reached the River Rhone and accomplished the unbelievable task of building huge rafts to ferry the elephants across. Some fell off but managed to swim using their trunks as snorkels. It was now autumn, and snow started to fall as they approached the Alps. The army, helped by the elephants, struggled on, slipping and sliding over ice and snow, over the main pass. Finally, they were in sight of Italy. Their five-month journey at an end, Hannibal's army of 90,000 was reduced to 36,000 – over half his men had perished or deserted on the way. Winter storms now killed all but one of his elephants.

FINAL YEARS

In some ways Hannibal's march was hugely successful because he took the Romans by surprise and initially defeated them in numerous battles. However, after many years and many more battles his army failed to overcome Rome's superior resources and manpower. Hannibal, who had been 29 at the start of his journey, sailed back to North Africa aged 45. He finally committed suicide in 182 BC, aged 65. Despite his final defeat, he is still recognized as one of the greatest military leaders in history.

The Long March

The march began on October 16th. No one was sure where they were going but 86,000 men and 30 women, including Mao's wife, set out to walk from the south to the north of China. The journey took one year, ending in the northwestern Shaanxi province.

They started the march quite well, armed with 33,243 guns, but five weeks later suffered their first disastrous defeat at the Xiang River crossing. They lost 56,000 men and much of their equipment was thrown into the river.

It was at this time that Mao Zedong became leader of both the Red Army and the Communist Party. He was a tough but popular leader.

One of the worst experiences was crossing the Great Snowy Mountains, 5,000 metres high. Many men died from lack of oxygen. Exhausted, they knew that to stop to rest meant certain death. If they managed to reach the top, it was best to sit down and slide to the bottom on the ice. Many men were catapulted over cliffs.

It was now September 1935 and the army had to cross the Marshland, between the Yangtze and Yellow Rivers. It looked innocent, covered with flowers, but beneath the flowers were bogs that could swallow a man in a minute. Mao lost more men during this seven day trek than in the Snowy Mountains.

Eventually, on October 19th, after marching for 370 days and 12,500 kilometres they reached Shaanxi province. Of the 86,000 who began, only 4,000 remained.

Later years

The Long March began the ascent to power of Mao Zedong. On October 1, 1949, he proclaimed the People's Republic of China and the Great Cultural Revolution followed. This radically changed every aspect of Chinese society. In October 1966, Mao's Little Red Book was published, and his ideas were taught throughout the country. Mao's image was displayed everywhere: in homes, offices, shops and streets. He finally died on September 9th, 1976, aged 82.

PRACTICE

It all went wrong

- 1 Work in pairs. Read about three robberies that went wrong. What were the robbers' mistakes?

Easy arrest

A bank robber in Marseille, France, held up a sign which said 'Give me all the money.' The cashier handed over the money, and the bank robber fled, leaving the note behind. Unfortunately, he had written the note on the back of an envelope. On the other side was his address. He was arrested later the same day.

Smile!

Car thief Lee Hoskins took pictures of himself stealing a Vauxhall Astra with a camera he found in the glove department. Lee and his girlfriend took turns posing before crashing the car and fleeing the scene, leaving the camera on the back seat of the car. 'It's amazing just how stupid some criminals can be,' said a spokesman for Somerset police.

Have a loan instead

A Finnish bank manager stopped a robbery by persuading the three criminals to take out a loan instead. The robbers burst into the bank near Helsinki, and demanded €50,000. The manager put the money on the table, but suggested that a loan would be more sensible. He offered them a €10 cash advance and told them to return in ten minutes to sign the loan papers. Police were waiting for them.

- 2 Rewrite the sentences about the robberies using the words in brackets.

- 1 It was a mistake to write his note on an envelope. (shouldn't)
He shouldn't have written his note on an envelope.
- 2 It would have been better to take the note with him. (should)

- 3 He left his address. The police found him. (if)

- 4 It was stupid to take his photo. (shouldn't)

- 5 They crashed the car. They didn't escape. (if, could)

- 6 He left photos of himself. He could have got away with it. (if, might)

- 7 They were so stupid. They didn't escape with the money. (if)

- 8 They listened to the manager. They didn't steal the money. (if, could)

- 9 It was silly to go back to the bank. (shouldn't)

- 10 It would have been better to just run away. (should)

You're an idiot!

- 3 Your friend did some really stupid things.

I drove home even though I was falling asleep at the wheel.

You're an idiot! You might have had an accident! You could have killed someone!

How do you react when he tells you these things? Use might have or could have.

- 1 I went walking in the mountains for three days with no food or equipment.
- 2 I didn't feel like going to work, so I phoned in sick. I went shopping instead.
- 3 I had a temperature of 102, but I went out dancing all night.
- 4 I told Sally I couldn't see her, then went out to the pub with Danielle.
- 5 I used to be really good at tennis, I was an under-14 champion, but then I gave it all up.

T 9.4 Listen and compare.

Speaking

- 4 Think of a time in your life when things went wrong.

I went to a party with my boyfriend.
I kissed another boy.
I had a row with my boyfriend.
We broke up.

Make sentences like these.

I shouldn't have kissed the other boy.

If I hadn't kissed him, I wouldn't have had a row with my boyfriend.

I should have just said sorry to my boyfriend.
Then we wouldn't have broken up.

- 1 Where was he/she?
- 2 Who were the other people involved?
- 3 What was the problem?
- 4 Did he/she do anything? Say anything?
- 5 What was the other person's reaction?
- 6 What was the result?

Talking about you

- 3 What would you have done in the same situations? Discuss in your groups, then tell the rest of the class.

I wouldn't have done what she did.

I'd have told him ...

SPOKEN ENGLISH just

- 1 Look at the use of just in these sentences.

I'd just reached the front of the queue ...

I just need to ask a quick question.

... I was just furious!

In which sentences does just mean ...?

really a short time before only/simply

- 2 Find other examples of just in T9.5 on p.128.
- 3 Write the word just where you think it goes best in these sentences.
 - 1 Alice isn't here. She's ^{just} gone.
 - 2 I'm sorry I'm in a bad mood. I'm tired, that's all.
 - 3 I love your new coat!
 - 4 I've finished the most wonderful book. You must read it!
 - 5 I don't want any wine. A glass of water, please.
 - 6 John's so generous. I think he's amazing!
 - 7 'Who's coming tonight?' 'Me.'
 - 8 Hold on a minute. I'm going to the loo.

T 9.6 Listen, check, and repeat.

Do you have a social conscience?

What would YOU do?

- 1 You are in the street. A man who says he's penniless and homeless is asking for money, so you give him some. As you're walking away, his phone starts ringing. He pulls out a really nice mobile phone and starts chatting to a friend.
- 2 You're in a shop. You see a woman shop-lifting some food. She's got three small children, who look hungry.
- 3 You're in a place where smoking is forbidden. Two men light a cigarette in front of you.
- 4 Your best friend is cheating on her boyfriend, Bill. She's been going out with him for ages, but she's also seeing a guy called Mark.
- 5 You see some kids in the street dropping litter. There is a litter bin five metres away.

READING AND SPEAKING

The victim meets the burglar

- 1 Have you or anyone you know ever been the victim of a crime? Discuss the questions.
 - What happened?
 - Were the police involved?
 - Was the criminal arrested?
- 2 There is an organization called the Restorative Justice Consortium. It brings together criminals and their victims.
 - What do you think it hopes to achieve by this?
 - What might the victim of a crime have to say?
 - What might the criminal learn?
- 3 Read the headlines and the introduction to the newspaper article. How do you think the burglar and the victim became friends?
- 4 Work in two groups.

Group A Read about the victim.

Group B Read about the robber.

Answer the questions.

- 1 What personal details do you learn? (name, age, background ...)
 - 2 What was he doing in the moments before their first encounter?
 - 3 What was his first reaction? How did he feel? What did he think?
 - 4 How does he describe the act of violence?
 - 5 How did he feel after the crime took place?
 - 6 What was his reaction when asked to meet the other person?
 - 7 What made Will so angry?
 - 8 What did this outburst of anger make him realize?
 - 9 What does he think of the experience of restorative justice?
- 5 Find a partner from the other group. Compare your answers to the questions in exercise 4.

What do you think?

- 1 Is bringing together the criminal and the victim a good idea? Could it help with all crimes? Could it help with bullying?
- 2 60% of people released after serving one year in prison are convicted of another crime. What does this statistic suggest?
- 3 The purposes of imprisonment are ...
 - to punish the criminal.
 - to protect society from the criminal.
 - to rehabilitate the criminal.

Do you think these aims are achieved?

What other forms of punishment might be more effective?

I'M SORRY

How a burglar and his victim became the best of friends

THE VICTIM

BUSINESSMAN Will Riley, 50, lives in Islington, north London, with his wife and daughter ...

I WAS getting ready to go to the gym when I walked into my hall and stopped dead. There, standing on the stairs, was a man about the same age as me, dressed in a scruffy leather jacket.

“What are you doing here?” I asked in shock. He said he was a neighbour who’d got lost. But it was obvious who he was.

I was suddenly scared. I thought, “If he’s got a knife, he could kill me.” We kind of fought with each other. A passer-by saw us and phoned the police. Somehow I managed to hold him until the police arrived. It was only after they arrested him and took him away that a policeman asked if I was OK. I put my hand to my head and felt blood. I hadn’t realized what he’d done to me. It’s incredible, but I just didn’t register that he’d hit me really hard. He’d smashed a flower pot on my head, and all the bits were on the ground. I went to hospital and needed stitches.

After the burglary, my whole life changed. I’ve always lived in big cities, and I’ve never been afraid of urban crime, but suddenly I became too frightened to open my front door. All I could think was “What if my daughter had been at home? Would he have attacked her?”

PETER WOOLF, a life-long criminal, broke into Will Riley's home one March evening. Will found Peter standing in his hall, his pockets stuffed with money and jewellery.

Peter was jailed for three years for the burglary. So it's hard to think of them becoming friends.

Here, Will and Peter describe their first encounter, and why meeting each other again was the best thing for both of them ...

By VICTORIA KENNEDY

I was asked to meet the burglar in prison. I wasn't sure what the purpose was, but I went anyway. I was curious.

We sat in the prison library, and he explained how he'd come from a dysfunctional family, was a heroin addict and spent his life in and out of jail. He spoke without any emotion. But it was when he suddenly said "Last time we met ..." that I exploded.

I screamed at him, 'Why me? Why did you ruin my life?'

"We didn't meet in a bar, you little ...! You broke into my house!" I was so angry. I screamed at him, "Why me? Why did you do this to me? Why did you ruin my life?"

I could see from his face that I had got through to him. He looked stunned. It was then I realized he was just an ordinary guy. And I wanted to help him ...

When I got home, I felt relieved. All my fears disappeared. Because I could see Peter was just a normal human being, he became less frightening.

When he was finally released, we stayed in touch. I've met him dozens of times since and the change in him is amazing. It's hard to believe he's the same person who broke into my home. He's totally different.

I'm delighted that I've done something to help Peter get his life back. ☺

THE ROBBER

PETER WOOLF, 50, is married to Louise, and works as a counsellor to rehabilitate criminals ...

IT WAS easy to break into Will's house. Just one push and the lock broke. I quickly took some gold jewellery and some money from upstairs. I was feeling lucky.

But when I was coming downstairs and I bumped into Will in the hall, I suddenly felt frightened. I thought, "He's a big guy. If he wanted to, he could hurt me."

I tried to escape. I didn't want to hit him, but I did. I'm not a violent guy, but I just did what I had to do. There was a flower pot, and I smashed it on his head.

After I was arrested, all I felt was a big sense of relief. I was going back to a place I knew well. I'd been in and out of prison for 18 years, for theft, burglary, and fraud.

I started using drugs when I was 10 and became an addict at 14. I'd hit rock bottom. I stole because it was the only thing I knew how to do. I knew it would only lead me back to prison.

I was given a three-year sentence. It was while I was in jail someone mentioned Restorative Justice. I couldn't see the point, but I agreed to do it because I was bored.

It wasn't until I started walking down the corridor towards the library that I got scared.

When I got there I sat down and just looked at the floor. I said the same rubbish I always used to say to the police. But Will was furious, and I was shocked. I thought, "My God, I did all this."

I felt angry with myself, and ashamed. I was determined to make things better.

I suddenly realized that I was responsible for this man's pain. He wasn't just a faceless nobody that I'd stolen from. I felt angry with myself, and ashamed. I was determined to make things better.

I did a course of rehab to get off drugs. I also started a course to be a counsellor.

It was at the counselling class that I met Louise. I was over the moon. And my life changed completely ...

I was released early after 18 months, and Louise and I got married. Life hasn't been easy, but I've worked hard to get things together.

I'm now helping others. I'm clean of drugs and haven't committed another crime. I feel proud of myself. These days, I consider myself lucky that I broke into Will's house that day. If I hadn't – and if we hadn't become friends – I don't know what I would have done. I guess I'd be dead by now. ☺

Microprocessors

The biggest thing since the invention of the wheel

How do they work?

Transistors are microscopic electronic switches that turn on and off billions of times a second. It's hard to believe that basically that is all a computer does – it either says Yes or No.

To process the words, images and sounds we use every day, computers and other devices (such as CD players) transform these communications into a simple code that uses the numerals 0 and 1 to represent the on and off states of a transistor. This language of 0s and 1s is known as digital information.

How are they made?

It takes months to make a microprocessor, and involves over 250 manufacturing steps, but it can take years to design them. Sometimes the engineers put pictures on the surface of the chip because they want to show it's theirs. The pictures are incredibly tiny, and can only be seen with a microscope. They are like the designers' signature.

What are they?

A microprocessor (also known as a microchip, or just a chip) is a small, thin piece of silicon that has been printed with transistors. One chip can contain hundreds of millions of transistors, performing billions (yes, billions) of calculations each second. The smallest are just a few mm². It is the most complex product that has ever been made.

What do they do?

Microprocessors are the brains of your personal computer. They control everything in our lives. They are used in all digital devices – calculators, cameras, radios, ovens, fridges, washing machines, DVDs, and watches. Without microprocessors, modern cars wouldn't start or stop (there are about 60 per car), TV remotes wouldn't switch channels, and we couldn't text each other on our mobiles. Doctors and surgeons wouldn't be able to diagnose, treat, or operate. Nearly all of their equipment contains microchips.

What about the future?

The digital world is only a few decades old. There are still countless more things we could do with microprocessors. Soon they'll be able to fix themselves and even make themselves. No one knows what will happen. The future hasn't happened yet.

St Pancras Station, London, 1958

Meet me at St Pancras

Technologies old and new come together under one roof. It's the new age of the train.

JENNIE HISLOP reports.

London now has a railway station that is the equal of New York's Grand Central and the Paris Gare du Nord. St Pancras International is the UK home of Eurostar. It is a stunning Victorian station in the heart of London, with connections that spread out across the country, linking the UK with the rest of Europe.

The new station opened in 2007, and handles 50 million passengers a year. It provides access to the northern European cities of Paris, Brussels and Lille. From there you can travel to Spain, the French Alps, the south of France, and Germany. Eurostar flashes along the railway line, known as High Speed 1 (HS1), at 300 km per hour (186 mph), just as the TGV has done in France for many years. The whole area around St Pancras and King's Cross has had a major regeneration. It is now a thriving, inner-city district, home to multinational businesses, art galleries, bars, and restaurants.

THE ORIGINAL STATION

When St Pancras Station was built in Victorian times, it took 6,000 men and 1,000 horses five years to complete, and cost £436,000. It opened in 1868, a masterpiece in iron and glass, designed by the great engineer W.H. Barlow. He created a cathedral on two floors. Below, there was an enormous basement, used as a storage area for beer coming south from breweries in the Midlands. Above this floor, he built a vast crystal palace, the tallest and widest of its day, and one of the great feats of Victorian engineering. The glass roof, all 240 feet (75 metres) wide, appeared to float unsupported. It crossed the five platforms in a single, undivided span.

THE NEW STATION

The 21st century St Pancras International was restored over a three-year period at a cost of £800 million. The basement area is now the check-in and departure lounge. Escalators lead to the platforms on the floor above. The glass roof has been carefully restored, and the iron arches painted the original sky blue. An 18-car Eurostar train is about a quarter of a mile long, so the roof was extended. There are now fifteen platforms.

The restoration of this building is a triumph of great tradition, high technology, and style. There is a 300ft (92m) champagne bar. A farmers' market is supplied with fresh produce brought in from Europe daily. There are boutiques, patisseries, delicatessens, chocolatiers, and a whole range of places to eat, from brasseries to organic home-made burger bars.

THE STATION HOTEL

The large Gothic building in front of St Pancras is not, in fact, the station but the Midland Grand Hotel. When it opened its doors in 1873, it was one of the most advanced hotels in the world. It was the first building in London to have a 'rising room', or lift, and the first to have revolving doors. It had a Ladies' Smoking Room, which was quite shocking in its day. There were laundry lifts, coal lifts, and speaking tubes to send instructions to the staff. The Victorian decoration was rich and expensive, but the hotel was built with old-fashioned plumbing. There were 300 bedrooms but only nine bathrooms. People took a bath in a tub in their bedroom. The hotel closed in 1935. Its facilities were outdated, and it was too expensive to run.

It is now known as St Pancras Chambers. There is a 245-bedroom, five-star luxury hotel, with every comfort and modern amenity, and 68 private apartments and penthouses on the upper floors.

THE PLACE TO MEET

When someone says 'Meet me at St Pancras', everyone knows what they mean. There is a 9-metre tall, 20-ton bronze statue called 'The Meeting', which depicts a couple caught in a deep embrace. It is THE place to meet, under the great glass roof, where Eurostars glide to a halt, beneath the famous station clock. See you there!

- 5 Work with a partner. Are these statements about the station and the hotel true (✓) or false (✗)? Correct the false ones.
- 1 The escalators lead up to the departure lounge.
 - 2 The glass roof has been replaced.
 - 3 The iron arches have been painted the same colour as the original.
 - 4 Farmers bring in fresh produce from all over England.
 - 5 The building in front of St Pancras International is a hotel.
 - 6 The hotel was advanced for its time because it had so many bathrooms.
 - 7 The hotel has now been restored with over 300 bedrooms and apartments.

 - 5 Holmes found another clue in the bedroom.
 - 6 The intruder saw Mr Soames returning.
 - 7 He escaped through the study window.
- 5 Read Part 3. What motives did each of the students have? Who do you think copied the papers? Why? Discuss with a partner and then the class.

I think it could have been ... No, it can't have been ...

THE THREE

PART 1 ❖ Who copied the exam questions?

Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson were in one of England's most famous university towns doing some research. One evening, Holmes received a visit from an old acquaintance, Mr Hilton Soames, a tutor at one of the colleges. Mr Soames looked very nervous and agitated.

'I hope you can spare me some of your valuable time, Mr Holmes. Something very serious has happened at my college.'

Holmes was very busy. 'Why don't you call the police?' he said irritably.

'No, no that's impossible. We can't have a scandal at the college. I must explain. You see, tomorrow is the first day of the university examinations, and this afternoon I received the Greek translation papers. I put them on the desk in my room while I went to have tea with a friend. When I returned, I saw immediately that the papers had been disturbed. Indeed some were lying on the floor by the window.'

'I see,' said Holmes. 'Please continue.'

'Well, at first I thought that perhaps my servant, Bannister, was responsible because he'd been in the room after I left, but he denied touching the papers and I believe him. He is a good and honest man. I examined the room very carefully.'

'And what did you find?' asked Holmes impatiently.

'On the table by the window I found a broken pencil. Also, there was a cut, about three inches long, in the red leather top of my desk and next to it, a small lump of black mud. There were no signs of entry at the window. Please help me, Mr Holmes. Someone must have copied the exam questions. If I don't find who did it, I will have to cancel the exam and there will be a scandal.'

'We need to visit your room,' said Holmes. 'Come on, Watson.'

STUDENTS

PART 2 ❖ Looking for clues

They walked towards the tutor's room, which was on the ground floor. Holmes tried to look in through the window but he wasn't tall enough. He had to stop and stand on tiptoe. Above lived three students, one on each floor. Holmes entered the room and examined the carpet.

'Nothing,' he said. 'Let me look at the table by the window. Ah, yes, I see what might have happened. Someone took the papers from your desk over to the window table to copy them, because from there he could see when you were returning.'

'Actually, Holmes, nobody could see me. I came back through the side door.'

'Ah, so you may have surprised him and he had to leave hurriedly. Did you hear someone running away as you entered?'

'No, I didn't.'

'Interesting. So, our only clues are the cut in the leather and one small lump of black mud. Now tell me, where does that door go to?'

'My bedroom.'

'Can I examine it?'

'Yes, of course.'

Holmes followed Soames into his bedroom.

'Hello,' said Holmes, 'What's this? Another small lump of black mud, exactly like the one on the desk. Clearly your visitor came into the bedroom.'

'I don't understand. Why did he do that?'

'Well, when you came back so suddenly, he must have run into your bedroom to hide. Look at the bedroom window, it's open. That must be how he escaped.'

PART 3 ❖ The three suspects

'Now,' said Holmes, 'The three students who live above you. Are they all taking this examination?'

'Yes.'

'Tell me about them.'

'Well, on the first floor is Gilchrist, an excellent student and an athlete, he plays rugby and cricket and is particularly good at the long jump. He's hard-working but poor. His father gambled away all the family money.'

'And the second floor?'

'Daulat Ras lives there. He is from India, very quiet and hard-working, but Greek translation is his weakest subject. And finally there's Miles McLaren on the top floor. A very intelligent student, one of the best when he chooses to work – but he's been very lazy this term, he's been playing cards until late at night and I think he must be worried about this exam.'

'Now tell me,' said Holmes, 'how tall are these young men?'

'How tall? What a strange question. Erm ... I think Miles is taller than the Indian, but Gilchrist is the tallest, over six feet.'

'Ah, that's important. Now, Mr Soames. I wish you goodnight. I'll return tomorrow.'

Next morning Sherlock Holmes left his house at 6 a.m. He returned at 8 a.m. to pick up Watson and they made their way to the tutor's rooms. Mr Soames was waiting nervously for them.

Listening

6 T 11.12 Listen to Part 4. Whose ideas in exercise 5 were correct? Did you guess who copied the papers? Now answer these questions.

- 1 What was it about the culprit that made Holmes suspicious?
- 2 Where did Holmes go to solve the mystery? What did he discover there?
- 3 What was Holmes' explanation? Describe what happened.
- 4 What does Watson say to congratulate his friend? How does Holmes reply?
- 5 Why does Bannister apologize?
- 6 Why can the examinations take place?

What do you think?

- What were the cleverest parts of Holmes' investigation?
- How might the mystery be solved by detectives today?
- What methods of detection are used now which were not available 100 years ago?

Language work

- 1 Work out the meanings of the highlighted words from their contexts.
- 2 Here are some things that Sherlock Holmes could have said while he was working out who did it. Rewrite the sentences using the words in brackets.
 - 1 One of the students is undoubtedly the culprit. (must)
 - 2 I don't think Bannister did it. (can't have)
 - 3 The lump of mud is possibly a clue. (could)
 - 4 Perhaps the leather was cut by a knife. (might have)
 - 5 I don't think he escaped through the study window. (can't have)
 - 6 Perhaps the culprit is still hiding in the bedroom. (may)
 - 7 Maybe he jumped out of the bedroom window. (could have)
 - 8 I'm pretty sure that Gilchrist did it. (must have)

Telling the story

Expressing attitude

- 1 T 11.15 Read and listen to the conversation. Who are they talking about? What has happened?

- A Have you heard about Sam?
B No, I haven't.
A Well, I haven't spoken to him myself but, apparently, he was caught cheating in his Maths exam.
B No kidding! I can't believe that. Does he have a problem with Maths?
A No. Actually, Maths is his best subject.
B Really? So why would he cheat? He doesn't need to.
A Exactly. And anyway, Sam's not the type to cheat.
B He must be very upset. Presumably, he's going to complain.
A Yeah, he's seeing the principal this afternoon. Obviously, he's going to deny it completely.
B Well, hopefully, the principal will believe him. Let me know what happens.
A I will. Personally, I think he'll be OK.
B I hope you're right. Cheers. See you later.
A Yeah. Fingers crossed for Sam. Bye.

- 2 T 11.15 Read and listen to the conversation again. The words in bold express the attitude of the speaker.

- 3 Choose the correct word or phrase to complete the lines.

Did you hear about Marcus? You know, the guy who works in my office. Well apparently / obviously, he's going to be promoted. Of course / To be honest, I don't understand why. Exactly / Personally, I think he's hopeless at his job. He never does any work. In fact / Naturally, all he does all day is chat to his friends on the phone and drink coffee. Unfortunately / Really, his desk is next to mine. Generally / Presumably, he'll move to another office now, so hopefully / really I won't have to work with him any more. Anyway / Apparently, enough about me. How's your work going? Are you still enjoying it?

- T 11.16 Listen and check. Read the lines aloud with a partner.

- 4 Complete the sentences with your own ideas.
- A Hi! You're Pete, aren't you?

- Work with a partner. Complete the article by reporting the words and thoughts 1–10.

T 12.1 Listen and check.

Look, Mum! I've bought a car on eBay for £9,000

By a Daily Telegraph Correspondent

A three-year-old boy used his mother's computer to buy a £9,000 car on the Internet auction site eBay.

Jack Neal's parents only discovered their son's successful bid when they received a message from the website.

The message said they (1) had bought a pink Nissan Figaro.

Mrs Neal, 36, said that they (2) _____ it. She explained that she (3) _____ on the Net the day before, but she (4) _____ anything.

'Jack kept telling us that he (5) _____ so happy, and that we (6) _____ soon get a big surprise.'

Mrs Neal, from Sleaford, Lincs, thought Jack (7) _____. He often used the computer, and she was pretty sure that he (8) _____ her password.

Her husband, John, 37, phoned the seller of the car, and explained that there (9) _____ a mistake.

'Fortunately he saw the funny side and said he (10) _____ the car again.'

Mr Neal has told Jack to be more careful, and he has asked his wife to change her password.

1 You have bought a pink Nissan Figaro.

2 We can't understand it.

4 I didn't buy anything.

6 You'll soon get a big surprise!

8 I'm pretty sure he knows my password.

3 I was on the Net yesterday.

5 I'm so happy!

7 He's joking.

9 There has been a mistake.

10 I'll advertise the car again.

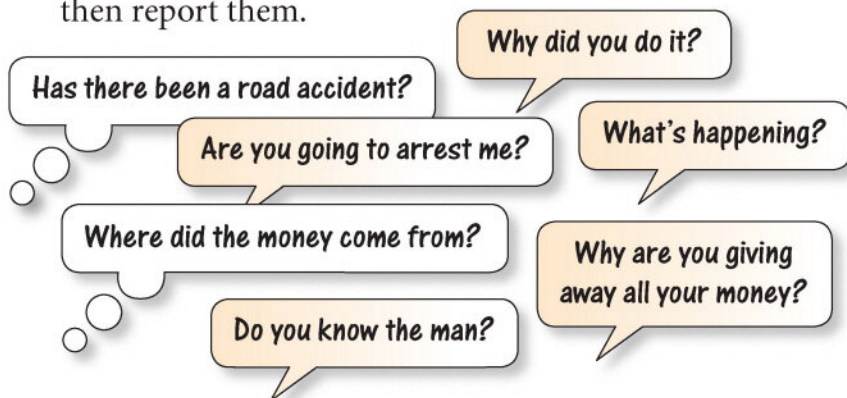

- 3 Here are Mr Neal's words to Jack and his wife.
You've got to be more careful, son.
Do you think you could change your password, dear?
 How are these words reported in the article?

- 4 Report these sentences.
- 'My Jack is very clever,' his mother said.
Mrs Neal said her son was very clever.
 - 'He usually plays computer games,' she told me.
 - 'I bought the computer for my work,' his father explained.
 - 'I won't use eBay anymore,' Mrs Neal decided.
 - 'I don't know how it happened,' said Jack.
 - 'I've always liked computers,' he told reporters.
 - 'Please tidy your room,' his mother asked Jack.
 - 'Go and play football,' his father told him.

T 12.3 Listen and check. Repeat the reported questions.

GRAMMAR SPOT

- 1 When we report words or thoughts, we usually move the tense back.

'I'm tired.' She said she was tired.

Complete the reported speech.

'I've seen the film before.' She told me _____.

'You'll like it.' She was sure I _____.

- 2 What does tell mean in these two sentences?

She told me that she loved me.

She told me to go away.

- 3 When we report questions, there is no inversion, and no do/does/did.

'Where do you live?' He asked me where I lived.

Report these questions.

'How long are you staying?' She asked me ...

'Do you know Mike?' She wanted to know if ...

Man throws away £20,000 in town centre

Daily Mail Reporter

A mystery man started a riot in a busy town centre yesterday by hurling £20,000 in banknotes into the air.

Traffic was stopped at 11.00 a.m. in Alexandra Road, Aberystwyth, mid-Wales, as money rained down from the sky.

Local shopkeeper Anthony Jones, 55, said 'I couldn't understand it, so I asked my neighbour (1) what was happening.' They saw people on their hands and knees grabbing money. 'No one knew (2) _____,' he said. 'They were just stuffing it in their pockets.'

Passer-by Eleanor Morris said, 'I wondered (3) _____, because the traffic was at a complete standstill.'

Flower seller Cadwyn Thomas saw the man, who was wearing a red Welsh rugby shirt. 'I asked him (4) _____ all his money, but he didn't answer. He just laughed.'

Police asked Cadwyn if she (5) _____. 'I told them I'd never seen him before. He certainly wasn't from around here.'

Dyfed-Powys police later confirmed that a forty-year-old man from Aberystwyth had been questioned. 'He refused to tell us (6) _____,' a spokesman said, 'so it's a complete mystery. He wanted to know if we (7) _____ arrest him, but giving away money isn't against the law.'

- How did other people react?

Movers and shakers

It's hard to imagine that what we now believe to be true wasn't always so. There was a time when people believed the earth was flat . . .

Every now and again, someone comes along and breathes new ideas. ANN WILSON profiles five people who left the world a different place.

Charles Darwin 1809–82

His book, On the Origin of Species by Means of Natural Selection, published in 1859, has been called 'the book that shook the world'.

Today, most scientists and ordinary people, with the exception of creationists, accept the theories put forward in this book. Darwin believed that all species (plants, animals, and human beings) were not created individually, but evolved over millions of years through a process of natural selection. The struggle for existence meant that the species that could adapt best were those that survived.

These ideas contradicted religious beliefs. People thought that God had created Adam and Eve and all the animals as they were then. It was also believed that the Earth was just 4,000 years old.

HE SAID

'The mystery of the beginning of all things is insoluble by us; and I for one must be content to remain an agnostic.'

THEY SAID

'Mankind is not descended from monkeys. There is no point in a world without God.'

GALILEO GALILEI 1564–1642

Galileo was born in Pisa, Italy. He spent years observing the movements of the planets through a telescope. At the time it was generally thought that the earth was the centre of the universe. Galileo believed, as Copernicus had done seventy years before, that the earth rotated on its axis once daily and travelled round the sun once every year. At the time, this was a fantastic concept, and considered dangerous by the Church.

In 1633 he was found guilty of heresy, and spent the final years of his life imprisoned in his own home.

Galileo is referred to as the ‘father of modern science’. He paved the way for the separation of science and religion.

HE SAID

‘All truths are easy to understand once they are discovered; the point is to discover them.’

THEY SAID

‘The proposition that the sun is in the centre of the world is absurd, philosophically false, and heretical; it is contrary to Holy Scriptures.’

Sigmund Freud 1856–1939

Sigmund Freud was born in Austria. He developed the technique of psychoanalysis in his treatment of patients with mental disorders. His most famous book, The Interpretation of Dreams, was published in 1900.

Freud argued that we all have an unconscious mind as well as a conscious one. The unconscious is where our motivations originate and our fears are buried. Memories, especially from childhood, have a huge influence on the way we are now, but we are largely unaware of their significance. We deny or resist becoming conscious of these motives.

Freud's proposals came at a time when strict scientific methods were seen as the only way to discover truth. By introducing the notion of the unconscious, Freud undermined the belief that we are in control of our actions, thoughts, and behaviours at all times.

He is commonly referred to as ‘the father of psychoanalysis’ and his work has been highly influential.

HE SAID

‘The mind is like an iceberg, it floats with one-seventh of its bulk above water.’

THEY SAID

‘His ideas are unverifiable. His attitude to scientific research is irresponsible.’

Emmeline Pankhurst 1858–1928

Emmeline Pankhurst is seen as ‘the principal fighter for women’s equality in the UK’. Women were not given the vote because they were considered to be incapable of rational thought. Their place was in the home.

In her twenties Emmeline Pankhurst belonged to the suffragists, who wanted to achieve equal voting rights for women by peaceful means. She later led the suffragettes, who had a more militant approach. Their tactics for attracting attention included smashing shop windows, burning down buildings, slashing paintings in art galleries, organizing marches, and chaining themselves to railings.

In 1908–09 Pankhurst was sent to prison three times. She experienced force-feeding after going on hunger strike.

The British government changed the law on voting rights for women in 1918. In 1928, women finally achieved equal voting rights to men.

SHE SAID

‘We are here, not because we are law-breakers; we are here in our efforts to become law-makers.’

THEY SAID

‘These women are hysterical and unreasonable. Heaven help us if they had the vote. They have abandoned their duties as wives and mothers.’

Elvis Presley 1935–77

Elvis Presley is known simply as ‘The King’. When he arrived on the pop scene in 1956, he introduced a new rhythm to music, sex, language and fashion. Before his arrival, adolescent kids dressed like their parents. Then Elvis shook his hips and changed everything. This new sex symbol mesmerized one generation, and at the same time alienated another. Boys wanted to be him, girls fell instantly in love with him and – most importantly – their parents all hated him. The teenager was born.

He did more than anyone else to invent youth culture, and as such he was considered a dangerous threat to society.

John Lennon said, ‘Nothing really affected me until I heard Elvis. If there hadn’t been an Elvis, there wouldn’t have been a Beatles.’

HE SAID

‘If you like rock ‘n’ roll, if you feel it, you can’t help but move to it. That’s what happens to me. I can’t help it.’

THEY SAID

‘He was an indifferent singer, a mediocre musician, and a totally uninteresting person. In five years’ time, he will be totally forgotten.’ (Obituary 1977)

LISTENING AND SPEAKING

What the papers say

- Which newspaper in your country ...?
 - has the best reputation
 - is the most popular
 - is the best for sport
 - is the best for scandal
- Do you believe everything you read in the newspapers? Do you think some stories are made more sensational?
- T 12.9 Listen to an interview with the singer, Jamie Seabrook. Answer the questions after each part.

Part 1

- What are some of the highs and lows of Jamie's career?
- What was he doing in Texas?
- What does he like about all the press attention? What doesn't he like about it?
- What does he think of reporters?

Part 2

- Complete the chart.

	What did they say about him?	What did he say?
reporters
ex-friends people in clubs police officers
Barbara James

- Why did he go into the clinic?

Part 3

- How has Jamie's life changed?
- Why has he changed his attitude to life?
- What did the news presenter refuse to do? Why?
- How does he reply? What does he say about himself?

BOY SUES BURGER CHAIN
'Eating burgers made me fat'

ALIENS EXIST SAYS POPE

DOG WITH TWO HEADS BITES POSTMAN - TWICE!

Football boss leaves wife for bimbo

JAMIE CHECKS INTO PRIVATE CLINIC
Last chance to save my marriage, says pop star Jamie Seabrook

SPOKEN ENGLISH don't mind / don't care

- Look at these sentences from the interview.

I don't mind the press attention.

I don't care what people think.

I don't mind = I'm easy. I have no strong opinions.

I don't care = Other people's opinions aren't important to me. (Careful! This can sound rude.)

- Reply to these sentences with I don't mind or I don't care.

1 'Tea or coffee?' '_____'. Whatever you're making.'

2 'I hate your tattoo!' '_____'. I like it.'

3 'What shall we do today?'

'_____'. I'm happy whatever.'

4 She's so upset!' '_____'. That's her problem.'

What do you think?

- Who do you believe – Jamie, or all the other people in his life?
- When you read a story in the news, how do you know whether to believe it?
- What are the big stories (political, environmental, sports, scandal) in the news at the moment? What are the different angles on the story? Do people agree on the basic facts, or are there different opinions?

EVERYDAY ENGLISH

You know what they say . . .

- 1 Some people like to bring a conversation to an end with a cliché. Nothing else needs to be said, the cliché says it all! Underline the clichés in these conversations.

'I didn't get that job I applied for. They said I need more experience.'

'Oh, well! You win some, you lose some.'

'Did you know 25% of the world speaks English?'

'Well I never! You learn something new every day!'

- 2 Match the lines in A with the clichés in B.

	A	B
1	I'm so fed up! I lost my mobile yesterday! I got the time wrong, and I missed my plane.	Never mind. We all make mistakes. Cheer up! It's not the end of the world.
2	I forgot her birthday, so I sent her a text. So you like Russian novels, do you? So do I!	Well done. Better late than never. Great minds think alike.
3	Tim's strange. He's not like me at all. I worked so hard for that exam, and I still failed.	You did your best. You can't do any more. It takes all sorts to make a world.
4	I've got ten exams in the next two weeks. I've got three months' holiday!	Rather you than me. It's all right for some.
5	I'm going to pack some anti-malaria tablets. I haven't heard from my kids for weeks!	No news is good news. Good idea. Better safe than sorry.
6	That party was awful. I hated it. I reversed into a wall and broke a tail light.	It could be worse. You could have hurt someone. You can say that again. I couldn't stand it.
7	She's been so sad since her husband died. I wonder if their marriage will last.	I'm sure it's tough, but time's a great healer. Only time will tell.
8	Our neighbours are extreme right-wing. I trusted Peter, and he stole all my money!	Oh, well. You live and learn. Live and let live. That's what I say.

- 3 T 12.10 Listen and check.

And finally . . .

In the words of William Shakespeare . . .

All's well that ends well.

Mother Teresa of Calcutta (1910–1997)

- 1 What do you know about Mother Teresa? Share ideas as a class.
- 2 Work with a partner. Look at the information about Mother Teresa's Early years. Compare the sentences in A with the paragraph in B. Note the different ways the sentences combine.

A Early years	B
Mother Teresa was a missionary. She worked among the poor people of Calcutta, India. She was born Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu. She was born in Skopje, Macedonia. She was born on 26 August, 1910. Her father was Albanian. He died when she was eight years old. Her mother was left to bring up the family.	Mother Teresa was a missionary who worked among the poor people of Calcutta, India. - 5 Research some facts about a famous man or woman, dead or alive, that you admire. Write a short biography.

1 What topics are in the news at the moment? Are they national or international? Are they to do with the environment, politics, crime, sport...? Discuss any that concern you with the class.

2 T 5.9 Read and listen to a girl talking about a topic that concerns her.

- 1 What is her cause for concern?
- 2 Why does she have a personal interest?
- 3 How did Craig use to be?
- 4 What does research tell us about the addiction?
- 5 Do most children become addicts?
- 6 What concerns Dr Griffiths?
- 7 What other concerns does the girl have?

3 Now read the talk carefully and answer the questions.

- 1 Underline the phrases that introduce each paragraph. Why are these words used?
- 2 Find examples of the speaker talking from her own experience.
- 3 Find examples where she quotes research.
- 4 How does the girl conclude her talk?
- 5 Read the paragraph beginning 'Research shows ...' aloud to a partner.

Preparing your talk

4 Choose a cause for concern from the topics you discussed. Make notes. Say why it concerns you.

5 Write a talk to give to your class, of 200–300 words. Use your notes and these guidelines to help.

- 1 Introduce your topic
My cause for concern is ...
I want to talk about X because ...
- 2 Give the reason why
Let me explain why.
Two years ago ...
I've always been interested in ...
- 3 List your research
Research shows that...
A recent study found that ...
I read in the newspaper/heard in the news that ...
- 4 Introduce new points
I have two more concerns .
Firstly, ... secondly, ...
Another thing is ...
- 5 Conclude
Finally, I'd like to say ...
Thank you all very much for listening to me.
Are there any questions?

My cause for concern

The thing I'm concerned about at the moment is the influence that video games may have on children.

Let me explain why. I've been reading lots of newspaper articles on the subject, and I also have a personal interest. You see, I have a younger brother, Craig, he's 13 years old, and I'm afraid he's becoming a video game addict. Just a few years ago, Craig had many interests, he played football, he was learning judo, he went out on his bike with his friends. He was a happy, fun-loving boy. Now he spends hours every day in front of a screen, in a virtual world, playing virtual games, usually violent ones, and he becomes really angry if our parents tell him to stop.

Research shows that today 40% of family homes have computers, so there is plenty of opportunity for very young children to start using them, and by the age of seven many have developed an interest in video games. This is not a problem for most of them. However, by their early teens, a small minority have become addicts, playing for at least 30 hours a week. Dr Mark Griffiths of Nottingham Trent University, an expert in video addiction, finds this figure very worrying. He says that children may become so addicted that they stop doing homework, start playing truant, and even steal money in order to buy the games.

I have two more concerns. Firstly, I worry that the violence in the games could cause children to become more violent. My brother isn't violent but he is certainly bad-tempered if he is stopped from playing. Secondly, I worry that sitting without exercise for so long is bad for the health. Craig often plays five hours a day, and some days his thumbs are really painful and he can't sleep because he is over-excited. His schoolwork is going from bad to worse.

Finally, Dr Griffiths says that more research is needed but I don't need to read more research to conclude that video games cause problems. He should come and meet my brother. That's all the evidence he needs.

6 Practise reading your talk aloud first to yourself, then to a partner. Give your talk to the class. Answer any questions.

My favourite room

1 Think of your favourite room. Draw a plan of it on a piece of paper. Write down why you like it and some adjectives to describe it.

My favourite room is ... I like it because ...

Show a partner your plan and talk about your room.

2 Read the description My favourite room. Why is this kitchen more than just a room where you cook and eat?

3 Complete the description using the relative clauses below:

- ... which tells the story
- ... that we're going to next Saturday
- ... where we cook and eat
- ... whose family have all emigrated
- ... which is the focal point of the room
- ... which means
- ... we haven't seen
- ... I like best
- ... who are cross and sleepy
- ... where family and friends come together

GRAMMAR SPOT

- 1 Underline the relative pronouns in exercise 3. What do they refer to? When do we use which, who, that, where, and whose?
- 2 Look at these sentences. We can omit the relative pronoun from one in each pair. Which one? Why?
 - This is the room which I like best.
 - This is the room which has the best view.
 - He's a friend who we haven't seen for years
 - He's a friend who lives in London.
- 3 Look at these examples of participles. Rewrite them with relative pronouns.
 - I have so many happy memories of times spent there.
 - There is a large window looking out onto two apple trees in the garden.

▶▶ Grammar Reference 6.3 and 6.4 p140

The room in our house (1) _____ is our kitchen. Perhaps the kitchen is the most important room in many houses, but it's particularly so in our house because it's not only (2) _____, but also the place (3) _____.

I have so many happy memories of times spent there: ordinary daily events such as making breakfast on dark, cold winter mornings for children (4) _____, before sending them off to school; or special occasions such as homecomings or cooking Christmas dinner. Whenever we have a party, people gravitate with their drinks to the kitchen. It always ends up the fullest and noisiest room in the house.

So what does this special room look like? It's quite big, but not huge. It's big enough to have a good-sized rectangular table in the centre, (5) _____. There is a large window above the sink looking out onto two apple trees in the garden. There's a big, old cooking stove at one end, and at the other end a wall with a huge notice board (6) _____ of our lives, past, present, and future: a school photo of the kids; a postcard from Auntie Nancy, (7) _____ to Australia; the menu from a take-away Chinese restaurant; an invitation to a wedding (8) _____; a letter from a friend (9) _____ for years. All our world is there for everyone to read!

The front door is seldom used in our house, only by strangers. All our friends use the back door, (10) _____ they come straight into the kitchen and join in whatever is happening there. Without doubt some of the happiest times of my life have been spent in our kitchen.

4 Link these sentences with who, which, that, where, and whose.

- 1 The blonde lady is Pat. She's wearing a black dress.
- 2 There's the hospital. My sister works there.
- 3 The postcard arrived this morning. It's from Auntie Nancy.
- 4 I passed all my exams. This made my father very proud.
- 5 Did you meet the girl? Her mother teaches French.

5 Complete the sentences with a word from the box in the present or past participle.

play	give	stick
listen	arrange

- 1 I spend hours in my room _____ to music.
- 2 I have lots of posters _____ on the walls.
- 3 My brother is in his bedroom _____ on his computer.
- 4 There are photos of my family _____ on my shelves.
- 5 I also have a colour TV _____ to me on my last birthday.

6 Write about your favourite room. Use relative pronouns and participles.

- 1 Think of someone in your family and write three sentences about them. Read your sentences aloud to the rest of the class.
- 2 Which relative did you choose? Why? Did you write about their character, their appearance, or both?
- 3 Read the description of crazy Uncle Joe. Which sentence below accurately describes the writer's opinion of him?
 - The writer likes Uncle Joe but is critical of his way of life.
 - The writer admires everything about Uncle Joe.
- 4 The text consists of factual description and personal opinions. Work with a partner and read through the text again. Underline like this _____ what is factual, and like this _ _ _ _ what is personal opinion.
- 5 Find words and lines which describe:
 - his physical appearance
 - his character
 - his past life
 - his current lifestyle
- 6 Find the following words:

much (line 2)	really (line 13)
such (line 4)	quite (line 13)
completely (line 10)	particularly (line 15)
absolutely (line 11)	extremely (line 18)

How do they change the meaning of the adjectives which follow them?

- 7 Write a similar description of a member of your family in about 200 words. Include your sentences from exercise 1 and the following:
 - your relation to him/her
 - your opinion of him/her
 - a little about his/her past life
 - his/her physical appearance
 - his/her character
 - his/her current lifestyle

MY CRAZY UNCLE JOE

1 Of all my relatives, I like my Uncle Joe the best. He's my mother's much younger brother. He was only nine when I was born, so he's been more like a big brother to me than an uncle. He is in his mid-20s now and he is always such good fun to be with.

5 He studied at a drama school in Liverpool, and then he moved to London a year ago to try his luck in the theatre. He shares a flat with three other would-be actors, and he works as a waiter and a part-time DJ. He's passionate about his music, it's called House Music, and it's a kind of electronic dance music. When he 'deejays' 10 he goes completely wild, waving his arms and yelling at the crowds. His enthusiasm is infectious. He's absolutely brilliant, I'm proud that he's my uncle.

Also, I think he is really good-looking. He's quite tall with sandy-coloured hair, and twinkly, dark brown eyes. He's had lots 15 of girlfriends, but I don't think there is anyone particularly special at the moment. He has a great relationship with his flatmates, they are always laughing and joking together. He knows how to have fun but he's also an extremely caring person. I can talk to him about all kinds of problems that I could not discuss with my 20 parents. He's very understanding of someone my age.

He works hard, and he plays hard. He's had lots of auditions for various theatrical roles. He hasn't had much luck yet, but I'm sure that one day he'll be a highly successful actor. I think he's really 25 talented but he says he doesn't want to be rich or famous, he just wants to prove to himself that he's a good actor.

1 What do you know about the sinking of the Titanic?

It happened at the beginning of the twentieth century.
There was a film about it starring Leonardo DiCaprio.

2 Work with a partner. Look at the pictures and tell the story in your own words. Then read Text A and match the lines with the pictures.

Text A The Unsinkable Titanic, 1912

On April 10, 1912, the Titanic left Southampton on her way to New York. There were many rich passengers on board. Everyone believed the ship was unsinkable so she didn't have many lifeboats.

On the night of April 14, the passengers were having dinner and listening to the band. The Titanic was travelling fast because the owner wanted his ship to beat the record for crossing the Atlantic. Some ships nearby warned of icebergs but the messages were not delivered. A look-out sounded the alarm but it was too late. The Titanic hit an iceberg and the ship sank quickly. The band played until it sank. The lifeboats only saved some of the people. Most of them died in the sea.

People today are still interested in the Titanic. The film, 'Titanic', was very popular.

3 Now read Text B. Compare it with Text A. Which is the more interesting text? Why? Give some examples.

Text B The Unsinkable Titanic, 1912

On April 10, 1912, the liner Titanic, the luxurious ship they called unsinkable, left Southampton on her maiden voyage to New York. Her passengers were a mixture of the world's wealthiest in their magnificent first class accommodation, and immigrants packed into steerage. The ship was believed to be so safe that she carried only 20 lifeboats, enough for only half her 2,235 passengers and crew.

On the evening of April 14 there was no wind and the sea was calm. The band were playing as the rich enjoyed their evening meal in the sumptuous dining room. At 9.40 p.m. nearby ships warned of icebergs. However, the messages were not delivered. The Titanic was travelling at 22 knots. The owner of the ship was on board, encouraging the captain to go faster to beat the record for crossing the Atlantic. Finally, a look-out on the bridge sounded the alarm but it was too late. At 11.40 p.m. the Titanic struck an iceberg. Passengers felt only a slight bump and carried on dancing and dining. After all, this ship was unsinkable. In fact, the ship was sinking fast, but it was not until nearly 12.45 that an SOS signal was sent and the first lifeboat was lowered. The last one was lowered at 2.05 a.m., and at 2.20 a.m. the ship sank, just two hours and forty minutes after hitting the iceberg. 713 people were saved. The remaining 1,522 all met their death in the dark waters of the Atlantic Ocean. These included most of the men and third class passengers, the crew, and all of the band. Amazingly, they had kept playing until the ship disappeared beneath the waves.

The ship sank almost 100 years ago but interest in the Titanic continues. Books and films have kept its memory alive. 'Titanic' is the most watched film in movie history. Incredibly, in 1985, the wreck itself was discovered and photographed on the sea bed.

4 Go through the Titanic texts again with your partner. Discuss the differences. Consider the following questions.

The general organization

How is the scene set?
What forms the main part?
How is the story concluded?

Telling the story

What information is given?
How is interest created?
What is the order of events?

The language

Which adjectives and adverbs are used?
How are the sentences constructed?

5 With your partner discuss what you know about the story of The Trojan Horse. Look at the pictures and prompts to help.

THE TROJAN HORSE

6 Work together to write the story. Remember to set the scene, create interest, and use adverbs and adjectives. Begin like this: The Greeks and the Trojans had been at war for ten years.

7 Read some of the stories aloud to the class. Compare with the story on p150–51.

- 1 Do you think childhood is the best time of your life? Discuss as a class.
- 2 Read the text about the pros and cons of childhood. Replace the underlined words and phrases in the text with those in the box.

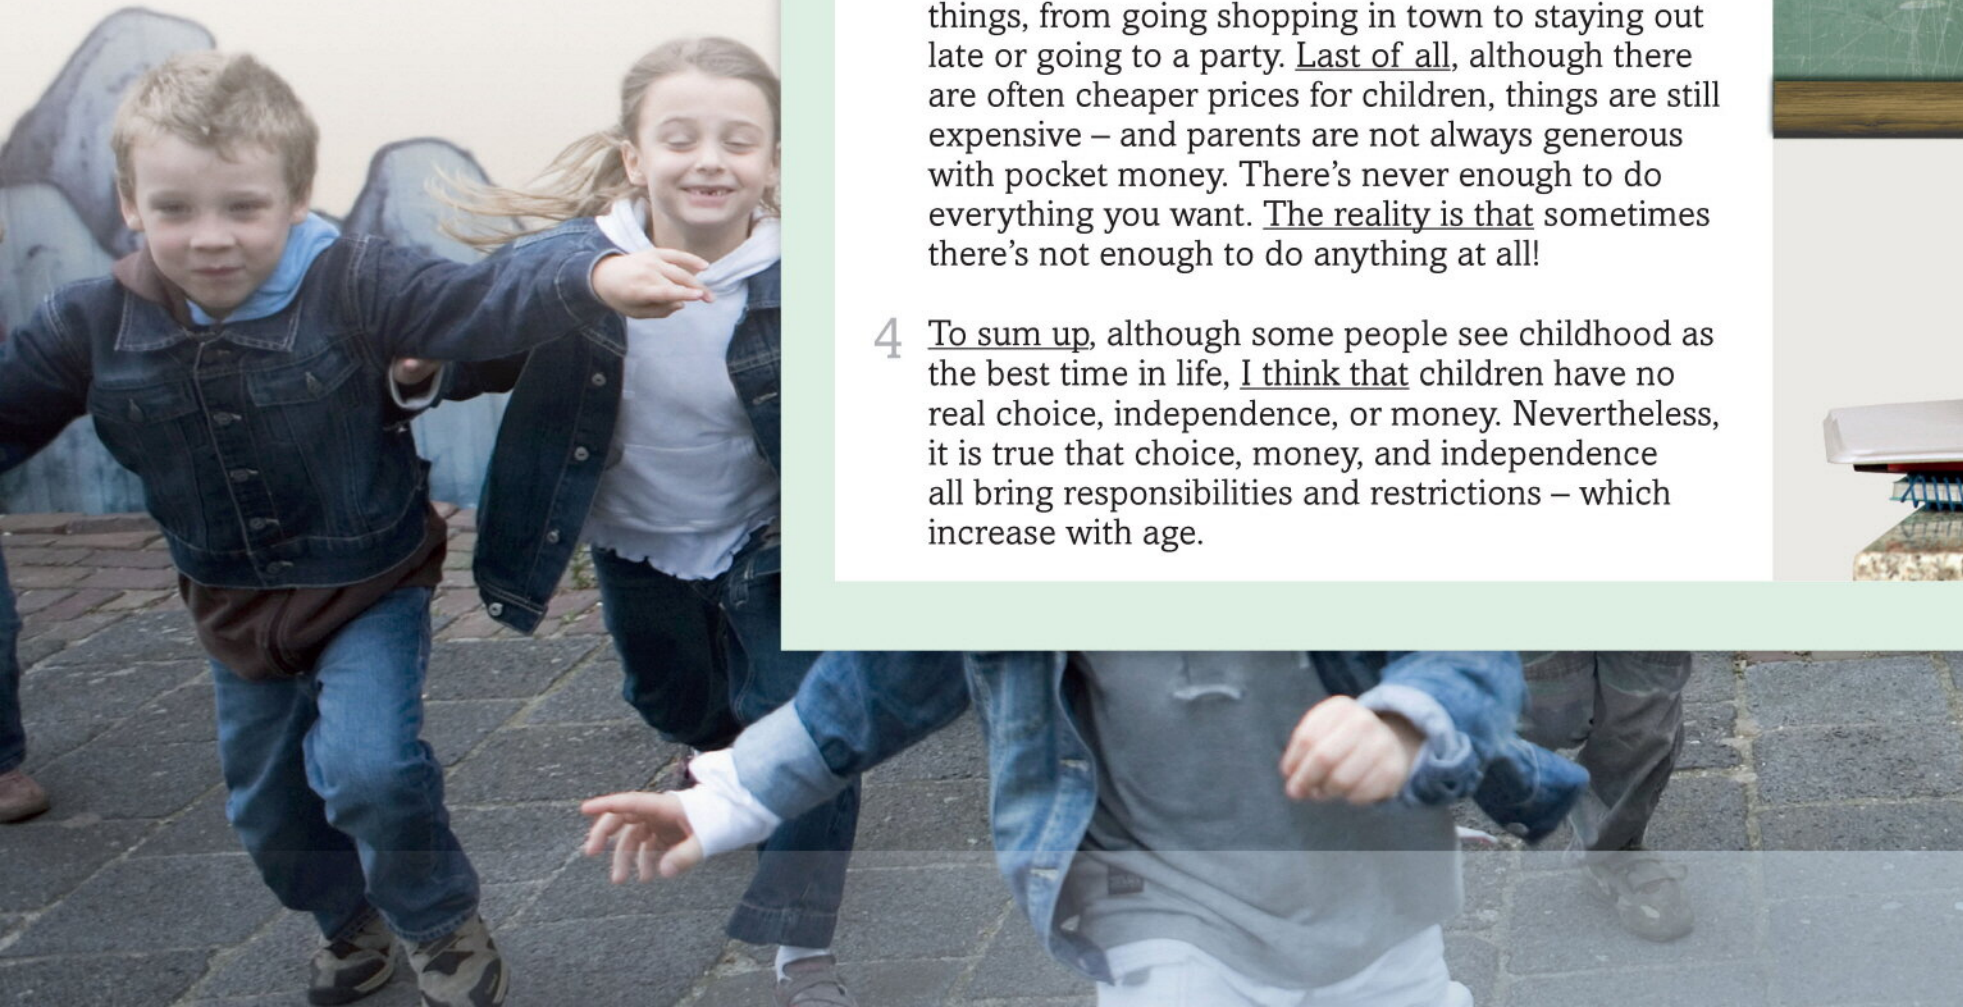

For instance
 One advantage is that pros and cons
 One disadvantage is that
 Finally,
 All things considered
 in my opinion,
 In conclusion
 In fact,
 Another point is that
 Moreover,

- 3 There are four paragraphs. What is the purpose of each one?

Pros and Cons

Childhood – the best time of your life?

- 1 Some people say that childhood is the best time of your life. However, being a child has both advantages and disadvantages.
- 2 On the plus side, you have very few responsibilities. For example, you don't have to go to work, pay bills, or do the shopping, cooking, or cleaning. This means you have plenty of free time to do whatever you want – watch TV, play on the computer, go out with friends, play sports, or pursue other hobbies. On top of that, public transport, cinema, and sports centres cost much less for children. All in all, being a child is an exciting, action-packed time in life.
- 3 However, for every plus there is a minus. For one thing, you have to spend all day, Monday to Friday, at school. Studying usually means you have to do homework, and you have to take exams. What is more, you may have a lot of free time, but you are rarely allowed to do whatever you want. You usually have to ask your parents if you can do things, from going shopping in town to staying out late or going to a party. Last of all, although there are often cheaper prices for children, things are still expensive – and parents are not always generous with pocket money. There's never enough to do everything you want. The reality is that sometimes there's not enough to do anything at all!
- 4 To sum up, although some people see childhood as the best time in life, I think that children have no real choice, independence, or money. Nevertheless, it is true that choice, money, and independence all bring responsibilities and restrictions – which increase with age.

4 Match the pros with the cons.

pros	cons
1 don't have to go to work	are never given enough pocket money
2 can go out to parties with friends	have to do homework and take exams
3 don't have to cook and clean	have to go to school Monday to Friday
4 pay less for things	need to ask your parents' permission

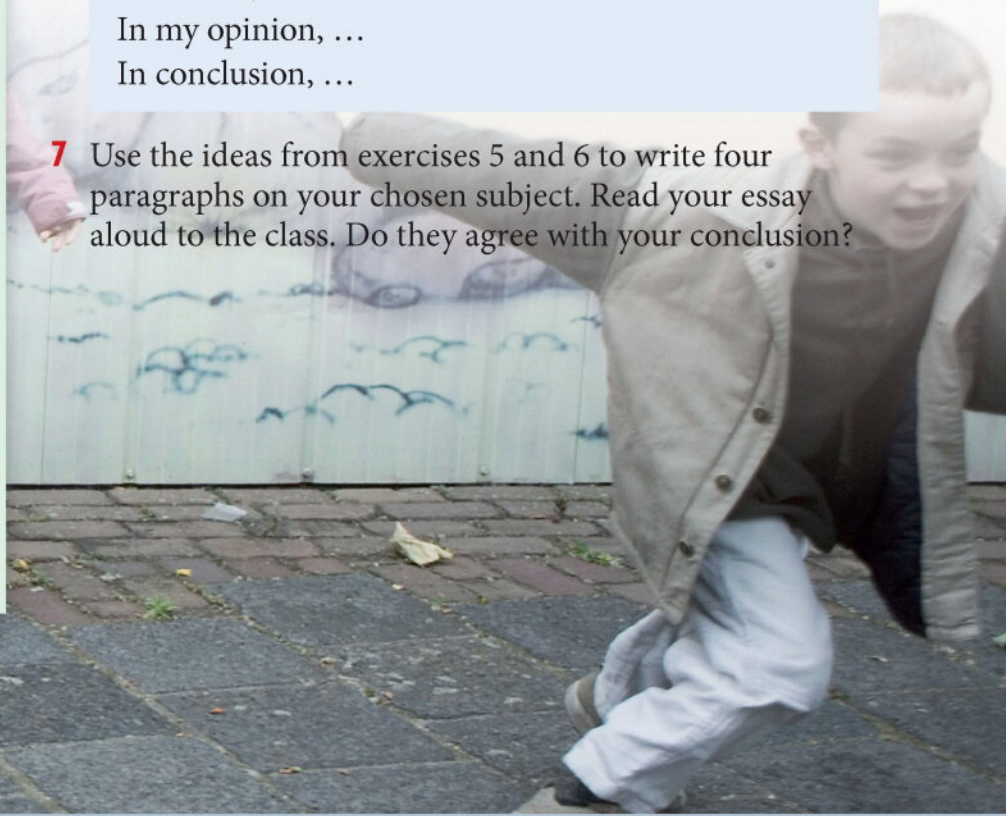

5 Work with a partner. Choose one of these subjects and briefly discuss the pros and cons.

- 1 Restorative justice (where criminals meet their victims to talk about the effect of their crimes)
- 2 Getting older
- 3 Having children while young

6 Work together to complete these phrases with your ideas from exercise 5.

On the plus side ...
 For example, ...
 Another point is that ...
 However, there are also disadvantages ...
 For instance ...
 What is more, ...
 Last of all, ...
 In my opinion, ...
 In conclusion, ...

7 Use the ideas from exercises 5 and 6 to write four paragraphs on your chosen subject. Read your essay aloud to the class. Do they agree with your conclusion?

- 1 Write down everything you know about New York City. Collect all your ideas as a class.
- 2 Work with a partner and study the diagram about New York. Compare the information with your ideas.

NEW YORK CITY

Although New York City is not the capital of the United States, its influence is seen throughout the world. Its nickname, (1) “_____”, was given to it by early immigrants because the city seemed so huge and full of promise.

Geography

It is located at the mouth of the (2) _____ and lies on the same latitude as the European cities of (3) _____.

History

The Dutch founded the city in 1614, calling it (4) _____. However, in (5) _____ it was captured by the British and renamed New York. The city grew in importance and was the US capital until 1790. During the 19th century it was transformed by (6) _____ and from the early 20th century became a world centre for industry, commerce, and communication. With the economic (7) _____ came the construction of its distinctive skyline of skyscrapers, two of which, the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center, were destroyed in the attacks of (8) _____, when nearly 3,000 people died.

Its people

New York is the most (9) _____ and cosmopolitan city in the United States with 8,214,246 inhabitants speaking (10) _____ languages. 36% of the city's population is (11) _____. Five of the largest ethnic groups are: Puerto Ricans, Italians, West Indians, Chinese, and Irish.

Transport

One in three New Yorkers uses public transport to get to work, whereas in the rest of the US 90% of commuters go by car. The New York City Subway, which is open 24/7, is used by (12) _____ a year. New York is also home to the famous Grand Central Station, three major airports, and (13) _____ distinctive, yellow taxi cabs.

Sport

The New York Marathon, held annually on the first Sunday of November, is the largest marathon in the world. It attracts (14) _____. However, many New Yorkers prefer a less energetic jog round Central Park. New Yorkers are also keen (15) _____ fans. The two most popular teams are the New York Yankees and the New York Mets.

Tourism

About (16) _____ tourists visit New York City each year. Major attractions include the Empire State Building, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Times Square, Central Park, and, of course, the luxury (17) _____ along Fifth Avenue. Tourists are also attracted by the incredible (18) _____ of places to eat, from diners, with their burgers, bagels, and pizza, to many of the finest haute cuisine restaurants in the US, and not forgetting the Grand Central Oyster Bar, and the steaming (19) _____ sold on every street corner.

Finally

With so much to do and see it is no surprise that New York is often called (20) "_____".

- 3 Read and complete the text using the information from the diagram in exercise 2.
- 4 Read the text again. What extra information to the diagram can you find? Give some examples.
- 5 Find these words and expressions in the text and discuss why they are used.

although	its	However	distinctive
two of which	whereas	is home to	with (so much to do)

- 6 Complete these sentences with the words or expressions from exercise 5.
 - 1 Tokyo is the biggest city in the world. _____ population is over 28 million.
 - 2 Britain has many big cities, _____ are Birmingham and Manchester.
 - 3 Manchester _____ one of the most famous football teams in the world, Manchester United.
 - 4 The temperature in Canada can be as low as -25°C in winter. _____, in summer it is often over 30°C.
 - 5 _____ most people in Canada speak English, French is also an official language.
 - 6 It is easy to recognise pictures of Sydney harbour because of its _____ bridge and the Opera House.
 - 7 Madrid is located in the centre of Spain, _____ Barcelona is on the coast.
 - 8 _____ so much to see, it is impossible to do a tour of Europe in two weeks.
- 7 Choose a famous town or city. Research it, make notes (you could draw a diagram), and then write about it. Use the headings about New York, or choose headings of your own.

- 1 Join the sentences in different ways using the words in brackets.
- George was rich. He wasn't a happy man. (but / although / however)
 - Jo rang me from a phone box. She's lost her mobile. (because / so)
- 2 Look at these words and expressions. They prepare people for what you are going to write or say next. Read and complete the sentences with your own ideas.

- In fact/Actually (I'm going to add more information to support this statement.)
Peter doesn't like working in London. In fact, he's thinking of changing jobs.
Peter and I are in love. Actually, we _____.
- Of course/Naturally (What I am going to say is obvious.)
Of course, having a baby has totally changed our lives.
Naturally, when I was a child I didn't _____.
- Fortunately/Unfortunately (What I am going to say is/is not good news.)
She tried really hard, and fortunately, she passed the exam.
She stood and waited for over an hour, but unfortunately, _____.
- Nevertheless (I am going to tell you about a result or effect which is unexpected.)
The accident wasn't her fault. Nevertheless, she felt terrible.
My father didn't do very well at school. Nevertheless, _____.
- Anyway (I am going to finish talking about the subject and move on to something new.)
What traffic! I thought I'd never get here. Anyway, now let's get on with the meeting.
Anyway, you've heard enough about me. What _____?

actually of course naturally fortunately unfortunately nevertheless anyway

- 3 Read the letter and write the word or words that fit best.

Hi Melody,

August 15th

I hope you're all well. Things are busy here. Maya moved out last week. She found a small apartment not far from here, (1) _____ (so / anyway) we still see her all the time. She also got a new job at a radio station. (2) _____, (Unfortunately / Because) it doesn't pay very well, (3) _____ (of course / but) at least she likes it. Now that Maya has moved out, it's only Joe and me at home. After 24 years of having kids around the house, it's a little strange to have the place all to ourselves. (4) _____, (However / In fact) it's nice to come home to a clean house at the end of the day.

Samantha is going to graduate from Oberlin College this year. We're all very proud and, (5) _____, (however / of course) we're going to have a party for her. (6) _____, (So / Actually) it's going to be a surprise party! So, shhh! Samantha says she wants to travel somewhere interesting in the autumn, (7) _____ (but / because) she hasn't decided where to go yet. Joe's fine, (8) _____ (although / so) he's been in a bad mood lately. He hasn't been able to do much in the garden (9) _____ (because / actually) it's rained every day for the last two weeks! (10) _____, (In fact / Nevertheless) it's been the rainiest summer for 20 years. (11) _____, (Anyway / Of course) that's enough of our news. How are you all? What are you up to?

Write back and tell me everything!

Love, Jackie

- 1 Kati was a student of English in Dublin, where she stayed with the Kendall family. She has now returned home. Read the email she has written to Mr and Mrs Kendall. Her English has improved, but there are still over 25 mistakes. How many can you find?

To: GillandBobKendall@lightspeed.net Attachment: GoodbyeDublin.jpg
Subject: Hello from Kati

Dear Mr and Mrs Kendall

I am home now since two weeks, but I have to start work immediately, so this is the first time is possible for me to write. How are you all? Are you busy as usual? Does Tim still work hard for his exam next month? I am miss you a lot and also all my friends from Dublin. :-)

Yesterday I've received an email from my Spain friend, Martina, and she told me about some of the other people I met. She say that Atsuko and Yuki will write me from Japan. I am lucky because I made so many good friend during I was in Ireland. It was really interesting for me to meet people from so many different countries. I think that we not only improved our English (I hope this!) but we also knew people from all over the world and this is important.

My family are fine. They had a good summer holiday by the lake. We are all very exciting because my brother will get married just before Christmas and we like very much his girlfriend. They have looked for a flat near the city centre but it is no easy to find one. If they won't find one soon, they will have to stay here with us.

Please can you check something for me? I can't find my red scarf. I think maybe I have forgotten it in the cuboard in my bedroom.

Please write soon. My family send best wishes to you all. I hope I can come back next year. Stay with you was a very wonderful experience for me. Thank you for all things and excuse my mistakes. I already forget much words.

Love and best wishes to you all,

Kati x x

P.S. I hope you like the attached photo. It's nice, isn't it?
It's the one you took when I was leaving!

- 2 Compare the mistakes you have found with a partner. Correct the email.
- 3 Write a thank-you email to someone you have stayed with.

- An interview with Xabier
I = Interviewer X = Xabier
- I So, Xabier – how old are you?
X I'm 21.
I And I know you have an interesting background, what nationality are you?
X Well, I've got a British passport ...
I ... so you're British, but your parents – what nationality are your parents?
X Well, my dad's Bolivian, he was born in Bolivia, in South America, but he's had a British passport for the last 20 years. My mum was born in Spain, in the Basque country, and she still has her Spanish passport.
I So how did they meet and end up having children in England?
X Erm ... they met when they were both studying English in England erm ... and er ... about 3 years after that they got married and here I am, and then my brother.
I And what was it like growing up in England with a Spanish mother and a Bolivian father?
X I don't think I actually noticed nationality for years – erm ... probably the first time I really noticed a difference was at secondary school, England were playing Spain in Euro '96 and my classmates made me choose which country to support.
I So which country did you support?
X I stayed neutral. Actually I didn't mind which team won.
I And which nationality do you feel now?
X I'd say I was English, rather than British – erm ... but I'm also very proud of my parents' heritage, half Basque and half Bolivian. I like that.
I What contact have you had with your family abroad?
X Well, I've only actually been to Bolivia once – er ... when I was a baby. I've had more contact on my mum's side. My Spanish grandparents visit us in England and when I was growing up we always went to Spain in the summer, and ...
I Very nice!
X ... and if I'm at home I speak to them – er ... to my grandparents, on the phone – er ... maybe once a week.
I And do you think that your Spanish heritage has influenced you at all?
X Well, yes, I think so. I think it influenced my degree choice. I'm studying modern languages at Durham University, Spanish and French. I'm in my 3rd year, I have one more year to do.
I And what are you hoping to do in the future?
X Erm –. That's a very good question. Erm ... hopefully a job that offers some kind of opportunity to travel but ultimately I want to settle down for good in England. I've always been interested in my background but I think that I realize England is my home and it's where I see myself living.

- I Thank you very much Xabier.
X You're welcome.

An interview with Ana

- I Ana, you're Spanish, aren't you?
A Yes, I am. I'm from Bilbao, in the Basque country.
I And how long have you lived here in Oxford?
A -er ... 23 years.
I And how did that happen?
A Well, I wanted to improve my English so I came to England, to study. Originally, I came for 6 months but -er ... I met my husband -er ... we met at the college - actually we met on the way to the college, in the street.
I You met in the street?
A Yes, it was my first day and I was walking up the hill to the college and Teo, that's my husband, was driving up the hill and he stopped and offered me a lift, which I refused.
I You refused?
A Yes, but we ended up in the same class. I went into the class and there he was.
I And your husband's from Bolivia, isn't he?
A Yes, he is.
I So that means you speak the same language.
A Yes, Spanish.
I So why did you decide to live in England?
A Well, mainly because my husband had a job here and erm- we kind of decided we wanted a place in the middle, between Spain and Bolivia.
I A nice idea. And you have two sons.
A Yes, I do. Er ... Xabier is 21, nearly 22, and James is 19.
I So, what's it been like for them growing up in England with parents of different nationality?
A Well, I think because we live in Oxford, a cosmopolitan city, they didn't notice it too much.
I They are both bilingual presumably?
A No, not really ...
I Oh.
A ... because, when they were children, even though we spoke to them in Spanish they always replied in English.
I Erm, interesting. Tell me, how much contact has your family here had with the families in Spain and Bolivia?
A I think more with my family in Spain because it's closer. We always spent summer there -er- 2 or 3 weeks usually.
I And the Bolivian side?
A Well, my husband keeps in touch all the time but his family have never been here.
I Never?
A Never. We went to Bolivia once when Xabier was 18 months old. James has never been.
I So what are the children doing now?
A Xabier's at university and James has just finished school. He's been working in a restaurant saving money to travel.
I And what do they want to do in the future?
A Well, James. He's going to travel to Bolivia, at last! Then he's going to university to study Biology.
I And Xabier?
A I think he wants to work in the Foreign Office.
I Ana, is it possible to sum up the pros and cons of bringing up a family in another country to your own?
A Well, I think in a way it's good because you can take the best things from both cultures, but I don't think my sons will ever feel 100% English because their parents aren't English. It's quite tricky.

C Can I help you?
B At last a real person! Do you know how long I've been waiting?
10 A There are still tickets for the 5.45 performance but the 8.45 performance is sold out, I'm afraid.
B That's fine. We'll have two, please, one adult, and one child.
A Right. Two for 5.45. The doors open at 5.

T 1.12 Roleplay

- 1 A Maria, this is my friend Peter. We came to England together. We come from the same town in Germany.
B Hello, Peter. Nice to meet you. I hope you're having a good time.
2 A Excuse me. I don't think this is mine. I ordered a medium latte and a muffin.
B Oh sorry. My mistake. This is for the next table.
3 A Good evening. Reception? I'm in room 216. My TV isn't working. Can you send someone to fix it?
B Of course, sir. I'll send someone immediately.
4 A Excuse me. Can you tell me which is the check-in desk for Prague? I can't see my flight on the screen.
B Oh dear. You're at the wrong terminal. Flights to Prague go from Terminal 5. You can get a bus to the terminal over there.
5 A OK everyone. The meal's ready! Can you all come to the table? Bring your drinks and just help yourselves to the food.
B+C+D Mmmm. It smells good. Can we sit where we like?

T 2.1 Blue Monday, by Fats Domino

Blue Monday, how I hate Blue Monday
Got to work like a slave all day
Here come(s) Tuesday, oh hard Tuesday
I'm so tired (I've) got no time to play

On Wednesday, (I) work twelve hours, then Go home, fall into bed at ten,
'Cause Thursday is a hard working day
And Friday I get my pay

Saturday morning, oh Saturday morning
All my tiredness has gone away
Got my money and my honey
And I'm out on the town to play

Sunday morning my head is bad
But it's worth it for the fun that I had Sunday evening it's goodnight and amen
'Cos on Monday I start again.

T 2.2 My favourite day of the week

Vicky

I go to a boarding school, so I don't live with my parents during term-time. Erm ..., what I like is being with my friends all the time. Whether we're working or just chatting, it's great to know that there's always someone there. There's also a lot of freedom. I don't have to tell my parents where I'm going, who I'm going with, you know ... Normally Monday is my favourite day because I only have two lessons on a Monday, but I'm having a very bad day today because I have homework from every one of my teachers, and I have to do it now!

Terry

I work in a restaurant in Manchester. I have two days off a week, usually Monday and Wednesday, but my favourite day of the week is, in fact, Friday, even though I work that day. It's the best night because all my mates come into the restaurant and we have a great laugh. There's a real buzz to the place, and it doesn't feel like work at all. Time just flies by. The restaurant's being redecorated at the moment, so everything's a bit crazy.

Dave

I'm a police officer. I like my job because it's challenging, but I live for surfing. I go as often as I can. I'm opening two shops that sell surfboards in the next few months. The boards are made in South Africa. Sunday is my favourite day of the week. I get up as early as I can, and spend the day on the beach.

Jenny

Mike and I live on a farm in beautiful countryside. I know we're very lucky, but it's hard work. We rarely have a day off at the weekend or Christmas Day, or any day of the year. We have to feed the sheep. Now we're lambing, so we aren't getting any sleep, either. But I suppose our favourite day is Wednesday because that's the day we generally go hunting. We go on the moors with about twenty friends.

T 2.3 Dave Telford, police officer and surfer

D = Dave

What's your background?

- D I'm 46, and I'm divorced. I have two kids, who I see once a fortnight. I live in Devon, in the south-west of England. I'm a police officer. I've been in the police force for over twenty years. I love my job, but my passion is surfing.

What hours do you work?

- D I work different shifts. The morning shift starts at 5.00, and I can't stand that because I have to get up at 4.30. My favourite shift is 2.00 in the afternoon till midnight because I get home about 12.30. What's good is that I work ten hours a day for four days, then have three days off.

What do you think of your job?

- D My job is extremely busy and very hard. But I like it because it's challenging, and I never know what's going to happen. I like working in a team. We look after each other and work together.

Why do you like surfing?

- D My work is very stressful, so I surf to get away from it all. It's just me and the sea, and my mind switches off. I concentrate so hard on what I'm doing that I don't think about anything else.

How often do you go surfing?

- D I go surfing whenever I'm not working. Sometimes I'm on the beach before 7.00 in the morning. I go all over the world surfing. Next month I'm going to Costa Rica, and in the autumn I'm going to Thailand.

Do you have a business?

- D I've got a surf school. I teach all ages, from kids to pensioners. The business is doing well. I'm also opening two shops that sell surfboards. The boards are made in South Africa. They're the best.

What's your favourite day of the week?

- D I like Sundays best of all. I work as a lifeguard all day, then around 6.00 me and my mates barbecue some fish and have a few beers. Fantastic! I've been all round the world, but when I look around me, I think there's nowhere else I'd rather be.

T 2.4 Questions and answers

- 1 A Has he got any children?
B Yes, two.
- 2 A How often does he see them?
B Once a fortnight.
- 3 A Why doesn't he like the morning shift?
B Because he has to get up at 4.30.
- 4 A How many hours a day does he work?
B Ten
- 5 A What does he like about his job?
B He likes it because it's challenging, and he likes working in a team.
- 6 A What does he think about while he's surfing?
B He only thinks about surfing, nothing else.
- 7 A Where's he going next month?
B Costa Rica.
- 8 A Is his business doing well?
B Yes, it is. He's opening two shops.
- 9 A What do he and his friends do on Sunday evenings?
B They eat barbecued fish and drink beer.

T 2.5 The office

A = new employee B = established employee

- A Gosh! I don't know anybody! Can you help me? Who are all these people?
B Uh, well, that's Simon. He's sitting at the top of the table reading something.
A He's the one with glasses wearing a jumper, right?
B Yeah, that's it.
A And what does he do?
B He's the Managing Director. He's the man in charge.
A The boss, in other words.
B Uh huh. He shouts a lot, but he listens as well. Then there's Edward. He's wearing a suit. He's standing up talking to Anna. Edward's the Sales Director. He's charming. He always has a nice word to say to everyone. Anna's standing next to him. She's drinking a coffee. She's wearing a jacket and she's got a scarf round her neck.
A And Anna is the ...?
B Anna's the Accountant. Money, money, money. Very bright, very quick.
A Ah, OK. And who's that talking on her phone?
B In the white blouse and blue skirt? That's Jenny; she's the Human Resources Manager, HR Manager. She looks after all the personnel. She's a sweetheart. Everyone loves her. Then there's Matthew. He's the IT Manager. He's only working here for a few months. He's from our New York office. I don't really know him very well.

- A He's the guy working on his laptop?
B That's him. Wearing a shirt, no tie. He knows everything about technology. And finally that's Christina talking to Simon. She's his PA. She's ...
A Sorry. What was that?
B She's Simon's PA, Personal Assistant. She organizes his diary, but she helps all of us, really. We couldn't cope without her. She runs the whole place, actually. She's wearing a black suit and has fabulous earrings. Very smart.
A Right. I think I've got that ...

T 2.6 Who earns how much?

Part 1

- A Well, I reckon that doctors earn quite a lot.
B Yeah. I think so, too. They have a lot of responsibility and a lot of training. I'd say that doctors get about ... £105,000? What do you think?
A Could be ... or it could be even more, £120,000.
B One of those two, anyway. Shall we look at the high earners first?
A Uh huh. £750,000 ...
B There's one higher ...
A Oh, is there? Oh, yeah. A million. Mmm.
B I'd say ... that has to be the footballer.
A Yes, definitely. They do earn ridiculous amounts of money, don't they? So what about £750,000? Who earns three quarters of a million?
B Erm ... I think that's the lawyer.
A As much as that? What about the senior director? Do lawyers earn more than them?
B Maybe, maybe not. I suppose the lawyer could be £105,000, and the Senior Director £750,000. Senior Directors are in charge of huge companies.
A OK. Now ... the pilot. Pilots earn quite a lot, don't they? They need a lot of experience, they have people's lives in their hands ... I think they get ... oh, at least a hundred, a hundred and fifty.
B Mmm. I know what you mean, but I don't think they get as much as that.
A Don't they? Oh. Anyway, there isn't 150 on this list, so ...
B I reckon pilots get about £65,000 ...
A OK. I'd say that's about right ...

T 2.7

Part 2

- B Let's go on down to the bottom. What's the lowest salary?
A £11,000. I guess that's the nurse. They don't get paid much, nurses.
B I thought they earned more than that, actually. I know they don't get much, but even so ...
A Then there's £12,500, and the next up is £22,500.
B Oh, look! Supermarket cashier. I don't suppose they get much. £12,500, I'd say.
A OK. That seems about right. What about farmers? How much do they get?
B I don't know. It depends what sort of farmer. They can earn a fortune, can't they?
A I suppose so, yes ... But they're always complaining that supermarkets don't pay them enough for what they produce.
B I still reckon they get a decent salary. They own so much land! I bet they get 50 or 60 thousand.
A No, I think it's much lower. I'd say £22,500.
B Hmm. Not so sure. Then we've got ... teachers. What do they earn?
A I reckon they get ... um ... £32,000?
B But it all depends how many years they've worked and how many qualifications they've got.
A Yeah, I know, but we're talking about the average.
B Don't teachers and police officers earn about the same?
A Do they? I'm not so sure. I'd say that police officers get more. What have we got? £32,000 ... £36,000.

B I think 32 for the police officer and 36 for the teacher.

- A Um, well, actually I'd say the other way round. 36 for the police officer and 32 for the teacher. My mother's a teacher, and she doesn't earn anything like that!
B What does that leave? We haven't decided about the farmer or the nurse yet.
A I think the nurse gets less than the farmer. She gets the least.
B Why she? Nurses can be men, you know.
A True. Sorry. Nurses – men and women – earn less than farmers.
B Men and women.
A Absolutely.

T 2.8 Free time activities

John

My favourite hobby is cooking, and that's a thing you do at home, obviously. I cook most days, though not every day. We also like eating out, you see. What clothes and equipment do I need? Uh, well, I always wear a chef's apron to protect my clothes, because you can make a mess when you're cooking, and tomatoes and spices change the colour of your clothes forever! The most important piece of equipment is knives. I'm very fussy about my knives. They're German, and very sharp, and I really look after them. Obviously in the kitchen you need all sorts of things like pots and pans and casserole dishes and chopping boards and food mixers, but I don't really have a lot of gadgets. I like to keep things simple. What I like about cooking is the fact that it's creative and it's real. We have to eat, and what we eat is really important, so I like to know that what I'm eating, and what my family is eating, is good. I actually like all the preparation. Going out shopping, seeing the food, feeling it, smelling it, talking to the people who are selling it, is half the fun. People often ask me what I like cooking, and I don't really have an answer. Whatever looks good, and whatever I feel like cooking that day. The best bit is of course seeing people enjoy my food, but what's also very important to me is seeing everyone happy, and enjoying being at the table. It's about the occasion as much as the food.

T 2.9 Making small talk

A = Ann L = Lars

- A So what do you think of Liverpool, Lars?
L It's really interesting. Liverpool's such an old city, isn't it? There are some lovely buildings, and the people are so friendly!
A Yes, they are, aren't they? When did you get here?
L Two days ago. I got the plane from Oslo. We were a bit late landing, but it didn't matter.
A Oh, good. Where are you staying in Liverpool?
L At the Grand Hotel. It's very convenient for the office. My room isn't very big, but it's OK.
A What a pity! Never mind. Where are you from?
L Well, from Norway. I was born in Bergen, but I live in a suburb of Oslo. It's very pretty, and it's not far from the sea.
A Really? It sounds beautiful. Your English is very good. Where did you learn it?
L That's very kind of you, but I know I make a lot of mistakes. I learned it at school for years, and I've been to England quite a few times.
A Oh, have you? How interesting! And what are you doing here in Liverpool, Lars?
L I'm attending a conference. I'm here for five days, and I'm going home on the 17th.
A Oh, so soon! And have you managed to get around our city yet?
L I haven't seen very much. I've been for a walk along the riverside and I've taken a ferry across the Mersey, but I haven't seen the Beatles' Exhibition yet.
A Well, I hope you enjoy it. Don't work too hard!
L I'll try to enjoy myself! Bye. It was nice to talk to you.

T 2.11

- A Who do you work for?
B Siemens. I've been with them for four years. They're a good company. How about you?
- A Do you enjoy your job?
B Yes, I do. It's quite hard, but I enjoy the challenge. I don't earn very much. What about you? Do you like your job?
- A Where do you come from?
B I was born in Montreal, and I've lived there all my life with my parents. I'd like to live abroad some time.
- A Have you been to New York?
B No, I haven't, but I'd love to. I've heard it's one of the most amazing cities in the world. Have you been there?
- A What do you do when you're not working?
B Well, I like horse-riding, and I play golf. And I love music, so I often go to concerts. Do you?
- A The weather's amazing at the moment, isn't it?
B Yes, it's so mild. We haven't had any really cold weather at all! Have you heard a weather forecast for the weekend? It's supposed to be good, isn't it?
- A Are you having a holiday this year?
B Yes, I'm going to Mexico with some friends. I haven't been there before, so I'm really looking forward to it. What about you?
- A This city's very exciting, isn't it?
B Really? Do you think so? There isn't very much to do. I get so bored here. What do you find to do?
- A What's your favourite programme on television?
B I haven't got a favourite, but I like soaps and documentaries. And quiz shows. And the news. I suppose I like everything. What about you?

- I went out with some people from work, so I didn't get home till about midnight. Well, after midnight, actually. Quite a late night for me!
- I met some friends in town for a coffee, and we talked for a bit. Then I went home and did some stuff on the computer, you know, Facebook, then went to bed about eleven thirty.

T 3.6 Smash! Clumsy visitor destroys priceless vases, by Tom Ball

A clumsy visitor to a British museum has destroyed a set of priceless 300-year-old Chinese vases after slipping on the stairs.

The three vases, which were produced during the Qing dynasty in the 17th century, had stood on a windowsill at the Fitzwilliam Museum in Cambridge for forty years. Last Thursday they were smashed into a million pieces. The vases, which had been donated in 1948, were the museum's best-known pieces.

The Fitzwilliam decided not to identify the man who had caused the disaster. 'It was a most unfortunate and regrettable accident,' museum director Duncan Robinson said, 'but we are glad that the visitor wasn't seriously injured.'

The photograph of the accident was taken by another visitor, Steve Baxter. 'We watched the man fall as if in slow motion. He was flying through the air. The vases exploded as though they'd been hit by a bomb. The man was sitting there stunned in the middle of a pile of porcelain when the staff arrived.'

The museum declined to say what the vases were worth.

T 3.7 I = Interviewer NF = Nick Flynn

- I It's 7.45, and you're listening to the Today programme. The man who broke Chinese vases worth £100,000 when he fell downstairs at a museum has been named by a daily newspaper. He's Nick Flynn, and he's with us now. Are you all right, Mr Flynn? You didn't hurt yourself falling downstairs, did you?
- NF I'm on the mend, which is more than I can say for the vases!
- I Too true! How did it happen?
- NF I was coming down the stairs, looking at the pictures, and I slipped. The stairs are very shiny, and it had been raining, so I guess my shoes were a bit wet. And I just went head over heels.
- I It must have been a strange feeling, lying in the middle of all that priceless porcelain?
- NF I was surprised that these incredibly valuable vases were left just standing on a windowsill. I'd seen them lots of times before, but I hadn't really paid them any attention.
- I And I hear you've been banned from the museum? Is that right?
- NF Yes, I got a letter from the director of the museum asking me not to go back. It's a shame, because I used to go twice a week. So now I've got to find somewhere else to go.
- I Well, thank you, Mr Flynn, and good luck.

The first time I fell in love was when I was 13. It was with a boy called Max. We were on a school trip, a geography trip, so a whole group of us were living together for a week. I'd never really noticed this boy before, because we used to go around with different people, but I suddenly started looking at him, and I remember thinking, 'Hmm! You're nice!', and I couldn't understand why I hadn't looked at him before. He was very quiet, and he had dark eyes that seemed to see everything, and he made me go all weak at the knees. We kind of started going out. When we held hands, it was electric! And the first time we kissed, I'd never felt anything like it in my life! Wow! I don't think he felt the same passion as me. He was very cool about everything. It only lasted a few months. Then he went back to his friends, and I went back to mine.

Tommy

T = Tommy I = Interviewer

- T Well, I fell in love with a girl called Emma, but it didn't last very long.
 I How long did it last?
 T Well ... about two weeks. It all ended last Friday.
 I Oh, dear! What happened last Friday?
 T I decided that I'd had enough of being in love. I didn't like the feeling.
 I Was Emma upset?
 T Not really. She didn't know anything about it.
 I What?
 T No. I hadn't told her that I was in love with her, so she didn't know that it had ended.
 I Was it so bad?
 T Oh, yes. I couldn't sleep. I used to get this funny feeling here in my tummy when I saw her coming, and my heart went bang, bang, bang. It was horrible!
 I So how did you manage to stop loving her?
 T Well, I'm only 9, and I figured that I'm too young to only love one person for the rest of my life.
 I Fair enough. I'm glad you didn't hurt her feelings.
 T I'm glad it's all over.

James

Well, I've only been in love once in my life, and that was when I was 22. I'd had other girlfriends, of course, but it was never more than that. Just a girlfriend. And then I met this other girl, Ruth, and my whole life just turned upside down. I remember thinking at the time that I'd never felt anything like it. Nothing looked the same, felt the same, life had never been so amazing, so colourful. I wanted to do everything – climb mountains, fly like a bird, stay up all night – life was far too amazing to sleep. It's funny, I never used to care what I looked like, but suddenly I started to care. I wanted to look good for this girl in my life. I felt that I hadn't really lived until that moment, until I'd met her and fallen in love. Thank goodness she felt the same! We're still together. Thirty years and four kids later. Amazing, huh?

T 4.2 Giving advice

Conversation 1

- A Are you going to Charlotte's party?
 B I don't know if I should go or not.
 A What do you mean?
 B Well, her parents are abroad and they told her she wasn't allowed to have friends over while they were away.
 A Oh, come on! You must come. It's a party. Everyone has parties when their parents are away.
 B Yeah, but her mum and dad are best friends with mine.
 A Look. You don't have to tell your mum and dad. Just go to the party and help to clear up after.
 B I'm not sure.

Conversation 2

- A Do you see that woman over there?
 B Yeah, what about her?
 A She's smoking!
 B So?
 A You're not allowed to smoke in here.
 B Well ...
 A Do you think I should tell her to stop?
 B No, no, you mustn't say anything. It's embarrassing. The waiter will tell her.
 A No! I can't just sit here. I must say something. Er – excuse me ...

Conversation 3

- A I'm so mad!
 B Why?
 A I've got a parking ticket. I had to go to the shops for my dad and when I got back to the car there was a ticket on the windscreen.
 B Oh, that's bad luck!
 A I think he should pay the fine.
 B Who? Your dad? Why? He wasn't driving.
 A Yeah, but I was doing his shopping.
 B But he didn't tell you to park illegally.
 A OK, OK, so it's my fault. Er – I still think he should pay it.

T 4.3 Great-grandma Alice

This is a story that my great-grandma Alice loved telling about her school days. She started school when she was 5 and, apparently, she was very bright. Anyway, that's what she told us. And when she was 11 the teacher, Miss Fox, came to her and said: 'Alice, you've learnt everything that I know. I can't teach you any more now. But you're not allowed to leave school until you're 12 years old, so you'll just have to sit at the back of the class.' So that's what Great-grandma Alice did. She sat at the back for a whole year and her dad, my great-great grandpa, was really angry 'cos he wanted her to be out earning money for the family. She was a domestic servant.

T 4.4 Rules for life

1 Millie

Well, so many teenagers seem to think life is about just one thing, you know – money and fame, they think it will bring them happiness. Honestly, I would hate to be famous. When I read the magazines, and see all the photos of these rich, famous film stars, footballers and the like, it frightens me. They can't move without being followed and photographed. Often they've got to employ bodyguards. When I grow up I just want to enjoy my work, if I earn lots of money, fair enough, but if I don't I'll still be happy. I never want to be famous. That's scary stuff.

2 Richard

My rule for life is that you only get out of life what you put in. I mean, you should never ask that question people always ask 'Why are we here? What is the meaning of life?' – you'll never find the answer. You've got to give meaning to your life by what you do with your life – er ... and I think you can do this in all kinds of ways. It doesn't matter if you are president of your country or a rubbish collector – you have a place in the world, you have a part to play.

3 Frank

I believe you've got to look for the good in people and things. So many people of my age do nothing but complain about today's world – oh, on and on they go about – ooh, how bad the traffic is, or how mobile phones are such a menace. Oh, and most of all they complain – about young people – they're loud, they're impolite, not like in the 'good old days'. Well, I say 'rubbish' to all that. There's always been good and bad in the world and I think we should look for the good. The rule I try to live by is find three things every day to be happy about.

T 4.5 Spoken English

- A 'Isn't your mum away at the moment?'
B 'Uh, yeah, so Dad's got to do all the cooking and I've got to do all the ironing.'
- A 'Where's my briefcase? I've got to go to work.'
B 'It's where you left it when you came home. In the hall by the front door.'
- A 'Mum, why can't I go out now?'
B 'You've got to tidy your room first. Your friends will just have to wait.'
- A 'Won't you be late for work?'
B 'Oh, goodness. Look at the time I've got to go now. I mustn't stay here chatting. We'll catch up later. Bye!'

T 4.6 I Believe

I believe in bottle banks.
 And beauty from within
 I believe in saying thanks
 And fresh air on the skin
 I believe in healthy walks
 As tonic for the feet
 I believe in serious talks
 And just enough to eat

Chorus

That's what I believe
 Surprising as it seems
 I believe that happiness
 Is well within our dreams
 I believe in being nice
 In spite of what you think
 I believe in good advice
 And not too much to drink
 I believe in being true
 In everything you try to do
 I believe in me and you
 I hope you share my point of view

Chorus (repeat)

I believe in being kind
 Especially when it's hard
 I believe an open mind
 Can show a fine regard
 I believe that manners make
 A person good to know
 I believe in birthday cake
 And going with the flow

Chorus (repeat)

That's what I believe
 Although it seems naïve
 I believe that peace and love
 Are there to be achieved
 That's what I believe...

Song: Teacher's Book p150

T 4.7 Phrasal verbs

- 1 A Who do you take after in your family?
B Mmm ... I don't think I take after anyone in particular. Mind you the older I get, the more I think I'm like my mother. Humh ...!
- 2 A Do you get on well with both your parents?
B Yes, I do. Most of the time. I do a lot of stuff with my dad. Football and things.
- 3 A Have you recently taken up any new sports or hobbies?
B Me? No! My life's too busy already!
- 4 A Do you often look up words in your dictionary?
B Sometimes, if I'm really stuck.
- 5 A Are you looking forward to going on holiday soon?
B I wish! I've just been on holiday so I've got to wait till Christmas now.
- 6 A Do you pick up foreign languages easily?
B Well, I picked up Italian quite easily when I was living in Milan but I already knew French, so I think that helped a bit.
- 7 A Have you got any bad habits that you want to give up?
B Yes, I bite my nails. I just can't stop and I'm a teacher so I have to hide my hands from the kids 'cos I don't want to set a bad example.

Conversation 1

- A Hello, it's me again. I've just remembered that I have a doctor's appointment in the morning. Could we possibly make it lunch instead of coffee?
B Erm ..., no problem. I can do lunch too. How about 12.30 in the usual restaurant?

Conversation 2

- A Would you mind if we didn't go out for a drink after work? I want to watch the match on TV.
B Hey, we could have a drink at Bar Metro. They have a huge screen. We could both watch the match there.
A You're on. A great idea.

Conversation 3

- A So, anyway, there I was just finishing my report, when suddenly the boss calls me into his office and he starts ...
B Sorry darling, I really do want to hear all about it, but the baby's crying. Do you think you could go and check him? He might need changing.

Conversation 4

- A Help! Urgh ... I don't know what's gone wrong with my computer. The screen's frozen again.
B I'll try and fix it if you like. I'm quite good with computers.
A Oh, go ahead. Be my guest. I've had it with this machine!

UNIT 5

T 5.1 Things our grandchildren may never see

- H = Hannah D = Dan
H Do you ever worry about what the world will be like when our grandchildren grow up?
D Hang on! We haven't had our baby yet. I'm not thinking about grandchildren!
H I know, but having a baby makes me wonder – what will the world be like when he or she grows - up? Look at these pictures. Don't they make you worry about what could happen in the future?

D Mmm – OK, of course things are going to change a lot in the next hundred years, even in the next fifty but ...
H I know and I'm getting worried. Everyone says global warming is a fact nowadays. No one says it may get warmer or it might get warmer any more. Scientists say that it definitely will get warmer. It's going to be a very different world for our children and grandchildren.
D Look, Hannah, it's no good worrying. Not all scientists think the same ...
H Yes, I know but most do! Look, it says here over 2,500 climate scientists agree. They say temperatures might rise by up to 4°C before the end of the century. Dan, this is the world our son or daughter is going to grow up in.
D Hannah, you've got to take it easy, you're having a baby soon and I don't ...
H I can't help being worried. If the Arctic ice melts there'll be floods and the polar bears will have nowhere to live. Oh, look at this ...
D Come on, Hannah. Look here, it also says humans are clever enough to find solutions. We'll do our bit and we'll bring up our baby to do the same. Every little helps. ...
H OK, but maybe it won't help. It may be too late already.

T 5.2 What do you think will happen?

- 1 A Do you think the earth will continue to get warmer?
B Yes, I do. The more I read about it, the more I think it will. A few years ago I wasn't so sure.
- 2 A Do you think all the ice will melt at the Poles?
B Well, I don't think all the ice will melt, but a lot has melted already. Do you know a new island near Greenland has just appeared? They thought it was part of the mainland but it was just an ice bridge and it melted. It's called Warming Island. A good name, don't you think?
- 3 A Do you think polar bears will become extinct?
B I think they might. They only live in the Arctic and I read that the ice there has decreased by 14% since the 1970s.
- 4 A Do you think more people will travel by train?
B Definitely. I think lots more people will choose train travel when they can, especially across Europe. Of course it won't always be possible to.
- 5 A Do you think that air travel will be banned to reduce CO₂ emissions?
B Well, I think it could become much more expensive to travel by air but I don't think it'll be banned.
- 6 A Do you think new sources of energy will be found?
B I hope so. Some people say nuclear energy is the only answer but I think this could cause more problems. Actually, I like wind farms, they look amazing. But I know some people hate them.
- 7 A Do you think there'll be more droughts or more floods in the world?
B I don't really know. There might be both droughts and floods. I think parts of London may be flooded – there's already a barrier across the River Thames to stop flooding.
- 8 A Do you think our lifestyles will have to change?
B Definitely. They're already changing. We're told all the time to do things like drive smaller cars, use cleaner petrol, and recycle our rubbish. That worries me a lot – the amount of rubbish we make.

T 5.3 Discussing grammar

- 1 A Have you decided about your holiday yet?
B No, not yet. We've never been to Prague so we might go there.

- 2 A Are you going to take an umbrella?
B No, I'm not. The forecast says it'll be fine all day.
- 3 A Why are you making a list?
B Because I'm going shopping. Is there anything you want?
- 4 A Would you like to go out for a drink tonight?
B Sorry, I'm working late. Um, how about tomorrow night? I'll call you.
- 5 A What are you doing Saturday night?
B I'm not sure yet. I may go to friends' or they may come to me.
- 6 A Are you enjoying your job more now?
B No, I'm not. I'm going to look for another one.
- 7 A Your team's rubbish! It's 2-0 to United!
B Come on. It's only half-time. I think they could still win.
- 8 A You won't pass your exams next month if you go out every night.
B I know, I'll work harder nearer the time. I promise.

T 5.4 World weather warnings

1 The British Isles

A prolonged period of heavy rain and thunderstorms will affect parts of the country on Friday and into Saturday. Rainfall could total 20-30mm in the south but there may be up to 60-90mm in the north and Scotland. The heavy rain might lead to flooding in some areas.

2 Canada

High winds following in the path of Hurricane Gloria will head north from the US overnight. They could reach up to 160 kilometres per hour and may cause damage to buildings across north-west Ontario. These winds are going to bring with them high temperatures across the country and thunderstorms in many areas.

3 Hungary

The country's heatwave is going to continue. Temperatures could rise to more than 40 degrees Celsius by midday tomorrow. Budapest's city council are going to send out teams of workers to distribute 22,000 bottles of drinking water to local people. Meteorologists say that temperatures will continue to rise until the end of the week.

4 Mexico

Tropical storm Barbara is forming rapidly over the coast and will move towards land. Winds of 110 kilometres an hour are expected and they could reach the popular tourist destination of Acapulco over the next few days. Hotels and houses may have to be evacuated. Meteorologists say that the winds might even reach hurricane status.

5 South Africa

For the first time in 25 years forecasters in Johannesburg are predicting snow. Up to 10 centimetres could fall during the night and this is causing much excitement throughout the city. SABC News is reporting that some parents are going to take their children to the local parks after midnight to play in the snow. Tambo International airport may be affected.

T 5.5

- 1 I think it'll be a cold night tonight. Wrap up warm if you go out.
2 I think I'll get a new computer. I want a laptop this time.
3 I think I'll do a cookery course. I can't even boil an egg.
4 I think you'll like the film. It's a great story, and really well cast.
5 I think we'll get to the airport in time. But we'd better get a move on.
6 I think you'll get the job. You've got all the right qualifications.

T 5.6

- 1 I don't think it'll be a cold night tonight. You won't need to take a jacket.
- 2 I don't think I'll get a new computer. It may seem old-fashioned to you but it's OK for me.
- 3 I don't think I'll do a cookery course. I'll get lessons from my mum.
- 4 I don't think you'll like the film. It's not really your kind of thing.
- 5 I don't think we'll get to the airport in time. There's too much traffic.
- 6 I don't think you'll get the job. You're too young, and you've got no experience.

T 5.7 Rocket man

I = Interviewer (Fi Glover, Saturday Live, BBC)

S = Steve Bennett

- I Steve Bennett's ambition was to be a rocket scientist. A few years ago he almost won a £10 million prize, the X prize. Now Steve is building a rocket that will take him and 2 passengers up into space. He believes that space tourism is not really that far away.
- S Space tourism is just about to happen, there are quite a lot of people around the world actually putting a lot of money into space tourism. So it's simply a question of when not if. You know, just as the Internet made billionaires, well, space tourism is going to make trillionaires. And all the big names are at it – you've got Jeff Bezos, he did Amazon.com, he's building his own spaceship; you've got Richard Branson, even he's commissioning someone to build a spaceship for him. So it really is going to happen.
- I And what are you intending to take people into space in? What is your rocket?
- S A rocket that can carry 3 people into space. We're not going into orbit. It's going straight up, straight down, but it will go into space, it'll give you about 3 or 4 minutes of weightlessness, you'll see the blackness of space, the curvature of the earth and you really will truly become an astronaut just like the early American astronauts.
- I And you're going to be one of the people who goes up, so it's going to be you and two space tourists. Have you been up in this exact rocket before Steve?
- S No, we're still working on this one. We've launched 16 big rockets to date, but this actual space tourism rocket, called 'Thunderstar', we're still working on it, we're still building it. I was influenced as a small child watching too many episodes of Thunderbirds, I think.
- I Were you very much struck by the first moon landings as well?
- S Yup. I was about 5 years old when they landed on the moon. Erm, my parents wouldn't let me stay up to watch the actual landing which was a bit of a shame.
- I How mean!
- S Yeah ... Yeah. Well, they just didn't get it. 'Oh it's marvellous, but they should spend the money on something better' kind of attitude.
- I Lots of young boys will have had exactly that kind of experience themselves but very few of them will now have a business that is making rockets. Did you always feel that eventually you would get to do it professionally?
- S I kept it pretty quiet. 10, 15 years ago you start talking about space tourism and people, they think you're nuts, so you keep that kind of thing to yourself.
- I Why do we really need to do that, though? I mean, is there actually any necessity to have more humans in space?
- S Well, that's pretty much where the human race needs to be, you know, in terms of expansion. You know there's enough resources in space to allow the human race to continue to grow and expand for the next 10 thousand years.
- I What kind of training do you have to do in order to go up in the rocket?

- S Actually, one of the most important things we do is skydiving training. We feel that if you haven't got what it takes to jump out of an airplane with a parachute, you really shouldn't be strapping yourself to the top of a 17-ton rocket.
- I These two other people who've already booked their place on your Thunderstar, do you know who they are?
- S Absolutely. I've taken their money.
- I Right.
- S Well, it's a couple. It's 2 people that want to fly in space and they came to me a few years ago and basically they said 'Steve we want to fly in the rocket. Here's the money,' and they paid me half a million pounds for it.
- I And how often do you consider the possibility that something might go wrong?
- S I think about it every day, you know. I've built a lot of rockets. Most of them have worked really well, some haven't, and I think about that every day.

T 5.8 Spoken English

- 1 A Did your team win?
B No, but they played pretty well, all the same.
- 2 A You haven't lost your mobile phone again!
B Oh, no. I'm pretty sure it's in my bag somewhere.
- 3 A Do you enjoy skiing?
B I do, but I'm pretty hopeless at it.
- 4 A What do you think of my English?
B I think it's pretty good.

T 5.9 see p119T 5.10

- 1 Bob and Jan don't get on at all. They disagree about everything.
- 2 Money doesn't always lead to happiness.
- 3 My aunt says today's kids are all rude and impolite.
- 4 Thanks for your advice, it was really helpful. I really appreciate your kindness.
- 5 My dad's useless at fixing his computer, I always have to help him.
- 6 Please don't misunderstand me. I didn't mean to be unkind. I'm really sorry.
- 7 Timmy fell off his bike and hit his head. He was unconscious for a few hours.
- 8 What was your wife's reaction when she heard you'd won the lottery?

- 1 A The doctors are going to operate on my grandma's knee.
B Oh, dear!
A Don't worry, it's not a serious operation.
- 2 A Did you explain the homework to Maria?
B I did, but I don't think she understood my explanation.
- 3 A I couldn't find the book I wanted in the library.
B Did you ask the librarian? She'll tell you if they have it.
- 4 A Can I have a copy of that photograph?
B Yes, of course. I'm not a great photographer but this one's OK, isn't it?
A It is. Usually I can't stand photos of me.

T 5.13 Arranging to meet

- G = Gary M = Mike
- G Mike, it's me, Gary.
- M Gary! Long time no see. How are you doing?
- G Good, thanks. Listen, I'm coming up to town next weekend and I was wondering if we could meet?

- M Oh dear, I'd love to, but this weekend of all weekends I am so busy.
- G Look, you must have some free time.
- M Yeah, I'll just get my diary. Hang on ... OK ... shoot!
- G Right. What are you doing Friday evening?
- M Friday evening? Er ..., that's my Spanish class. Our company's going to do a lot of work in Spain, so we're all learning Spanish. But I finish work early on Friday. I could meet you in the afternoon.
- G No, I'm afraid that's no good, my train doesn't get in until 7 o'clock. Uh ... have you got any free time on Saturday?
- M Er ... let me see. What about Saturday afternoon? I'm having my hair cut in the morning and then I'm meeting my sister for lunch, but I'm free in the afternoon.
- G Oh no, sorry, Saturday afternoon, I can't, I've got an appointment with an estate agent. I'm going to look round one of those amazing new flats by the river. Didn't I tell you? I'm changing jobs and moving back to the big city.
- M Hey, great news Gary. I knew the small town life wasn't your thing!
- G So, what about Saturday evening? Is Saturday evening any good?
- M Sorry, the evening's out for me. I'm going to the theatre with friends. We've had it booked for ages. But ... hang on, what time are you leaving on Sunday?
- G Late morning. I'm getting the 11.55 train.
- M Hey, I've got an idea. Why don't we meet at the station?
- G Good idea! We could have coffee together.
- M I've got an even better idea. They do a great full English breakfast at the café. Let's meet there for breakfast. Shall we say about 10 o'clock?
- G Sounds good to me. But can you make it 10.30? It is Sunday.
- M Fine. 10.30 it is. I'll see you then. Bye Gary! Hope you like the flat.
- G Fingers crossed. Bye Mike. See you Sunday.

T 6.6

- 1 Peter and I lived together at university.
- 2 He's a good student. He tries hard.
- 3 A Where's the Town Hall?
B Go straight on.
- 4 Say that again. I didn't hear you.
- 5 Don't talk so loud! Everyone can hear you.
- 6 Why do you drive so fast? Slow down!
- 7 His wife's name is Sue, not Sally! Get it right.
- 8 The holiday was a disaster. Everything went wrong.
- 9 This room is cool, even in summer.
- 10 A Are you ready?
B Almost. Give me another five minutes.

T 6.7 My most treasured possession

1 Amie
I would have to save my photo albums. They've got all the photos of my kids, when they were babies, their first steps, you know, when they walked for the first time, their birthday parties, their first day at school. And all the holidays we had together. All those memories are irreplaceable.

2 Jack
I know it sounds a bit sad, but I would have to save my computer. Not very sentimental, but very practical. It's got all my work, all my email contacts, several thousand photos, address books, and my work diary for the next year. I just couldn't live without it.

3 Lucy
I have a matching hairbrush and hand mirror that belonged to my grandmother. She was given them as a wedding present, and she gave them to me before she died. I don't use them, but they're always on the shelf in my bedroom, and every time I see them I think of her. They're solid silver, and they're quite heavy. They're not particularly pretty, but they have immense sentimental value.

T 6.8 My closest relative

Ellie
The person that I'm closest to in my family is probably my mother. She's the kind of person you can talk to about anything. She's very open, my mother, and I can talk to her about boyfriends, stuff that's bothering me at work, friendships, anything. We have our ups and downs of course, but basically we have an easy relationship. We go shopping together. What I like about her is her attitude. She's quite young at heart, like me, not old-fashioned or anything like that.

Simon
I'm closest to my grandmother. Erm, my father, I don't really get on with. We don't really see eye to eye about anything. My mother, uh, I hardly ever see, she's too busy. My grandmother and I like doing the same things. Erm ... we like watching TV and uh, having a glass of wine together. We love playing cards. And I think emotionally I'm closer to her than I am to my parents ... because she and I have a similar attitude to life. I think we both like people. We're quite outgoing, sociable, and open.

Julia
The person I'm closest to in my family, I think, would be my father. We stay up late listening to music and talking a lot. What I like about him is that he's interesting and interested. He has a curiosity about life. We can talk about anything and everything. We have the same sense of humour, the same love of life. My friends all love him because he's such a good laugh. He doesn't care what people think of him, and I reckon that's great. He's pretty cool, my dad.

Tessa
I think the person that I'm probably closest to is my sister. The thing I love about her is the way everyone knows her. It doesn't matter where we go, everyone says 'Hi, Nina! How you doin'?' I'm just her little sister so people call me 'Baby Nina', but that's fine. We're so different. We have blazing rows. She's so hyperactive and loud, she can't sit still, she has to have people around her, and everyone loves her. In many ways she drives me crazy. She just can't think straight. Me, I'm a lot quieter. I'm happy on my own. But we're so proud of each other.

Chris
I'm closest to my twin, Nick. Obviously we have so much in common. The same friends. The same football team. The same music. We go everywhere together. But we have amazing rows about everything. We're like chalk and cheese. I'm like my Mum – calm and easy-going. Nick's like my Dad – very bad-tempered. They fight like cat and dog. But things have changed between me and Nick now we're older. We appreciate each other more. The biggest difference is probably interests. I'm into all things history and politics, and Nick's interested in science and nature. But of course we're a lot closer than just brothers and sisters. In a way we're like one. I would trust him like I would trust no one else.

T 6.9 In a department store

- 1 A Morning!
B Hello. I'd like to try on these shoes, please.
A Certainly, sir. What size do you take?
B Nine. That's 41, isn't it?
A Uh, no, I think you'll find 43 would be more comfortable, sir.
- 2 A Have you got these football shorts for age 10–11?
B I'm afraid that's all we have. We've sold out of that size.
A Will you be getting any more in?

- B We should be getting a delivery by the end of the week.
- 3 A Do you have any sofas like this in stock?
B No, Madam. They all have to be ordered.
A How long does delivery take?
B It all depends, but on average about eight weeks.
- 4 A Yes, madam?
B I'd like this fruit bowl, please.
A Certainly. Is it a present?
B Yes, it is.
A Would you like me to gift wrap it?
B Ooh, that would be lovely! Thank you so much!
- 5 A I like this.
B How does it feel?
A Really good. I love the colour, but the size is wrong. It doesn't fit me. It's too tight.
B Shame. It really suits you. What's it made of?
A Cashmere. It's so soft.
- 6 A Yes, sir?
B I'll have this coffee maker, please.
A Certainly. Have you got a store card?
B No, just a debit card.
A That's fine. Uh ... PIN number, please. Keep your receipt. That's your guarantee.
B How long is it guaranteed for?
A For a year.

UNIT 7

T 7.1 see p55

T 7.2

- 1 Where and when was she born?
She was born near Bristol, in England, in 1965.
- 2 When did she write her first story? What was it about?
She wrote her first story when she was six. It was about a rabbit with measles.
- 3 What was she doing when she had the idea for Harry Potter?
She was travelling by train between Manchester and London.
- 4 Where did she teach English?
In Portugal.
- 5 When was the first Harry Potter book published?
In 1997.
- 6 How long has she been writing the books?
For nearly 20 years.
- 7 How many has she written?
Seven.
- 8 How many children has she had?
Three.
- 9 How many books have been sold?
Over 300 million copies.
- 10 Which books have been made into films?
The first six.
- 11 How much money has she made?
She's made over £600 million.
- 12 How many authors have become billionaires?
Only one – her.

T 7.3 Jack

- I = Interviewer J = Jack
- I So Jack, I know you love Harry Potter. How long have you been a fan of the books?
J I think since I was about five but I was so small I couldn't read yet and my mum read them to me.
 - I How many of the books have you read?
J I've read them all – well not all exactly.
 - I What do you mean?
J Well I didn't like Harry Potter and the Half-blood Prince so I didn't finish it.

- I Which did you like best?
 J I liked all the others but not that one. It was too 'samey' – it was boring 'cos it was just like the one before.
 I Have you seen any of the Harry Potter films?
 J Yes, I have.
 I Which have you seen?
 J I've seen them all, every one.
 I And did you like them all?
 J Yes, I did. I thought they were fantastic, but my brother didn't, he got scared. He didn't like the Chamber of Secrets, the bit where the Basilisk attacked ...
 I The what?
 J The Basilisk. It's kind of a huge snake and it attacked Harry Potter.
 I Oh, I bet a lot of children were frightened by it.
 J I wasn't.
 I Jack, have you any idea how many Harry Potter books have been sold in the world?
 J Er – I dunno. Er – millions, maybe 20 million.
 I Erm – not quite. It's 300 million.
 J 300 million. Wow! That's a lot of books.
 I And what do you know about the author?
 J I know it's JK Rowling and she's got two children. I wonder if they've read their mum's books?
 I She has three children actually. Have a lot of your friends read the books?
 J Yes, every single one.
 I What all your friends?
 J Yeah, definitely – all of them.
 I That's amazing. Now, I know as well as Harry Potter, you have another passion.
 J Yeah, football. I'm a big Blackburn Rovers fan. They're brilliant!
 I Are they? And how long have you been playing football?
 J Since I could walk. I'd rather play football than do anything else in the world.
 I So, if I asked you – what would you rather do this afternoon? Read a Harry Potter or play football?
 J You know the answer.

T 7.7 Things I'm passionate about.

Julia

I'm really passionate about playing tennis. I've been playing nearly 20 years. I was about ... 7 or 8 when I started having lessons, and I had a fantastic teacher. I think that's why I still love it – she was passionate about the sport and that influenced me. I've played in competitions, mainly when I was at school, I still do sometimes. I enjoy it, I think, because it's a very psychological game. I mean, if you're playing badly you have to push yourself to continue, it's a challenge not to give up. It's also a very sociable sport – I've made lots of friends playing doubles, and, it's a game that doesn't have to be expensive – anyone can play – all you need is a tennis racket. You don't need expensive clothing or equipment, like you do for skiing, and it's a fantastic way to keep fit all year round – there's only about 3 months that you can't play. When I lived in Australia I played every week of the year. I adored that, it was brilliant.

Paul

My passion at the moment is horseriding – it's strange to hear myself say that 'cos I've only been doing it about a year and I never imagined I'd be so keen on it. It all happened because I was talking to someone who rode horses and I said that stupid thing people often say 'Oh, I've always wanted to do that' and she said, 'Why don't you then?'. And I thought, 'Why not?'. I've always liked horses, they're so big and powerful but so beautiful when you see them racing round a field or on a track. It amazes me that they let people ride on their backs. Riding is very physically demanding because your body has to be in harmony ... er, it has to move with the horse, but it keeps you fit. Of course, I have fallen off a few times, but it seems that the more you fall, the less it hurts. Also, you have to try and understand your horse. They have moods, you never quite know what a ride is going to be like – a horse you had a fantastic ride on one week can be slow and miserable the next week. I really like that about horses – they have personalities.

Andrew

I'm passionate about poetry – I studied English Literature at university but it wasn't until after I graduated that I really got into poetry and I started writing some myself. And I met some other people who wrote poetry and I heard them read it aloud and that was amazing. I felt the power of the words – the thing I like so much about it is that you can say so much with just a few words. So, little means a lot. Each word, each noun, adjective, preposition has to work hard. There's a poem by Simon Armitage called 'To His Lost Lover'. It's a poem of regret, about not saying the things you should have said in a relationship. It has it all for me. Poetry's all about saying what often goes unsaid, and with passion. It can be such a help in your life – if you feel tired or depressed, you can always find a poem that will help – it can be short or long, it doesn't matter.

James

The thing I'm passionate about, and this may surprise many people, is – erm, British weather. I know lots of people can't stand our weather – er they complain about it all the time but I love it. You see, when I was a child my family lived in California for five years and we had about 365 days of sunshine every year, it was so boring. I was ten when we came back to England and I just loved all the changes in the weather. Here, you really appreciate the sunshine and you notice the seasons. For me one of nature's miracles is after a long, hot, sunny day there's a thunderstorm or a downpour of rain and you go out in the garden and you can smell the freshness in the air, the world has been washed clean and bright. It's magic. And you know it's a myth that it rains all the time, it doesn't. Anyway, it's the rain that gives us our green fields. You know that joke 'if you don't like English weather – wait ten minutes' – that's why it's interesting.

Harriet

Something I feel really passionately about is fox-hunting. My grandmother, mother, and uncles have always been keen on hunting and I started when I was about 6. We hunt up in the Welsh mountains, we go out from about 11 a.m. and we don't get back till after dark. And the thing I love best about is that you are away from everything and everyone, up in the hills, and you work together with horses and dogs. And if you're following a clever fox you can see him working out how to lose the dogs – he knows the countryside so well, where the holes are, where to hide. Where we hunt in Wales – erm ... it's a sheep farming area, so the farmers contact us if they have a problem with a fox. We only hunt on their land if we are asked. I don't hunt so much now because the laws have changed.

- A My grandfather hasn't been too well lately.
- B Oh dear.
- A He's 79. Don't you think at his age he should slow down a bit?
- B Absolutely.

- A But he won't listen to me. He says he wants to enjoy his life to the full.
 B Fair enough.
 A Last summer he went on a two-week cycling holiday in France.
 B You're kidding!
 A We're going to give him a big party for his 80th birthday.
 B That's great.
 A But before that, I'm going to have a word with him and tell him to take things more easy.
 B Good for you.

T 7.11

- 1 A My boyfriend's just asked me to marry him.
 B Did he? How fantastic! Did you say yes?
 2 A Will spaghetti bolognese be OK for dinner?
 B Of course. That's great! It's one of my favourites
 3 A There's a strike at the airport so my holiday's been cancelled.
 B Oh dear. That's a shame. Will you get your money back?
 4 A I failed my driving test again.
 B You didn't! That's too bad. Better luck next time.
 5 A We're expecting a baby.
 B Are you? Congratulations! When's it due?
 6 A So you think I should save to buy a car, not borrow the money?
 B Definitely. You've already got too many debts.
 7 A I told him I never wanted to see him again.
 B You're kidding! What a pity. I always thought the two of you were so good together.

 M Kate! It's so good to hear from you. Are you OK?
 K Oh Mum, I'm really sorry for worrying you so much. I really didn't mean to.
 M We opened our emails and we were so delighted to see all your photos and then we saw that one.
 K I didn't want my friends to post it on Facebook. I asked them not to.
 M But Kate, all that blood, and you went to hospital. We couldn't help feeling worried.
 K I know, but honestly Mum, my friends made me go to the hospital, I really didn't need to.
 M How is your head now?
 K Absolutely fine. Honestly. I'll email you some more photos and you can see for yourself.
 M OK. Don't forget to.
 K I'll call again soon and I promise to text regularly. Bye.
 M Bye. Take care!

 B Because she asked me to.
 4 A Do you think you'll apply for that job?
 B Yes, I've definitely decided to.
 5 A Are you taking your brother to the airport?
 B Well, I offered to but he said he didn't want me to.

T 8.5 Fears and phobias

1 Jodie

I have a really unusual phobia. It began when I was a little girl. I was staying with my grandmother and she asked me to go upstairs and get her cardigan. I opened the cupboard and saw this big, dark green cardigan with huge, black buttons hanging there – I was terrified. I started screaming. My grandmother rushed upstairs and finally managed to calm me down but from then on it was a problem, it was the buttons – all buttons made me feel uncomfortable. It's difficult for me to buy clothes – I try to find skirts and trousers with just belts and zips, but it's not easy. About a year ago a button came off a colleague's jacket at work and I had a panic attack. I've decided to see a psychotherapist, but I'm embarrassed to say 'I'm scared of buttons.' It sounds silly.

2 Gavin

I'm not sure what first started my phobia, but my dad used to go fishing and afterwards I didn't like watching him cleaning the fish in the kitchen sink. Then when I was about seven I started feeling afraid when I saw him coming home with the fish. He had to stop catching it. As I grew up the problem got worse and worse. I couldn't go into supermarkets – the sight of fish made me feel sick. When I started going out with my wife I had to ask her never to eat fish. I daren't go to restaurants because once I saw someone eating an oyster and I had a panic attack. I can only eat in hamburger bars now. It makes life very difficult for my whole family. I've started to see a psychologist but I haven't succeeded in conquering my phobia yet.

3 Melissa

I'm 13 years old and I've been terrified of balloons since I was five. I was trying to blow one up and it popped in my face. I can remember feeling the rubber on my skin – ugh it was awful. My friends don't understand, they enjoy chasing me around with blown up balloons because they think it's fun to see me cry. Last time, we were in the school playground, and I had a panic attack. At first they refused to believe me and they didn't get the teacher but then they saw how bad it was – I was having difficulty breathing and they got frightened. The worst thing is that I can't go to parties, if I do I have to ask them not to have balloons. I can't imagine ever blowing one up. I can't even look at them on TV, I start to shake. I want to see somebody about it. My teacher says I have to.

T 8.6 The psychologist's view

Human beings are programmed to be afraid of things that can hurt them. Show a baby a picture of a snake or a big, poisonous spider and the baby will show fear. It's in our DNA. We're all afraid of some things and that's good. But a phobia causes absolute terror, with physical symptoms such as a racing heart, sickness and panic attacks. Phobias are usually the result of a bad experience, for example a car crash can cause a fear of driving, but it's often just fear of ordinary things like balloons or a particular food. Some people are more likely to get phobias than others, it's in their genes. My job is to train people to conquer their phobia. First we just talk about it, and help the patient relax. Then we might show just a picture or cartoon of their phobia. After that we sometimes show a film and finally we ask them to touch the object. In this way phobias can normally be treated in just three or four sessions.

T 8.7

- 1 The cat got up the tree easily enough but I had to climb a ladder to get her down.
 2 Daniel, stop staring out of the window and get on with your work!
 3 Since you whistled that tune I can't get it out of my head.
 4 I hate it when my Aunt Mary hugs me tight. She wears this disgusting perfume, and I smell of it afterwards.
 5 Bob's hopeless at all sports. He can't even kick a football.
 6 You'd better lick your ice-cream – it's melting.
 7 Do people kneel down to pray in all religions?
 8 I keep trying to stop biting my nails but I can't. It's a terrible habit.
 9 I'm terrified of blowing up balloons in case they go 'pop'.
 10 Don't scratch that insect bite. You'll get an infection.
 11 By the end of the concert we were all clapping our hands to the music.
 12 The tourist guide pointed at a place on the map.
 13 My dad's useless at doing DIY. He can't even hit a nail with a hammer.
 14 My two-year-old nephew is so cute. He loves marching up and down like a soldier.

T 8.10 A = Airline steward B = Passenger

- A Good morning. Where are you flying to?
 B Dubai.
 A And how many bags do you want to check in?
 B Just this one.
 A Fine. Put it on the scales please ... Oh dear.
 B What's the matter?
 A I'm afraid it's overweight. It's nearly 30 kilos and you're only allowed 23.
 B What can I do?
 A Well, you can pay for excess baggage. The rate is erm ... £18.75 – that's $37 per kilo.
 B So 7 times £18.75 that's –er
 A That's £131.25 or $259.
 B Goodness. That's a fortune but I'll just have to pay it.
 A OK. And just the one piece of hand luggage?
 B Yes, just this bag.
 A That's fine. Here's your boarding pass. You're boarding from Gate 6 at 9.20. The gate will be open 45 minutes before the flight. Have a good journey.
 B Thank you.

T 8.11 A = Passenger B = Transport Direct employee

- A Good morning. Transport direct. Can I help you?
 B Oh yes, I was trying to book rail tickets online and it didn't work.
 A That's OK. Where and when do you want to travel?
 B I want to go from London, King's Cross to Edinburgh on the 13th of March.
 A March 30th?
 B No, no March 13th. I want to go on the 13th and return on the 30th.
 A OK, the 13th to the 30th – so you want a return ticket. And do you want to travel in the morning or the afternoon?
 B Well, I want to travel up mid-morning if possible, but I'd like to come back on an evening train.
 A Right. There's a train at 10.30 am, it arrives in Edinburgh at 14.53.
 B Sounds good. And returning?
 A For the return there's one at 19.00, arrives back in London just after midnight.
 B Mmm ... is there an earlier one?

- A There's the 17.30. It arrives back in London at 22.28.
 B Er, that sounds perfect. I'll go for that. How much is that?
 A It's a saver return, so that's £98.20. Is that OK?
 B Fine.
 A Can you give me your credit card details?
 B Yes, it's a Visa card. The name on the card is Mr K Farnham. The number is 0494 7865 4562 1320
 A The expiry date?
 B 05/12.
 A And your address?
 B 15, Kingston Road.
 A Did you say 50?
 B No, 15, one, five Kingston R ...

UNIT 9

T 9.1 Billy's story

- I'd organize a school day which tried to educate everyone about bullying, and I'd invite social workers, police, and psychologists.
- I'd get my dad to speak to those ... if I was older, I'd speak to them myself!
- I'd ask Billy to try to understand the bullies. I'd get all the parents to meet together.
- I'd move house so we could change his school and start again somewhere new.
- I'd get really angry and bang the bullies' heads together.
- I'd run away.

T 9.2 see p71

T 9.3

- If they'd understood, he wouldn't have run away.
- If he'd gone to Kidcare, he could have talked about his problems.
- If he hadn't left, Billy might have felt more secure.
- If they hadn't threatened him, he wouldn't have run away.

T 9.4 You're an idiot!

- 'I went walking in the mountains for three days with no food or equipment.'
'You're an idiot! You could have died! You could have starved to death or died of cold!'
- 'I didn't feel like going to work so I phoned in sick. I went shopping instead.'
'You're such an idiot! Your boss might have seen you. You could have got the sack.'
- 'I had a temperature of 102, but I went out dancing all night.'
'That's so stupid! You could have been really ill. You should have gone to bed.'
- 'I told Sally I couldn't see her, then went out to the pub with Danielle.'
'That was a really dumb thing to do! Sally might have seen you in the pub.'
- 'I used to be really good at tennis, I was an under-14 champion, but then I gave it all up.'
'That's such a shame! You might have been a champion! You might even have won Wimbledon.'

T 9.5 A social conscience

- I was in the bank the other day, and waiting in a queue. I'd just reached the front of the queue when this guy jumped in front of me and said 'I just need to ask a quick question.' I wasn't very happy and I hate making a scene, so I let him. But then it started taking ages. He looked back at me and grinned. He was so pleased with himself and I was just furious! What could I do? I said nothing.

- I was in the park, right, and there was this woman with three kids. She'd obviously had a bad day, yeah, she'd just been shouting at the kids for messing around. One of the kids, the eldest boy, about eight, bumped into his little sister and knocked her over. The mother turned on this kid, the boy, and she hit him really hard. I went over to her and told her to stop. She told me to mind my own business, and said some very rude words and stormed off, screaming at the poor boy. He was just a kid!
- My neighbour always lets his dog do his ... you know ... business right by my front door, and I always clean it up, day after day, because it just stinks! So the other day I asked him if he could get his dog to do its business somewhere else, or could he pick it up because I didn't like it right by my front door. He was absolutely horrible, and said he'd put it in my letter box from now on! So I suppose I'll just carry on picking it up. What else can I do?
- I was on the bus the other day. There was just me and a couple of kids. These two kids had their feet on the seat in front of them, so I asked them to put their feet down. These kids, they must have been about sixteen or seventeen, came over to me, pushed me onto the floor, and started kicking me. I've got bruises everywhere! I've only just been able to walk again!
- I was walking down the street coming home from work about ten at night, it was dark, and this guy jumped out of nowhere and said 'Gimme your wallet and phone!' He had a knife, which he had right up against my nose. I didn't say anything. I was just terrified! I thought he was going to kill me. I just handed over both and he ran away. I was trembling for ten minutes. I couldn't move. I've never been so frightened in all my life.

T 9.6 Spoken English

- Alice isn't here. She's just gone.
- I'm sorry I'm in a bad mood. I'm just tired, that's all.
- I just love your new coat!
- I've just finished the most wonderful book. You must read it!
- I don't want any wine. Just a glass of water, please.
- John's so generous. I think he's just amazing!
- 'Who's coming tonight?' 'Just me.'
- Hold on a minute. I'm just going to the loo.

T 9.7 Dealing with money

- A Here's your bill.
B Thank you. Is service included?
A No, it isn't. I hope you enjoyed your meal.
- A How much is a standard room?
B £55 per night.
A Does that include everything?
- A I'll pay for the tickets with my MasterCard.
B Can you give me your number?
- A Could you give me the balance on my account?
B Sure. Tell me your account number
- A Can I have a gin and tonic and two glasses of white wine, please?
B Sure. That's £14.50.
B Thank you.
A And here's your change. 50p.

T 9.8

- A Here's your bill.
B Thank you. Is service included?
A No, it isn't. I hope you enjoyed your meal.
B It was lovely, thank you.

B Thanks. That's for you.

- A That's very kind of you. I hope to see you again soon.
 B Bye!
- A How much is a standard room?
B £55 per night.
A Does that include everything?
B That includes the room for two people, but it doesn't include breakfast.
A That's extra, is it?
B Yes, I'm afraid it is. But the £55 does include VAT.
 - A I'll pay for the tickets with my MasterCard.
B Can you give me your number?
A 5484 6922 3171 2435.
B What's the expiry date?
A 09 12.
B And the start date?
A 10 07.
B And the three digit security number on the back?
A 721.
 - A Could you give me the balance on my account?
B Sure. Tell me your account number.
A 4033 2614 7900.
B Bear with me one moment. The current cleared balance on that account is £542.53 in credit.
 - A Can I have a gin and tonic and two glasses of white wine, please?
B Sure ... That's £14.50.
A Thank you.
B And here's your change. 50p.
A Thanks. Er ... How much did I give you? I think you've made a mistake!
B Sorry?
A I think you must have made a mistake. I gave you £20, but you've given me change for 15.
B No, I don't think so.
A Well, I'm pretty sure I gave you a twenty-pound note.
B Oh, did you? Er ... sorry about that. Here you are.
A Thanks.

UNIT 10

T 10.1 The first computer

Charles Babbage (1791–1871) was a scientist and an engineer. He had the idea for the first programmable computer. He wanted to build a machine that could do calculations without making the mistakes that human 'computers' made. He designed a machine called the Difference Engine, and the British Government provided funds. The machine was never completed because Babbage ran out of money. In 1991, a team of engineers from the Science Museum in London built one of Babbage's machines, using his original designs, and it worked perfectly.

T 10.2 Speaking

- Where did you have lunch today?
- Where's your mother at the moment?
- Do you prefer tea or coffee?
- What's the name of the river in London?
- Have you got a pet? What's its name?
- What's your father's job?
- How do you get to school?
- What's the name of the Christian holy book? And the Islamic holy book?
- Who's sitting nearest the window? Next to the teacher?
- Where are you going after the lesson?

T 10.3

- 1 Living in London has its disadvantages.
- 2 To start with, there's a lot of traffic.
- 3 Londoners like their parks and open spaces.
- 4 For them it's important to escape from busy city life.
- 5 London's full of kids, and they're always on the move.
- 6 The grown-ups have got their parts of town, and the kids have got theirs.

T 10.4 What do you do on the Net?

1 Tom

I go onto websites about sport. I'm into skateboarding, so I go onto skateboarding websites. I watch a lot of skateboarding videos on YouTube. I go on things like MySpace, where I can talk to friends from school.

Err ... if I'm doing school work, I use Google and Wikipedia, which can be really useful. And BBC Bitesize helps with revision, and there are tests so you can practise.

I do quite a lot of shopping – clothes, shoes and stuff. I go to Amazon for DVDs, games, CDs. And eBay for all sorts of things. I'm trying to buy some tickets for a gig on eBay. I'm also selling some of my old stuff on it.

2 Monica

I use the Net mainly for Facebook. You post a photo and a profile of yourself. You can say what you want – biography, hobbies, interests, music, films.

You control who can see your profile. Other people search for friends, people who share common interests. When you identify someone on the site you'd like to meet, you can ask to become a friend.

I also use the Net to look for jobs and flats, and to see what's on at the weekend.

3 Justin

I use Internet banking. It's good 'cos I can get my balance any time of day or night, I can transfer money instantly. So I like paying bills online. I just log onto my bank and click on 'Pay Now', and the bill is paid immediately. Easy!

I'm into American baseball, so I watch live baseball games from the US. And ... what else? I book restaurants, cinema tickets, holidays. Oh, I get traffic reports, too. Oh, yes! I do nearly all my shopping online. I do my weekly supermarket shop, and it's all delivered. Clothes, birthday presents, Christmas presents, books, music – the lot!

4 Daisy

I don't like reading onscreen, and I don't like watching DVDs, either, but I do use the Net for three things. I email a lot with Hotmail. I get the news every day on The Guardian website. And I also check the weather every day. I get up in the morning, and get a weather forecast for my town for early morning, mid-morning, early afternoon, and evening. Then, and only then, I get dressed!

5 David

I've gone onto a website called Friends Reunited, and I've met up with people from my school days. And I've researched my family history, and traced my ancestors back over two hundred years. I'm retired, so I have lots of time to do these things.

I like to keep up my languages, so I watch the news in Spanish and in French, too. And I download music onto my MP3 player. And I update my satellite navigation system, as well.

T 10.5 Architecture old and new

- 1 The new station handles fifty million passengers a year.
- 2 Eurostar travels at 300 kilometres per hour, or 186 miles per hour.
- 3 Six thousand men built the original station.
- 4 The roof is 240 feet, or 75 metres, wide.
- 5 The new station opened in the twenty-first century.

- 6 A Eurostar train is a quarter of a mile, or 400 metres, long.
- 7 The champagne bar is 300 feet long.
- 8 The Midland Grand Hotel opened in 1873.
- 9 It closed in 1935.
- 10 The statue 'The Meeting' is 9 metres tall and weighs 20 tons.

T 10.7 I need one of those things ...

- 1 I need one of those things you use when you want to open a bottle of wine. You know, you pull and it goes pop.
- 2 I'm looking for some of that stuff you use when you want to clean between your teeth ... It's like string. It's white. You use it like this.
- 3 They're long and thin, and the Chinese use them to pick up food.
- 4 It's made of plastic, and it's used for killing zzzzzz flies. SHPLAT! SHPLOUFF!

- 1 It's one of those things you use in the kitchen. You use it to do the washing-up.
- 2 It's long and thin and sharp at one end. Usually you have two, one in each hand. You can make things out of wool with them.
- 3 It looks like a mobile phone, it has buttons you push, but you use it to change channels on the TV.
- 4 It's the stuff you wash clothes with. You put it in the washing machine. It's a powder. It smells ... aaaah!
- 5 It's used for sticking things on the wall, like pictures or posters. It's soft and sticky.
- 6 They're made of metal. You can also use them to stick things on the wall, but they're sharp. They make a hole. You use them on a notice board.
- 7 It's a kind of ruler. You use it to measure things that are very long, like a room. It's made of metal, usually.
- 8 It's something you use when you're travelling. You put it on your suitcase so no one can get into it. You have a key to open it, to take it off.
- 9 You know! It's got a round, metal bit at one end, and the other end is made of glass. You put it in a lamp to make light.

Conversation 1

- A Yes, madam. How can I help you?
 B I'm looking for a thing you use in the house ...
 A Yes, now what do you do with it exactly?
 B Well, it's not one thing. It's two things. And they're usually made of plastic.
 A Uh huh.
 B You know if you make a mess, like you drop bread or smash a glass, and there are bits all over the floor ...?
 A And you need to pick them up?
 B Yes! You go like this ... SHUP! SHUP!
 A What you're talking about is ...

Conversation 2

- A Can I help you, sir?
 B Yes. I don't know how you say this in English. I'm looking for a thing you use in the kitchen ...
 A OK.
 B It's like a thing with, you know, holes ...
 A Uh huh. What's it for?
 B Well, it's for cheese or vegetables like carrots.
 A And what do you do with it?
 B If you don't want a big piece of cheese, or a whole carrot, but you want little pieces, you can push ... you can move ... I don't know how you say it. Like this!
 A Ah! OK! What you mean is ...

UNIT 11

T 11.1 Optical illusions

- A How many colours can you see?
 B Er, three, if you don't include white, –er green, pink and red.
 A No, look again. There's only two, pink and green. When the pink's next to the green it looks red.
 B Really? I don't think so. They can't be the same colour. Well, –er maybe. What about this one, the girl? That must be a candlestick in front of her face.
 A Yes, you can see one girl behind a candlestick or two girls looking at each other.
 B Oh yes, amazing, three girls then! And that one, it looks like a man playing the saxophone.
 A Or ... another girl. Look, in the shadows ...
 B Oh yes, I can see her now – she's wearing a hat and lipstick.
 A Do you think so? Can you see any more people?
 B Yes, that looks like someone wearing glasses and that one is an old lady, and, I'm not sure, but I think she might be wearing a feather in her hat.
 A I can also see a young lady with a feather and a fur coat. And I can see the word 'liar'.
 B Really? I can't see either of those.
 A OK. Try this. Count the legs on that elephant.
 B One, two, three –er, it can't have five legs. That's a clever drawing. So is that one, it could be a duck or a rabbit. It depends how you look at it.
 A The square looks strange, don't you think?
 B Yeah, it looks wobbly, like a jelly.
 A Humh, but the lines are all straight and parallel.
 B No, they can't be.
 A Well, they are. If you look line by line, you'll see.
 B I suppose. The dots must be creating the illusion.
 A And the last one. Which line's longer?
 B Well, the one on the left must be longer.
 A Get your ruler and measure.
 B Agh. They're the same size – of course. I should have known!
 A Interesting, isn't it, the tricks your eyes can play?

T 11.2 Fact or fiction?

- 1 Lightning never strikes in the same place twice.
 This is completely untrue. Lightning often strikes in the same place over and over again – high trees, tall buildings, mountain tops. In fact the purpose of lightning conductors is to be struck time and time again.
- 2 Hurricanes always have ladies' names.
 This used to be true. From 1953 to 1979 only female names were used but now both men's and women's names are used. One name for each letter of the alphabet. The same lists are reused every six years. These are the first six names for 2012: Alberto, Beryl, Chris, Debby, Ernesto, Florence.
- 3 Women have a higher pain threshold than men.
 Some research suggests the opposite, but most people still believe this to be true because women have to give birth. We will never know how men would cope with this experience.

4 The sea is blue because it reflects the sky.

This is true in a way. The white light from the sun is a mixture of all the colours of the rainbow but the air reflects blue light more than other colours so we see a blue sky. Then, when the sky is brilliant blue, the sea is also, because the water reflects the blue of the sky.

5 A penny dropped from a skyscraper can kill a person.

Not true. It might give you a cut or a bruise but it's not likely to kill you.

6 Hair and nails continue to grow after death.

Not true. This is an optical illusion. After death the body quickly dehydrates and the skin shrinks, which gives the illusion that both nails and hair are still growing.

7 Birds are bird-brained and stupid.

Not true. Some birds are the cleverest animals known to science. For example crows are smarter than chimpanzees and some parrots don't just mimic but understand human speech.

8 No two snowflakes are the same.

This could be true. No one has yet found two identical snowflakes but out of all the zillions that fall it is likely that two may be the same.

9 Bats are blind.

Not true. Bats have excellent eyesight. People think they must be blind because they have a sound radar, which means they can hunt insects at night. But it doesn't mean that they can't see.

T 11.3

- 1 A I think I've lost my passport.
B You must be very worried.
- 2 A Your phone's ringing!
B It might be Jane.
- 3 A Paul's taking his umbrella.
B It must be raining.
- 4 A Harry and Sally never go on holiday.
B They can't have much money.
- 5 A Hannah's not in class.
B She could be in the coffee bar.
- 6 A Look! Three fire engines!
B There must be a fire somewhere.
- 7 A Tom hasn't seen Zoë for ages.
B They can't be going out together any more.
- 8 A Whose jacket is this?
B It might be John's.
- 9 A You got top marks in the test!
B You must be joking!

T 11.4 What are they talking about?

- 1 A A glass of white wine and a mineral water, please.
B Still or sparkling?
A Sparkling, please.
B Do you want ice and lemon with that?
A Just ice, thanks. How much is that?
- 2 A I can't believe it. My screen's frozen again.
B Unplug it and take the battery out. Then start it up again. That sometimes works for me.
A OK. Here goes.
- 3 A So how did it go?
B Not too bad, thanks.
A Were you very nervous?
B Yeah, but I tried not to show it.
A Oh. When will you hear?
B In a couple of days. They said they'd phone me at the end of the week and let me know if I'd got it.
- 4 A Have you any idea what to get them?
B Not really, but it should be something special.
A Yeah, 25 years is a long time.
B It would be nice to get something silver.
A Yeah. Why don't we club together and get something from both of us, then we can afford something really nice.
B Good idea. Mum and Dad would love that.

- 5 A Do you come here a lot?
B What?
A I said DO YOU OFTEN COME HERE?
B Yeah, me and my friends come every Saturday night. This your first time?
A Yeah, here. We usually go clubbing at the Zanzibah.
B Wow - I've heard the Zanzibah's legend.
A Yeah, how'd you like to try it with me next Saturday?

- R Hello.
- C Rachel? It's me Christina. Something dreadful's happened.
- R Hi, Christina, what on earth's wrong? Tell me.
- C My flat's just been burgled.
- R Oh, no! That's terrible. When?
- C Well, I discovered it when I came in from work, two hours ago. The door was wide open.
- R They must have known no one was at home. What did they take?
- C My laptop, of course, with all my work, and my photos on it.
- R Had you saved everything?
- C Yes, fortunately, I'd put my work and most of my photos on CD.
- R Thank goodness. What else is missing?
- C My camera, and a whole load of Ella's jewellery, and her new leather jacket.
- R Not your camera! Well at least you still have your photos. Oh, and Ella's expensive leather jacket! Does she know?
- C No, she doesn't. She's not back from college yet.
- R She's going to get such a shock when she gets back - and she's got her final exams soon.
- C I know, but at least she had her laptop with her so they didn't get that.
- R Yeah, that's good. I know she always takes it with her to lectures. Have you called the police?
- C Oh, yes, they're here now.
- R Good. Have they any idea who might have done it?
- C Well, they say there've been quite a few burglaries in the area and the flat above me was also done.
- R So, it wasn't just your flat then? Is there much mess? Did they ransack the place?
- C The mess is terrible. Whoever did it emptied out all my drawers and my clothes are all over the bedroom floor.
- R Oh how awful! Your lovely clothes. Did they take any of them?
- C I don't know, I haven't checked. The police have told me not to touch anything.
- R Yes, of course, and anyway, it must be really difficult to see exactly what's missing.
- C Oh, it is. Oh, Rachel, (crying) it's just chaos here.
- R Look, Christina you're obviously really upset. I'm coming round. I'll help you tidy up. I'll be there in 15 minutes.
- C Oh, Rach. You're a great friend. Thanks so much.

T 11.12 The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes

Part 4

- SH = Sherlock Holmes HS = Hilton Soames
G = Mr Gilchrist W = Dr Watson B = Bannister
- HS Holmes! Watson! At last! Tell me. What have you found out? Can the Greek examination take place?
- SH Absolutely, the mystery is solved.
- HS Really? But who ...? Which student ...?
- SH Dr Watson, can you please ask Mr Gilchrist to join us.
- W Of course. Mr Gilchrist? Mr Gilchrist? Can you join us, please?
- G What is it? What's happened?
- SH Close the door, Mr Gilchrist. Now, sit down and tell me honestly, why did you do it? How did you do it?
- G What! Oh, no! How did you find out? I'm sorry, so sorry.
- SH Come, come Mr Gilchrist, perhaps it's easier if I speak. You see, when I learnt that you were an athlete and a long jumper, I worked it out immediately.
- HS How? I don't understand.
- SH Let me continue. This is what must have happened. Yesterday afternoon you, Mr Gilchrist, were returning from practising your sport. You were carrying your jumping-shoes, which, as we all know, have spikes on their soles. You passed your tutor's window and because you are over six feet tall you could see into his room. You couldn't help but notice the examination papers on his desk. As you passed the door, you tried it. Amazingly, it opened ...
- HS What? How ...?
- SH Yes, Bannister had forgotten to lock it. Is that not true, Bannister?
- B Oh dear, Mr Holmes. Mr Soames, sir, I'm sorry sir. Mr Holmes could be right, I was in a hurry.
- SH So, Gilchrist, you entered the room, put your shoes down on the desk and moved to the window to copy the papers and watch for your tutor. Am I right so far?
- G Yes, yes.
- SH Suddenly you heard your tutor coming in at the side door. Quickly, you picked up your shoes, scratching the top of the desk with the spikes in your haste and leaving a lump of black mud. You ran into the bedroom. You didn't notice that another lump of mud fell to the floor from your shoes. This morning at 6 a.m., I went to the sports ground and collected a sample of mud. It was the same black mud.
- W Brilliant, Holmes! Just brilliant.
- SH Elementary my dear Watson. Is this all correct, Mr Gilchrist?
- G Absolutely correct. I feel so bad, so guilty and ashamed. But can I just show you this, Mr Soames?
- HS What is it?
- G It's a letter. I wrote it in the middle of the night. Read it, please. In it I say how sorry I am for what I did.

- HS Ah yes. And you say you're not going to take the examination. Oh, and you're going to leave the university and the country.
- G Yes, I am. I'm going to work in Africa.
- HS Gilchrist, I am really pleased to hear that.
- B Oh Mr Soames. Mr Gilchrist. It's all my fault. I'm so sorry.
- G Absolutely not your fault, Bannister. I am the guilty one.
- SH Well, Mr Soames, Mr Gilchrist, time for Watson and myself to have breakfast, I think. I hope the exams go well, Mr Soames. Good luck in Africa, Mr Gilchrist. Goodbye.
- HS Thank you, Mr Holmes. It was such a lucky chance that you were staying in town at this time.

T 11.13

- 1 You need to learn to relax. Why don't you take up yoga?
- 2 He's just come up with a brilliant plan to save the business.
- 3 There's no dessert until you've eaten up all your meat and vegetables.
- 4 Anne and Tony aren't talking to each other. They must have fallen out. They may even have broken up.
- 5 Did you hear the news? Three dangerous prisoners have broken out of the local prison.
- 6 You must learn to sort out your washing into coloureds and whites.
- 7 We're saving up so we can buy a house.
- 8 Have you found out why you didn't get the job?

T 11.14

- 1 A I've just found out that I've won the lottery!
B Congratulations!
- 2 A I never eat out because I can't really afford to.
B Me neither.
- 3 A I don't ever fall out with my husband.
B What never? I can't believe that.
- 4 A I can't work out if I feel warm or cold today.
B Yeah. It's one of those days.
- 5 A I'm saving up to take my grandma on holiday.
B That's kind.
- 6 A I need to sort out my life. I've got problems at work and I've got problems with my boyfriend ...
B Poor you. Come on, let's go out for a drink. Take your mind off things.
- 7 A I've just come up with a fantastic idea.
B Uh! I'll believe it when I hear it.
- 8 A It's important to make up after an argument.
B Yeah, kiss and make up. Never let the sun go down on an argument.

'Did you hear about Marcus? You know, the guy who works in my office. Well apparently, he's going to be promoted. To be honest, I don't understand why. Personally, I think he's hopeless at his job. He never does any work. In fact, all he does all day is chat to his friends on the phone and drink coffee. Unfortunately, his desk is next to mine. Presumably, he'll move to another office now so hopefully I won't have to work with him any more. Anyway, enough about me. How's your work going? Are you still enjoying it?'

T 11.17

- 1 A Hi! You're Pete, aren't you?
B Actually, no, I'm not. Pete's over there talking to Robert.
- 2 A What did you think of the film? Great wasn't it?
B Personally, I thought it was rubbish. I just don't like all that blood and fighting.

- 3 A What's the latest gossip about Clara and her boyfriend?
B Apparently, she's going to dump him. She's met someone else.
- 4 A What's the weather like in spring?
B Generally, it's warm during the day but you still need to wear a jumper or cardigan in the evening.
- 5 A What time will we arrive?
B Hopefully, in the next hour, unless there's another traffic jam.
- 6 A I've phoned and left messages for them but no reply.
B Presumably, they're away on holiday. Try them on their mobile.
- 7 A What did you do when you saw the accident?
B Obviously, we called 999 immediately. Then we went to see if we could do anything to help.
- 8 A How did you feel when they offered you the job?
B To be honest, I was amazed. I didn't expect to get it but of course I was delighted. It'll be a challenge.

UNIT 12

T 12.1 I read it in the papers ...

Look, Mum! I've bought a car on eBay for £9,000! A three-year-old boy used his mother's computer to buy a £9,000 car on the Internet auction site eBay. Jack Neal's parents only discovered their son's successful bid when they received a message from the website.

The message said they had bought a pink Nissan Figaro.

Mrs Neal, 36, said that they couldn't understand it. She explained that she had been on the net the day before, but she hadn't bought anything.

'Jack kept telling us that he was so happy, and that we would soon get a big surprise.'

Mrs Neal, from Sleaford, Lincolnshire, thought Jack was joking. He often used the computer, and she was pretty sure that he knew her password. Her husband, John, 37, phoned the seller of the car, and explained that there had been a mistake.

'Fortunately he saw the funny side and said he would advertise the car again.'

Mr Neal has told Jack to be more careful, and he has asked his wife to change her password.

T 12.2

- 1 Mrs Neal said her son was very clever.
- 2 She told me he usually played computer games.
- 3 His father explained that he had bought the computer for his work.
- 4 Mrs Neal decided that she wouldn't use eBay anymore.
- 5 Jack said he didn't know how it had happened.
- 6 He told reporters that he had always liked computers.
- 7 His mother asked Jack to tidy his room.
- 8 His father told him to go and play football.

T 12.3 Man throws away £20,000 in town centre

A mystery man started a riot in a busy town centre yesterday by hurling £20,000 in banknotes into the air.

Traffic was stopped at 11.00 a.m. in Alexandra Road, Aberystwyth, mid-Wales, as money rained down from the sky.

Local shopkeeper Anthony Jones, 55, said 'I couldn't understand it, so I asked my neighbour what was happening.' They saw people on their hands and knees grabbing money. 'No one knew where the money came from,' he said. 'They were just stuffing it in their pockets.'

Passer-by Eleanor Morris said, 'I wondered if there had been a road accident, because the traffic was at a complete standstill.'

Flower seller Cadwyn Thomas saw the man, who was wearing a red Welsh rugby shirt. 'I asked him why he was giving away all his money, but he didn't answer. He just laughed.'

Police asked Cadwyn if she knew the man. 'I told them I'd never seen him before. He certainly wasn't from around here.'

Dyfed-Powys Police later confirmed that a forty-year-old man from Aberystwyth had been questioned. 'He refused to tell us why he'd done it,' a spokesman said, 'so it's a complete mystery. He wanted to know if we were going to arrest him, but giving away money isn't against the law.'

T 12.4

- A I was coming home from the club the other night and I was stopped by the police.
- B Were you? Did they ask you lots of questions?
- A They certainly did. They asked me where I was going and where I'd been and they wanted to know if I lived in the area.
- B Were you scared?
- A You bet!
- B What else did they ask?
- A Well, they wondered how old I was and they wanted to know if I'd been with friends.
- B Huh! I'm glad I wasn't with you.
- A Then they demanded to know if I'd been drinking.
- B And had you?
- A No, not much anyway. They also asked if I could remember when I'd left home.
- B Do you know why they were asking all this?
- A No idea. They wouldn't tell me.

T 12.5 But you said ...

- 1 A Bill's coming to the party tonight.
B Really? I thought you said he wasn't feeling well.
- 2 A Have you got a cigarette?
B I didn't know you smoked!
- 3 A Oh, no! I've spilt tomato ketchup on my white shirt!
B I told you to be careful. I knew you'd do that.
- 4 A Did you get me a drink?
B Sorry. I didn't realize you were here. What would you like?
- 5 A I'm 25 today!
B Are you? I didn't know it was your birthday. Many happy returns!
- 6 A Oh, no! It's raining!
B Really? But the weather forecast said it was going to be a nice day.
- 7 A You left the doors and windows of the flat open this morning.
B I'm sorry. I was pretty sure I'd closed everything.
- 8 A Where did Tom go last night?
B I've no idea where he went.

T 12.6 The interview

They wanted to know how old I was. They asked me what I was doing at the moment. They asked me how much I was earning. They asked where I'd worked before. They asked me if I liked working in a team. They wanted to know when I could start!

T 12.7

- 1 She asked me to help her.
- 2 He reminded her to post the letter.
- 3 She promised to work hard for her exams.
- 4 He invited me to his party.
- 5 She encouraged me to go travelling.
- 6 He offered to give me a lift to the airport.
- 7 He persuaded me to apply for the job.
- 8 She explained that she'd been very busy.

T 12.8 She didn't say that1 Merinda phoning Jenny

- A Can I speak to Jenny, please?
 B I'm afraid she isn't here at the moment. Who's calling?
 A This is Merinda, from work. Could you give her a message?
 B Sure.
 A Can you ask her to ring me as soon as she's back? It's quite important.
 B I'll pass on your message.

2 Peter talking to his boss

- A At the moment we can only offer you the job as Assistant Manager. I hope that's acceptable. The salary is £20,000 a year.
 B That's fine. I'll take the job.
 A There's a possibility of promotion in the next six months, if everything works out.
 B Great!

3 Caroline talking to her son, Ben

- A Now Ben, you can play on the bike for a bit, but then you must let Mike have a turn. OK? You have to learn to share your toys.
 B OK, Mum.

4 Sally leaving a message for James

This is a message for James. It's Sally here. I've booked the cinema for 8.00, so I'll see you inside the cinema at about 7.45. Hope that's OK. See you later.

5 Tom talking to Sally

- A I'll look at your computer for you, but I can't promise to mend it. I'm not an expert.
 B Will you charge me for it?
 A Don't be silly. Of course not. I'll do it for nothing.

T 12.9 What the papers say

An interview with Jamie Seabrook

Part 1

- A And now for my final guest. He's a singer and songwriter who's been in the music business for twenty years. He still performs sell-out concerts in front of fifty thousand people. But his life hasn't all been easy. He's had problems with his family and he's been in trouble with the law. And he's just completed a month's rehab in a clinic in Texas. He's never out of the headlines ... Please welcome Jamie Seabrook!
 J Hello, good evening.
 A Now Jamie, you're in the newspapers and magazines every day. You are photographed wherever you go. Tell me, what do you think of the press?
 J Well, it's kind of nice to have people want to know all about me. Sometimes it gets to be too much, but most of the time I don't mind the press attention. I'm sure there are some reporters who really try to tell the truth, but I'm afraid that most of them make up stories to sell their newspapers.
 A Are you saying that the stories aren't true at all?
 J That's right! They're completely invented!
 A Can you give us an example?
 J Sure I can! I can give you hundreds!

Part 2

- J Two years ago, reporters said my career was finished, and that I'd never sing again. Some friends, who are now ex-friends, said that my marriage was breaking up, and that my brother and I had fallen out and had an argument about money and weren't speaking to each other. Not one word of that was true!
 A And in fact your career is on a high ...
 J I've just recorded a new album, and my marriage is fine. Sally and I have just celebrated our fifteenth wedding anniversary ...
 J ... and my brother and I get on just fine.
 A But things haven't all been easy for you. You spent a month in rehab because it was said that you had a drug and alcohol problem ...

- J All that's just lies! I've never had a drug or alcohol problem. People in clubs said they'd seen me taking drugs, but it's simply not true. I take prescription drugs for migraines, that's all. I don't do illegal drugs. And I only drink alcohol on special occasions, like my birthday.
 A But you were arrested for drink driving just a few months ago!
 J Not so! Police officers thought I'd been drinking, but I was driving home from the recording studios and it was two o'clock in the morning and I'd been working all day and I was exhausted. I fell asleep at the wheel. I checked into a clinic for a month because I was suffering from exhaustion.
 A Now, you had another legal problem recently. Your Personal Assistant, Barbara James, said you hadn't paid her for six months, and you made her work seven days a week without a break. Is that true?
 J It broke my heart when Barbara, my PA, said those things about me. I treated her like my own family. When I met her she was nothing, and I gave her everything. None of what she says is true.

Part 3

- A I read that you have become a Buddhist, that you have stopped eating meat, that you spend four hours a day meditating, and that you are going to give half your future income to charity. Is this true?
 J Yes, it is. I've decided that life is too short, and I'm getting old. I don't care what people think. I made up my mind to do something useful with my life.
 A Now when this story broke a few days ago, the news presenter on MBC's Morning News refused to read the story, saying that there were much more serious stories that deserved attention, and that you were just a celebrity. What do you say to that?
 J I can't control what the press says about me. I have to be true to myself. I live my life as honestly as I can, I try to be nice to everyone around me. If you're in the public eye, then you have to be prepared to have some pretty terrible things said about you. I know what's true about me and what's a lie, but I can't change what is said about me in the newspapers and on the television.
 A Well, sadly our time has run out and we've come to the end of the show. A big thank you to my guest, Jamie Seabrook, and good luck with the new album!
 J Thank you. It's been a pleasure.

UNIT 1

1.1 Tenses

Unit 1 aims to review what you know. It has examples of the Present Simple and Continuous, the Past Simple and Continuous, and the Present Perfect. There are also examples of the passive voice.

All these forms are covered again in later units.

Present tenses	Unit 2
Past tenses	Unit 3
Present Perfect	Unit 7
Passive	Units 2, 3, 7

1.2 Verbs

- 1 There are three classes of verbs in English.

Auxiliary verbs do, be, and have

These are used to form tenses, and to show forms such as questions and negatives.

Modal auxiliary verbs

Must, can, should, might, will, and would are examples of modal auxiliary verbs. They 'help' other verbs, but unlike do, be, and have, they have their own meanings. For example, must expresses obligation; can expresses ability. (See Units 4, 5, 9, 11.)

Full verbs

These are all the other verbs in the language, for example, play, run, help, think, want, go, see, eat, enjoy, live, die, swim, etc.

- 2 Do, be, and have can also be used as full verbs with their own meanings.

do

I do my washing on Saturdays.

She does a lot of business in Eastern Europe.

We are in class at the moment.

They were at home yesterday.

have

He has a lot of problems.

They have three children.

- 3 There are two forms of have in the present.

have as a full verb

I have a job.

Do you have a flat?

He doesn't have a car.

have + got

I've got a job.

Have you got a flat?

She hasn't got a car.

1.3 Auxiliary verbs and tenses

1 be and the continuous forms

Be + verb + -ing is used to make continuous verb forms which describe activities in progress and temporary activities.

He's washing his hair. (Present Continuous)

They were going to work. (Past Continuous)

I've been learning English for two years. (Present Perfect Continuous)

I'd like to be lying on the beach right now. (Continuous infinitive)

2 be and the passive voice

Be + past participle is used to form the passive.

Paper is made from wood. (Present Simple passive)

My car was stolen yesterday. (Past Simple passive)

The house has been redecorated. (Present Perfect passive)

This homework needs to be done tonight. (Passive infinitive)

There is an introduction to the passive on p135.

3 have and the perfect forms

Have + past participle is used to make perfect verb forms.

He has worked in seven different countries. (Present Perfect)

She was crying because she had had some bad news. (Past Perfect)

I'd like to have met Napoleon. (Perfect infinitive)

Perfect means 'completed before', so Present Perfect means 'completed before now'. Past Perfect means 'completed before a time in the past'.

1.4 Auxiliary verbs and negatives

- 1 To make a negative, add -n't to the auxiliary verb. If there is no auxiliary verb, use don't/doesn't/didn't.

Positive

He's working.

I was thinking.

We've seen the play.

She works in a bank.

They like skiing.

He went on holiday.

Negative

He isn't working.

I wasn't thinking.

We haven't seen the play.

She doesn't work in a bank.

They don't like skiing.

He didn't go on holiday.

- 2 It is possible to contract the auxiliaries be and have and use the uncontracted not.

He's not playing today. (= He isn't playing today.)

We're not going to Italy after all. (= We aren't going to Italy ...)

I've not read that book yet. (= I haven't read that book yet.)

BUT I'm not working. NOT I-amn't working.

1.5 Auxiliary verbs and questions

- 1 To make a question, invert the subject and the auxiliary verb. If there is no auxiliary verb, use do/does/did.

Question

She's wearing jeans.

You were born in Paris.

Peter's been to China.

I know you.

He wants ice-cream.

They didn't go out.

What is she wearing?

Where were you born?

Has Peter been to China?

Do I know you?

What does he want?

Why didn't they go out?

- 2 There is usually no do/does/did in subject questions.

Who wants ice-cream?

What happened to your eye?

Who broke the window?

What flavour ice-cream do you want?

What did you do to your eye?

How did you break the window?

1.6 Auxiliary verbs and short answers

Short answers are very common in spoken English. If you just say Yes or No, it can sound rude. To make a short answer, repeat the auxiliary verb. In the Present and Past Simple, use do/does/did.

Short answer

Are you coming with us?

Have you had breakfast?

Does she like walking?

Did Mary phone?

Yes, I am.

No, I haven't.

No, she doesn't.

Yes, she did.

UNIT 2

2.1 Present Simple

Form

The form is the same for I/we/you/they.

I work from 9–5 p.m.

They don't work full time.

Where do you work?

He/She/It: add -s or -es, and use does/doesn't in questions and short answers.

He doesn't work at weekends.

Where does she live?

Short answer

Do you live in Bristol?

Yes, we do.

Does he have a car?

No, he doesn't.

Use

The Present Simple is used to express:

- 1 an action that happens again and again (a habit).
I go to work by car.
She drinks ten cups of coffee a day.
- 2 a fact that is always true.
Ronaldo comes from Brazil.
My daughter has brown eyes.
- 3 a fact that is true for a long time (a state).
He works in a bank.
I live in a flat near the centre of town.

Spelling of he/she/it forms

- 1 Most verbs add -s to the base form of the verb.
wants eats helps drives
- 2 Add -es to verbs that end in -ss, -sh, -ch, -x, and -o.
kisses washes watches fixes goes
- 3 Verbs that end in a consonant + -y change the -y to -ies.
carries flies worries tries
But verbs that end in a vowel + -y only add -s.
buys says plays enjoys

2.2 Adverbs of frequency

- 1 We often use adverbs of frequency with the Present Simple.

- 2 They go before the main verb, but after the verb to be.
I usually start at 9.00. They're usually here by now.
I rarely see Peter these days. We're rarely at home at weekends.
- 3 Sometimes and usually can also go at the beginning or the end.
Sometimes we play cards. We play cards sometimes.
Usually I go shopping with friends. I go shopping with friends usually.

2.3 Present Continuous

Form

am/is/are + verb + -ing

I'm playing tennis.

He's cooking lunch.

I'm not enjoying my new job.

They aren't working today.

What's he doing?

Where are you living?

Short answer

Are you going by train?

Yes, I am./No, I'm not.

Use

The Present Continuous is used to express:

- 1 an activity that is happening now.
Don't turn the TV off. I'm watching it.
You can't speak to Lisa. She's having a bath.
- 2 an activity that is not necessarily happening at the moment of speaking but is happening around now.
Don't take that book. Jane's reading it.
I'm doing a French evening class this year.
- 3 a temporary activity.
Peter is a student, but he's working as a waiter during the holidays.
I'm living with friends until I find a place of my own.
- 4 a planned future arrangement.
I'm having lunch with Glenda tomorrow.
We're meeting at 1.00 outside the restaurant.

Spelling of verb + -ing

- 1 Most verbs add -ing to the base form of the verb.
going wearing visiting eating
- 2 Verbs that end in one -e lose the -e.
smoking coming hoping writing
BUT lie → lying
Verbs that end in -ee don't drop an -e. agreeing seeing
- 3 Verbs of one syllable, with one vowel and one consonant, double the consonant.
stopping getting running planning jogging
If the final consonant is -y or -w, it is not doubled.
playing showing

2.4 State verbs

- 1 There are certain groups of verbs that are usually only used in the Present Simple. Their meanings are related to states or conditions that are facts, not activities.

Verbs of thinking and opinions

believe	think	understand	suppose	expect	agree
doubt	know	remember	forget	promise	mean
imagine	realize	deserve	guess

I believe you.

Do you understand what I mean?

I know his face, but I forget his name.

Verbs of emotions and feelings

like	love	hate	care	hope
wish	want	prefer	adore	dislike

I like black coffee.

Do you want to go out?

I don't care.

Verbs of having and being belong	own	have	possess	contain	cost	seem matter	need	depend	weigh	resemble	fit	involve

This book belongs to Jane.

How much does it cost?

He has a lot of money.

Verbs of the senses

look hear taste smell feel sound

The food smells good.

My hair feels soft.

We often use can when the subject is a person.

I can hear someone crying.

Can you smell something burning?

- 2 Some of these verbs can be used in the Present Continuous, but with a change of meaning. In the continuous, the verb expresses an activity, not a state. Compare:

I think you're right. (opinion) We're thinking of going to the cinema. (mental activity)

He has a lot of money. (possession) She's having a bad day. (activity)

I see what you mean. (= understand) Are you seeing Nigel tomorrow? (activity)

The soup tastes awful. (state) I'm tasting the soup to see if it needs salt. (activity)

2.5 THE PASSIVE

Form

to be + past participle

The tense of the verb to be changes to give different tenses in the passive.

Are you being served? (Present Continuous)

My car is insured with ASM. (Present Simple)

Were you taken to visit the cathedral? (Past Simple)

I've been invited to a wedding. (Present Perfect)

Id love to be introduced to a film star. (Passive infinitive)

Use

- Passive sentences move the focus from the subject to the object of active sentences.
Shakespeare wrote Hamlet in 1601 while he was living in London.
Hamlet, the most famous play in English literature, was written by William Shakespeare.
The passive is not another way of expressing the same sentence in the active. We choose the active or the passive depending on what we are more interested in.
 - By and the agent are often omitted in passive sentences if ...
... the agent is not known:
I was burgled last night.
... the agent is not important:
This bridge was built in 1886.
... the agent is obvious:
I was fined £100 for speeding.
 - The passive is associated with an impersonal, formal style. It is often used in notices and announcements.
Customers are requested to refrain from smoking.
It has been noticed that reference books have been removed from the library.
 - In informal language, we often use you, we, and they to refer to people in general or to no person in particular. In this way, we can avoid using the passive.
You can buy stamps in lots of shops, not just post offices.
They're building a new department store in the city centre.
We speak English in this shop.
- ❗ Many past participles are used as adjectives.
I'm very interested in modern art.
We were extremely worried about you.
I'm exhausted! I've been working hard all day.

2.6 Present Simple and Present Continuous passive

Form

Present Simple Passive (am/is/are + past participle)

Most workers are paid monthly.

Is service included in the bill?

Present Continuous Passive (am/is/are being + past participle)

This road is being widened.

Are you being served?

Use

The uses are the same in the passive as in the active.

My car is serviced every six months. (habit)

Computers are used everywhere. (fact that is always true)

The house is being redecorated at the moment. (activity happening now)

UNIT 3

3.1 PAST TENSES

We use different past tenses to describe moments and periods of time in the past.

Look at the diagram. Read the sentences.

When Andrea arrived at work at 9.00 ...

... her secretary had opened the post.

... her secretary was opening the post.

... her secretary opened the post.

3.2 Past Simple

Form

The form of the Past Simple is the same for all persons.

He left at three o'clock.

They arrived three weeks ago.

She didn't finish on time yesterday.

I didn't visit my parents last weekend.

When did he finish the report?

What time did his train leave?

Short answer

Did you enjoy the meal?

Yes, we did./No, we didn't.

Use

The Past Simple is used to express:

- a finished action in the past.
We met in 2000.
I went to Manchester last week.
John left two minutes ago.
- actions that follow each other in a story.
Mary walked into the room and stopped. She listened carefully. She heard a noise coming from behind the curtain. She threw the curtain open, and then she saw ...
- a past situation or habit.
When I was a child, we lived in a small house by the sea. Every day I walked for miles on the beach with my dog.
This use is often expressed with used to. See 3.5 on p136.
We used to live in a small house ... I used to walk for miles ...

Spelling of verb + -ed

- Most regular verbs add -ed to the base form of the verb.
worked wanted helped washed
 - When the verb ends in -e, add -d.
liked used hated cared
 - If the verb has only one syllable, with one vowel + one consonant, double the consonant before adding -ed.
stopped planned robbed
But we write cooked, seated, and moaned because there are two vowels.
 - The consonant is not doubled if it is -y or -w. played showed
 - In most two-syllable verbs, the end consonant is doubled if the stress is on the second syllable.
pre'ferred ad'mitted
But we write 'entered and 'visited because the stress is on the first syllable.
 - Verbs that end in a consonant + -y change the -y to -ied.
carried hurried buried
But we write enjoyed, because it ends in a vowel + -y.
- There are many common irregular verbs.

▶▶ Irregular verbs p159

Past Simple and time expressions

Look at the time expressions that are common with the Past Simple.

I met her	last night.
	two days ago.
	yesterday morning.
	in 2001.
	in summer.
	when I was young.

3.3 Past Continuous

Form

was/were + verb + -ing

I was learning French.

They were driving to Paris.

We weren't waiting for a long time.

What were they doing?

Where was he studying?

Short answer

Were you looking for me?

Yes, I was./No, I wasn't.

Were they waiting outside?

Yes, they were./No, they weren't.

Use

The Past Continuous is used:

- to express activities in progress before, and probably after, a particular time in the past.
At seven o'clock this morning I was having my breakfast.
You made a lot of noise last night. What were you doing?
- for descriptions.
Jan looked beautiful. She was wearing a green cotton dress. Her eyes were shining in the light of the candles that were burning nearby.
- to express an interrupted past activity.
When the phone rang, I was having a shower.
While we were playing tennis, it started to rain.
- to express an incomplete activity.
I was reading a book during the flight. (I didn't finish it.)
I watched a film during the flight. (the whole film)

3.4 Past Simple or Past Continuous?

- Sometimes both tenses are possible. The Past Simple focuses on past actions as complete facts. The Past Continuous focuses on the duration of past activities. Compare:
A I didn't see you at the party last night.
B No, I stayed at home and watched the football.
A I didn't see you at the party last night.
B No, I was watching the football at home.
- Questions in the Past Simple and Past Continuous refer to different time periods. The Past Continuous asks about activities before; the Past Simple asks about what happened after.
A What were you doing when the accident happened?
B I was shopping.
A What did you do when you saw the accident?
B I phoned the police.

3.5 used to

Used to expresses a habit or state in the past that is now finished.

I used to read comics when I was a kid. (but I don't now)

My dad and I used to play football together. (but we don't now)

Did you use to read comics when you were a child?

This town didn't use to be a nice place to live, but then it changed.

3.6 Past Perfect

Perfect means 'completed before'. The Past Perfect refers to an action in the past that was completed before another action in the past.

Form

The form of the Past Perfect is the same for all persons.

Positive and negative

I	'd (had)	seen him before.
You	hadn't	finished work at six o'clock.
We

Question

Where had	you she they	been before?
-----------	--------------------	--------------

Short answer

Had he already left?

Yes, he had./No, he hadn't.

Use

- The Past Perfect is used to make clear that one action in the past happened before another action in the past.
When I got home, I found that someone had broken into my apartment and had stolen my DVD player.
I didn't go to the cinema because I'd seen the film before.
- The Past Simple tells a story in chronological order.
Sue met Pete at university. They were together for six years. They divorced last month.
The Past Perfect can be used to tell a story in a different order.
Sue and Pete divorced last month. They'd met at university, and had been together for six years.
- Notice the difference between these sentences.
When I got to the party, Peter went home.
(= First I arrived, then Peter left.)
When I got to the party, Peter had gone home.
(= First Peter left, then I arrived.)
- The Past Perfect Continuous refers to longer actions or repeated activities.
We were exhausted because we'd been driving all day.

3.7 Past tenses in the passive

Form

Past Simple Passive: was/were + past participle

The museum was opened in 1987.

We were burgled last night.

Past Continuous Passive: was/were being + past participle

The vase was being restored.

Past Perfect Passive: had been + past participle

The house had been redecorated.

Use

The uses are the same in the passive as in the active.

The bridge was built in 1876. (finished action in the past)

The bomb was being defused when it exploded. (interrupted past activity)

The letter didn't arrive because it had been sent to my old address.

(one action before another action in the past)

UNIT 4

4.1 have to

Form

has/have + to + infinitive

You have to go to school.

She has to study hard.

He doesn't have to wear uniform.

We don't have to take exams.

Does she have to study maths?

Do they have to leave now?

Use

- 1 Have to expresses strong obligation.
You have to work hard if you want to succeed.
- 2 Have to expresses a general obligation based on a law or rule, or based on the authority of another person.
Children have to go to school until they are 16.
Mum says you have to clean your room before you go out.
- 3 Have to is impersonal. It doesn't necessarily express the opinion of the speaker.
The doctor says I have to lose weight.
People all over the world have to learn English.
- 4 Have to has all verb forms. Must doesn't.
I had to work last night. (Past)
You'll have to study hard. (Future)
She's rich. She's never had to do any work. (Present Perfect)
I hate having to get up on winter mornings. (-ing form)

4.2 have got to

- 1 Have got to is common in British English but it is more informal than have to. It is more spoken than written.
I've got to go now. See you!
We've got to get up early tomorrow.
I'm in trouble! You've got to help me!
- 2 Have got to expresses an obligation now, or on a particular occasion soon.
I've got to stop eating ice-cream! It's too yummy!
I usually start work at 9.00, but tomorrow I've got to start at 8.00.
Now he's 21, he's got to learn to be responsible.
You've got to pay me back tomorrow.

- 3 Have to expresses a general repeated obligation.
I always have to tell my parents where I'm going.
Teachers have to prepare lessons and correct homework.

4.3 MODAL AND RELATED VERBS

These are the modal verbs:

can, could, may, might, will, would, shall, should, must, ought to.

They are used before other verbs and add meanings, such as certainty, possibility, obligation, ability, and permission.

You must be exhausted.

I can swim.

It might rain.

Form

- 1 There is no -s in the third person singular.
She can ski. He must be tired. It might rain.
- 2 There is no do/does/don't/doesn't in the question or negative.
What should I do? Can I help you? You mustn't steal!
He can't dance. I won't be a minute.
- 3 Modal auxiliary verbs are followed by the infinitive without to. The exception is ought to.
You must go. I'll help you. You ought to see a doctor.
- 4 They have no infinitives and no -ing forms. Other expressions are used instead.
I'd love to be able to ski.
I hate having to get up on cold winter mornings.
- 5 They don't usually have past forms. Instead, we use them with Perfect infinitives.
You should have told me that you can't swim. You might have drowned!
Or we use other expressions.
I had to work hard in school.
- 6 Could is used with a past meaning to talk about a general ability.
I could swim when I was six. (= general ability)
To talk about ability on one specific occasion, we use was able to/managed to.
The prisoner was able to/managed to escape by climbing onto the roof of the prison.

Use

- 1 Modal verbs express our attitudes, opinions, and judgements of events. Compare:
'Who's that knocking on the door?'
'It's John.' (This is a fact.)
'Who's that knocking on the door?'
'It could/may/might/must/should/can't'll be John.' (These all express our attitude or opinion.)
- 2 Each modal verb has at least two meanings. One use of all of them is to express possibility or probability. (See Units 5 and 11.)
I must post this letter! (= obligation)
You must be tired! (= deduction, probability)
Could you help me? (= request)
We could go to Spain for our holiday. (= possibility)
You may go home now. (= permission)
'Where's Anna?' 'I'm not sure. She may be at work.' (= possibility)

4.4 Obligation: should, ought to, and must

Should, ought to, and must are modal verbs. See 4.3 on p137 for form.

Use

- 1 Should and ought to express mild obligation, suggestions, or advice. They express what, in the speaker's opinion, is the right or best thing to do. We often use them with I think/don't think ...
You're always asking me for money. I think you should spend less.
You shouldn't sit so close to the television! It's bad for your eyes.
You ought to be more careful with your money.
- 2 We often use Do you think ...? in the question.
Do you think I should see a doctor?
What do you think I should wear to the party?
- 3 Must, like have to, expresses strong obligation. Must can express an obligation that involves the speaker's opinion. It is personal.
I must get my hair cut.
You must go and visit your grandmother.
- 4 Must is also associated with a formal, written style.
All visitors must show proper ID.
Books must be returned on or before the due date.

have to and must

- 1 Have to and must are sometimes interchangeable.
I must be home by midnight.
I have to be home by midnight.
 - 2 There is sometimes a difference in meaning. Must usually expresses the feelings and wishes of the speaker.
I must buy my mother a birthday card.
Tommy, you must look after your toys.
Have to often expresses an obligation that comes from somewhere else.
You have to work hard in this life.
Visitors have to report to reception.
It is for this reason that you need to be careful when you say You must ..., because you can sound authoritarian.
Have to is used more than must. If you don't know which to use, use have to.
 - 3 Question forms with have to are more common.
Do I have to do what you say?
Must I ...? is unusual.
- ⚠ Remember, have to has all verb forms. Must can only refer to present or future time when used to express obligation.

don't have to and mustn't

- 1 Don't have to and mustn't are completely different.
Don't have to expresses absence of obligation – you can, but it isn't necessary.
Some people iron their socks, but you don't have to. I think it's a waste of time.
When you go into a shop, you don't have to buy something. You can just look.
- 2 Mustn't expresses negative obligation – it is very important NOT to do something.
You mustn't steal other people's things. It's wrong.
You mustn't drive if you've been drinking. You could kill someone!

4.5 Permission: can and be allowed to

Can is a modal verb. See 4.3 on p137 for form.

Use

- The main use of can is to express ability.
I can swim.
Can and be allowed to express permission. Can is more informal and usually spoken.
You can borrow my bike, but you can't have the car. I need it.
They can't come in here with those muddy shoes!
You're allowed to get married when you're 16.
Are we allowed to use a dictionary for this test?

4.6 Making requests: can, could, will, and would

- 1 There are many ways of making requests in English.
Can I speak to you, please?
Could I ask you a question?
Will you help me, please?
Would you pass me the salt?
Would you mind passing me the water?
Do you mind if I open the window?
Would you mind if I closed the window?
Can, could, will, and would are all modal verbs.
- 2 Could is a little more formal; can is a little more familiar. Could I ...? and Could you ...? are very useful because they can be used in many different situations.
Could I try on this jumper?
Could you tell me the time?
- 3 Here are some ways of responding to requests:
A Excuse me! Could you help me?
B Sure./Of course./Well, I'm afraid I'm a little busy right now.
A Would you mind if I opened the window?
B No, not at all./No, that's fine./Well, I'm a little cold, actually.

4.7 Making offers: will and shall

- 1 The contracted form of will is used to express an intention, decision, or offer.
Come over after work. I'll cook dinner.
'It's Jane's birthday today.' 'Is it? I'll buy her some flowers.'
Dave'll give you a lift.
Give it back or we'll call the police!
- 2 Shall ... I/we ...? is used in questions with the first person, I and we. It expresses an offer, a suggestion, or a request for advice.
'Shall I carry your bag for you?'
'Shall we go out for a meal tonight?'
'Where shall we go?'

UNIT 5

5.1 FUTURE FORMS

- 1 There is no future tense in English. Instead, English has several forms that can refer to the future.

I'll see you later. (will)

We're going to see a film tonight. (going to)

I'm seeing the doctor tomorrow. (Present Continuous)

If the traffic's bad, I might be late. (might)

Who knows? You may win! (may)

Take an umbrella. It could rain later. (could)

- 2 The difference between them is not about near or distant future, or certainty. The speaker chooses a future form depending on how he/she sees the future event. Is it a plan, a decision, an intention, an offer, an arrangement, or a prediction?

5.2 will/going to and the Present Continuous

Form

Positive and negative

I'll see you later.

I won't be late.

We're going to stay in a hotel.

We aren't going to rent a cottage.

I'm meeting Jan for lunch.

I'm not seeing her till 2.00.

Question

When will you be back?

Where are you going to stay?

What time are you seeing Jan?

- ! We avoid saying going to come or going to go.

We're coming tomorrow.

When are you going home?

Facts and predictions

will

- 1 The most common use of will is as an auxiliary verb to show future time. It expresses a future fact or prediction. It is called the pure future or the Future Simple.

We'll be away for two weeks.

Those flowers won't grow under the tree. It's too dark.

Our love will last forever.

You'll be sick if you eat all those sweets!

- 2 Will for a prediction can be based more on an opinion than a fact.

I don't think Laura will do very well in her exam. She doesn't do any work.

I am convinced that inflation will fall to three per cent next year.

going to

- 1 Going to can also express a prediction, especially when it is based on a present fact. There is evidence now that something is certain to happen.

She's going to have a baby.

(We can see she's pregnant.)

Our team is going to win the match.

(It's four-nil, and there are only five minutes left to play.)

It isn't going to rain today.

(Look at that beautiful blue sky.)

- 2 Sometimes there is no difference between will and going to.

This government will ruin the country.

This government is going to ruin the country.

Plans, decisions, intentions, and arrangements

will

Will is used to express a decision, intention, or offer made at the moment of speaking.

I'll have the steak, please.

NOT I have the steak...

Give me a call. We'll go out for coffee.

NOT We go...

There's the phone! I'll get it.

NOT I get...

going to

Going to is used to express a future plan, decision, or intention made before the moment of speaking.

When I grow up, I'm going to be a doctor.

Jane and Peter are going to get married after they graduate.

We're going to paint this room blue.

Arrangements

- 1 The Present Continuous can be used to express a future arrangement between people. It usually refers to the near future.

We're going out with Jeremy tonight.

I'm having my hair cut tomorrow.

What are we having for lunch?

- 2 Think of the things you put in your diary to remind you of what you are doing over the next few days and weeks. These are the kinds of events that are expressed by the Present Continuous for the future. There is often movement or activity.

I'm meeting Peter tonight.

The Taylors are coming for dinner.

I'm seeing the doctor in the morning.

- 3 You can't use the Present Simple for this use.

We're going to a party on Saturday night. NOT We go...

I'm having lunch with Sarah. NOT I have...

What are you doing this evening? NOT What do you do...

- 4 Sometimes there is no difference between an arrangement and an intention.

We're going to get married in the spring.

We're getting married in the spring.

5.3 Future possibility: may/might/could

Form

May, might, and could are modal verbs.

Positive and negative

I	may might could	see you later.
---	-----------------------	----------------

I	may not might not	get the job.
---	----------------------	--------------

Question

Questions about future possibility are often asked with Do you think ... will ...?

Do you think you'll get the job?

Use

- 1 May, might, and could all express a future possibility.

It	may might could	rain later.
----	-----------------------	-------------

- 2 May can be more formal.

The government may increase income tax.

- 3 Could suggests something less definite.

I could be a champion if I trained hard.

The house is nice, but it could be beautiful.

UNIT 6

6.1 Information questions

- 1 What and which can be followed by a noun.

What colour are your eyes?
What size shoes do you take?
What sort of music do you like?
Which part of town do you live in?
Which way do we go?
Which one do you want?

We use which when there is a limited choice.

Which one do you want, the red one or the blue one?
Which restaurant shall we go to?

We use what when there is (almost) unlimited choice.

What language do they speak in Brazil?
What car do you drive?

Sometimes there is no difference.

What/Which newspaper do you read?
What/Which channel is the football on?

- 2 Whose can be followed by a noun.

Whose book is this?
Whose is this book?

- 3 How can be followed by an adjective or an adverb.

How tall are you?
How big is the memory?
How far is it to the station?
How often do you go to the cinema?
How long does it take you to get ready?

- 4 How can be followed by much or many.

How many rooms are there?
How much money do you have?

6.2 What ... like? How ...?

- 1 What ... like? asks about the permanent nature of people and things. It asks for a general description.

What's Indian food like? Really tasty.
What's Pete like? He's a great guy.

- 2 How ...? asks about the present condition of something. This condition can change.

How's work these days? It's better than last year.
How was the traffic this morning? It was worse than usual.

To ask about the weather, we can use both questions.

How's the weather | where you are?
What's the weather like |

- 3 How ...? asks about people's health and happiness.

How's Peter? He's fine.

- 4 How ...? asks about people's reactions and feelings.

How's your meal?
How's your new job?

6.3 Relative clauses

- 1 Relative clauses identify which person or thing we are talking about. They make it possible to give more information about the person or thing.

The boy has gone to the beach. (Which boy?)
The boy who lives next door has gone to the beach.

The book is very good. (Which book?)
The book that I bought yesterday is very good.

There is a photo of the hotel. (Which hotel?)
There is a photo of the hotel where we stayed.

- 2 We use who/that to refer to people, and which/that to refer to things.

This book is about a girl who marries a millionaire.
What was the name of the horse that won the race?

- 3 When who or that is the object of a relative clause, it can be left out.

The person you need to talk to is on holiday.
The film I watched last night was very good.

But when who or that is the subject of a relative clause it must be included.

I like people who are kind and considerate.
I want a computer that's easy to use.

- 4 Which can be used to refer to the whole previous sentence or idea.

I passed my driving test on the first attempt, which was a surprise.
Jane can't come to the party, which is a shame.

- 5 We use whose to refer to someone's possessions.

That's the man whose wife won the lottery.
That's the woman whose dog ran away.

- 6 We can use where to refer to places.

The hotel where we stayed was right on the beach.
We went back to the place where we first met.

6.4 Participles

Participles after a noun define and identify in the same way as relative clauses.

That woman driving the red Porsche is my aunt.
The men seen outside were probably the thieves.

UNIT 7

7.1 THE PRESENT PERFECT

- 1 The same form (have + past participle) exists in many European languages, but the uses in English are different. In English, the Present Perfect links past and present. It expresses the effect of the past on the present.

- 2 Present Perfect means 'completed before now'. The Present Perfect does not express when an action happened. If we say the exact time, we use the Past Simple.

In my life, I have travelled to all seven continents.
I travelled around Africa in 1998.

7.2 Present Perfect

Form

has/have + past participle

I've lived in Rome.
She's lived in London.
He hasn't lived here long.
They haven't bought their flat.
How long have they known Peter?
How long has she been married?

Short answer

Have you always lived in Budapest? Yes, I have./No, I haven't.

Use

There are three main uses of the Present Perfect.

1 Unfinished past

The Present Perfect expresses an action that began in the past and still continues.

We've lived in the same house for 25 years.

How long have you known each other?

They've been married for 20 years.

- ❗ Be careful! Many languages express this idea with a present tense, but in English this is wrong.

Jan has been a nurse for ten years. NOT Jan is a nurse for ten years.

Time expressions

Notice the time expressions that are common with this use.

for	two years		1970
	a month		August
	a few minutes	since	8.00
	half an hour		I was a child
	ages		Christmas

We use for with a period of time and since with a point in time.

2 Experience

The Present Perfect expresses an experience that happened at some time in one's life. The action is finished, but the effects of the action are still felt.

I've been to the United States. (I still remember.)

Have you ever had an operation? (at any time in your life)

How many times has he been married? (in his life)

Exactly when the action happened is not important. Questions and answers about definite times are expressed in the Past Simple.

When did you go to the United States?

I broke my leg once.

Time expressions

The adverbs ever, never, and before are common with this use.

Have you ever been to Australia?

I've never tried bungee jumping.

I haven't tried sushi before.

3 Present result

The Present Perfect expresses a past action that has a present result. The action is usually in the recent past.

The taxi hasn't arrived yet. (We're still waiting for it.)

What have you done to your lip? (It's bleeding.)

We often announce news in the Present Perfect.

Have you heard? The Prime Minister has resigned.

Susan's had her baby!

Details will be in the Past Simple.

She resigned because she lost a vote of no confidence.

It's a boy. He weighed 3.5kg.

Time expressions

The adverbs yet, already, and just are common with this use.

I haven't done my homework yet. (negative)

Has the postman been yet? (question)

I've already done my homework.

She's just had some good news.

- ❗ Be careful with been and gone.

He's been to the United States. (experience – he isn't there now)

She's gone to the United States. (present result – she's there now)

7.3 Present Perfect or Past Simple?

- 1 The Present Perfect can express unfinished actions. The Past Simple expresses completed actions.

Present Perfect

I've lived in Texas for six years.

(I still live there.)

I've written several books.

(I can still write some more.)

Past Simple

I lived in Texas for six years.

(Now I live somewhere else.)

Shakespeare wrote 30 plays.

(He can't write any more.)

- 2 The Present Perfect refers to indefinite time. The Past Simple refers to definite time. Notice the time expressions used with the two tenses.

Present Perfect – indefinite

I've done it for a long time. since July.

before.
recently.

I've already done it.

I haven't done it yet.

Past Simple – definite

I did it

yesterday.
last week.
two days ago.
at eight o'clock.
in 1987.
when I was young.
for a long time.

- ❗ Be careful with this morning/afternoon, etc.

Have you seen Amy this morning? (It's still morning.)

Did you see Amy this morning? (It's the afternoon or evening.)

7.4 Present Perfect Simple passive

Form

has/have been + past participle

It	has been	sold.
They	have been

Use

The uses are the same in the passive as in the active.

Two million cars have been produced so far this year. (unfinished past)

Has she ever been made redundant? (past experience)

'Have you heard? Two hundred homes have been washed away by a tidal wave!' (present importance)

7.5 Present Perfect Continuous

Form

has/have + been + -ing

She's been studying for three years.

They haven't been working here long.

How long have they been living there?

Use

The Present Perfect Continuous expresses:

- 1 an activity that began in the past and is continuing now.

I've been studying English for three years.

How long have you been working here?

Sometimes there is no difference between the simple and the continuous.

I've played the piano since I was a boy.

I've been playing the piano since I was a boy.

The continuous can express a temporary activity, while the simple expresses a permanent state.

I've been living in this house for the past few months. (temporary)

I've lived here all my life. (permanent)

- ❗ Remember: State verbs are rarely used in the continuous (see 2.4 p134).

I've had this book for ages.

I've always loved sunny days.

- 2 a past activity that has caused a present result.
I've been working all day. (I'm tired now.)
Have you been crying? (Your eyes are red.)
Roger's been cutting the grass. (I can smell it.)
- The past activity might be finished or it might not. The context usually makes this clear.
Look out of the window! It's been snowing!
 (It has stopped snowing now.)
I've been writing this book for two years. (It still isn't finished.)
I'm covered in paint because I've been decorating the bathroom.
 (It might be finished or it might not. We don't know.)

7.6 Present Perfect Simple or Continuous?

- 1 The simple expresses a completed action.
I've painted the kitchen, and now I'm doing the bathroom.
 The continuous expresses an activity over a period of time.
I've got paint in my hair because I've been decorating.
 We use the simple if the sentence has a number or quantity, because the simple expresses completion. The continuous isn't possible.
I've been reading all day. I've read ten chapters.
She's been eating ever since she arrived. She's eaten ten biscuits already.
- 2 Some verbs have the idea of a long time, for example, wait, work, play, try, learn, rain. These verbs are often found in the continuous.
I've cut my finger. (One short action.)
I've been cutting firewood. (Perhaps over several hours.)
 Some verbs don't have the idea of a long time, for example, find, start, buy, die, lose, break, stop. These verbs are more usually found in the simple.
I've lost my passport.
Have you started your Christmas shopping yet?

UNIT 8

Verb patterns

The infinitive

- 1 The infinitive is used after some verbs.
We've decided to move abroad.
I want to go home.
I'm trying to phone Pete.
She'd love to meet you.
- 2 Some verbs are followed by a person + the infinitive.
They asked me to help them.
I want you to try harder.
He told me to apply for the job.
- 3 Make and let are followed by a person + the infinitive without to.
She'll make you feel welcome.
I'll let you know when I'm coming.
- 4 The infinitive is used after some adjectives.
It's impossible to save money.
It's great to see you.
Pleased to meet you.
It was good to hear your news.

The -ing form

- 1 The -ing form is used after some verbs.
I enjoy reading history books.
He's finished washing the car.
I don't mind helping you.
We like walking.
He goes fishing at weekends.

- 2 Some verbs are followed by an object + -ing.
I hate people telling me what to do.
You can't stop me doing what I want.
I can hear someone calling.
- 3 The -ing form is used after prepositions.
I'm good at finding things.
He's afraid of being mugged.
We're thinking of going to Sweden.
I'm looking forward to meeting you.

Verb patterns p158

UNIT 9

9.1 CONDITIONALS

There are many different ways of making sentences with if. It is important to understand the difference between sentences that express:

- possible conditions = first conditional
- improbable conditions = second conditional
- impossible conditions = third conditional
- no condition = zero conditional

Possible conditions

If I see Dave, I'll tell him to call you.

This is a sentence about reality.

- If I see Dave ...* = a real possibility
... I'll tell him to call you. = the result of a possible situation

Improbable conditions

If I had the money, I'd buy a Mercedes.

This is a sentence which is contrary to reality.

- If I had the money ...* = not impossible. The reality is I don't have the money.
... I'd buy a Mercedes. = the result of an improbable situation

Impossible conditions

If I'd known you were coming, I'd have cooked you a meal.

This is a sentence about an impossible situation. It didn't happen, and now it's too late to change the result.

- If I had known ...* = impossible, because I didn't know.
I'd have cooked ... = the result of an impossible situation.

No conditions

If I get a headache, I take an aspirin.

If metal is heated, it expands.

These are sentences that are always true. They refer to 'all time', and are called zero conditionals. If means when or whenever.

9.2 Second conditional: improbable conditions

Form

if + Past Simple, would + verb

Positive

If I won some money, I'd go around the world.
My father would kill me if he could see me now.

Negative

I'd give up my job if I didn't like it.
If I saw a ghost, I wouldn't talk to it.

Question

What would you do if you saw someone shoplifting?
If you needed help, who would you ask?

❗ Was can change to were in the condition clause.

If I	were rich,	I	wouldn't have to work.
If he		he

Other modal verbs are possible in the result clause.

I could buy some new clothes if I had some money.

If I saved a little every week, I might be able to buy a car.

Use

1 We use the second conditional to express an unreal situation and its probable result. The situation or condition is improbable, impossible, imaginary, or contrary to known facts.

If I were the president of my country, I'd increase taxes. (But it's not very likely that I will ever be the president.)

If my mother was still alive, she'd be very proud. (But she's dead.)

If Ted needed money, I'd lend it to him. (But he doesn't need it.)

2 If I were you, I'd ... is used to give advice.

If I were you, I'd apologize to her.

I'd take it easy for a while if I were you.

3 When the condition is understood, it is common to find the result clause on its own.

What would you do if you had lots of money?

I'd travel.

I'd give it all away.

I'd buy my mum and dad a nice house. They'd love that!

You'd give away your last penny!

4 Would can express preference.

I'd love a cup of coffee.

Where would you like to sit?

I'd rather have coffee, please.

I'd rather not tell you, if that's all right.

What would you rather do, stay in or go out?

5 Would can express a request.

Would you open the door for me?

Would you mind lending me a hand?

9.3 First or second conditional?

Both conditionals refer to the present and future. The difference is about probability, not time. It is usually clear which conditional to use. First conditional sentences are real and possible. Second conditional sentences express situations that will probably never happen.

If I lose my job, I'll ... (My company is doing badly. There is a strong possibility of being made redundant.)

If I lost my job, I'd ... (I probably won't lose my job. I'm just speculating.)

If there is a nuclear war, we'll all ... (Said by a pessimist.)

If there was a nuclear war, we'd ... (But I don't think it will happen.)

9.4 Third conditional: impossible conditions

Form

if + Past Perfect, would + have + past participle

Positive

If I'd (had) worked harder, I'd (would) have made more money.

They'd (would) have been here hours ago if they'd (had) followed my directions.

Negative

If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn't have believed it.

If you'd listened to me, you wouldn't have got lost.

Question

What would you have done if you'd been me?

If the hotel had been full, where would you have stayed?

Use

We use the third conditional to express an impossible situation in the past and its probable result. It is too late! These things didn't happen.

If she'd known he was cruel, she wouldn't have married him.

My parents wouldn't have met if they hadn't studied at Oxford University.

9.5 might/could have done

Use

Might have done and could have done express possibilities in the past that didn't happen.

Thank goodness you went to hospital. You might have died.

She could have married anyone she wanted.

They are found in the result clauses of third conditional sentences.

If I'd told him I had no money, he might have given me some.

If I'd really wanted, I could have been a professional footballer.

Might have done and could have done can express criticism.

You might have told me it was her birthday!

She could have helped tidy the flat instead of going out!

9.6 should have done

Use

Should have done expresses advice for a past situation, but the advice is too late!

You should have apologized. He wouldn't have been so angry.

You shouldn't have said she looked old. She really didn't like it.

Should have done can express criticism.

You should have asked me before you borrowed my car.

UNIT 10

10.1 NOUN PHRASES

A noun phrase is a group of words before and/or after a noun.

book = noun

a book

my book

this book

10.3 Possessives

Possessive adjectives and pronouns

- 1 Possessive adjectives are used with a noun.

*This is my brother.
You must come and see our new house.
Their teacher is new.*

- 2 The possessive pronouns are:

mine yours his hers ours theirs

They are used on their own.

*Don't touch that! It's mine.
Take it. It's yours.
Can you bring those books? They're ours.*

Apostrophe 's and s'

- 1 's is used with singular nouns.

*Lorna's dog
Harry's girl-friend
the boy's father (= one boy)
'Whose is this?' 'It's my brother's.'
I've got a week's holiday.*

- 2 s' is used with regular plural nouns.

*my parents' house
the boys' father (= more than one boy)*

For irregular plurals we use 's.

*the children's room
Notice we use 's with two people.
We were at Alan and Carol's house last night.*

- 3 's is used with some places.

*I bought it at the chemist's.
I'm going to the hairdresser's.
You can buy stamps at a newsagent's.*

- 2 all + of + noun

*I invited all of the students in my class.
'How much did you eat?' 'All of it.'
'Who did she invite?' 'All of us.'*

- 3 all + adjective/adverb/preposition

*I'm all wet.
She lives all alone.
Tell me all about your holiday.*

- 4 pronoun + all
The sweets are for everyone. Don't eat them all.
She loves us all.
- 5 all + verb
We all support Manchester United.
They have all been to university.
My friends all love you.

every

Every is used with a singular noun.
Every student in the class passed the exam.
I've been to every country in Europe.

all and every

- 1 All is not usually used to mean everybody/everything.
All the people came to the party. NOT ~~All came...~~ Everybody came to the party.
She lost all her possessions in the fire. NOT ~~She lost all in...~~
She lost everything in the fire.
- 2 All can mean everything, but only in relative clauses.
All I want for Christmas is you.
That's all I need.
I've told you all I know.
Love is all you need.

10.5 themselves and each other

Reflexive pronouns

- 1 Reflexive pronouns are:

myself	yourself	himself	herself
itself	ourselves	yourselves	themselves

- 2 We use reflexive pronouns when the subject and object are the same.
I cut myself shaving.
You could kill yourself.
I'm going to buy myself something nice.
Make yourselves at home.
I hope you're enjoying yourself.
- 3 They are used after prepositions.
You should be ashamed of yourself.
She looked at herself in the mirror.
I live by myself.
Selfish people only think of themselves.
I can look after myself.
- 4 We use reflexive pronouns for emphasis.
Do you like the cake? I made it myself.
My daughter can dress herself now.
The manager himself interviewed me.

each other

Each other expresses the idea of one to another.
They looked at each other.
We send each other birthday cards.
They hate each other.
We've known each other since childhood.

UNIT 11

MODAL VERBS OF PROBABILITY

Modal auxiliary verbs can express ability, obligation, permission, and request. They can also express probability, or how certain a situation is. There is an introduction to modal auxiliary verbs on p137.

11.1 Probability in the present and future

- 1 Must and can't express the logical conclusion of a situation.
must = logically probable can't = logically improbable
 We don't have all the facts, so we are not absolutely sure, but we are pretty certain.
He must be exhausted. He hasn't slept for 24 hours!
Sue can't have a ten-year-old daughter! She's only 24!
He's in great shape, even though he must be at least 60!
A walk in this weather! You must be joking!
Aren't they answering? They must be in bed. They can't be out this late!
- 2 May/might/could express probability in the present or future.
May/might + not is the negative. Couldn't is rare in this use.
He might be lost.
They may be stuck in traffic.
You could win the lottery this week. Who knows?
Dave and Beth aren't at home. They could be at the concert, I suppose.
We may go to Greece for our holiday. We haven't decided yet.
Take your umbrella. It might rain later.
I might not be able to come tonight. I might have to work late.
They may not know where we are.
- 3 The continuous infinitive is formed with be + -ing.
You must be joking!
They can't still be eating!
Peter might be working late.
They may be coming on a later train.
I could be sitting on a beach right now.

11.2 Asking about possibilities

Question forms with modal verbs of probability are unusual. To ask about possibility/probability we usually use Do you think ...?
'Do you think she's married?'
'She can't be.'
'Where do you think he's from?'
'He might be Portuguese.'
'Do you think they've arrived yet?'
'They may have. Or they might have got stuck in the traffic.'

11.3 Probability in the past

- 1 The perfect infinitive is formed with have + past participle.
He must have caught a later train.
They might have lost our phone number.
- 2 These forms express degrees of probability in the past.
He must have been exhausted.
She can't have told him about us yet.
The letter may have got lost in the post.
He might have changed his mind.
They could have moved house.
- 3 The continuous infinitive is formed with have + been + -ing.
She must have been joking.
They can't have been trying very hard.
He could have been lying to you.

UNIT 12

12.1 Reported speech and thought

- 1 It is usual for the verb in the reported clause to move 'one tense back' if the reporting verb is in the past tense (e.g. said, told).

Present → Past

Present Perfect → Past Perfect

Past → Past Perfect

will → would

'I'm going.' He said he was going.

'She's passed her test.' He told me she had passed her test.

'My father died when I was six.' She said her father had died when she was six.

'I'll see you later.' She said she'd see me later.

The verb also moves 'one tense back' when we are reporting thoughts and feelings.

I thought she was married, but she isn't.

I didn't know he was a teacher. I thought he worked in a bank.

I forgot you were coming. Never mind. Come in.

I didn't realize you were here.

I hoped you would call.

- 2 There is no tense change if ...

... the reporting verb is in the present tense (says).

'The train will be late.' He says the train will be late.

'I come from Spain.' She says she comes from Spain.

... the reported speech is about something that is still true.

'Rain forests are being destroyed.'

She told him that rain forests are being destroyed.

'I hate football.'

I told him I hate football.

- 3 Some modal verbs change.

can → could

will → would

may → might

'She can type well.' He told me she could type well.

'I'll help you.' She said she'd help me.

'I may come.' She said she might come.

Other modal verbs don't change.

'You should go to bed.' He told me I should go to bed.

'It might rain.' She said she thought it might rain.

Must stays as must, or changes to had to.

'I must go!' He said he must/had to go.

12.2 Reporting verbs

- 1 We rarely use say with an indirect object.

She said she was going. NOT She said to me ...

- 2 Tell is always used with an indirect object in reported speech.

She told	me the doctor us her husband	the news.
----------	---------------------------------------	-----------

- 3 We can use that after say and tell.

He told her (that) he would be home late.

She said (that) sales were down from last year.

- 4 Many verbs are more descriptive than say and tell, for example:

explain	promise	invite	insist	admit
complain	warn	offer	refuse

Sometimes we report the idea, rather than the actual words.

'I'll lend you some money.' He offered to lend me some money.

'I won't help you.' She refused to help me.

- 5 There are different verb patterns.

verb + sb + infinitive

He told me to go away.

They asked me to teach them English.

I invited her to come.

We encouraged him to apply for the job.

She reminded me to post her letter.

verb + infinitive

She promised to help.

They offered to lend me some money.

verb + that + clause

He explained that he would be home late.

She complained that she never had any free time.

They admitted that sales were down that year.

I agreed that it would be best to stop trying.

- 6 We use tell for reported statements and reported commands, but the form is different.

Reported statements

He told me that he was going.

She told them what had been happening.

Reported commands

He told me to keep still.

The police told people to move on.

- 7 We use ask for reported commands and reported questions, but the form is different.

Reported commands

He asked me to open my suitcase.

She asked me to leave.

Reported questions

He asked me what I did for a living.

She asked me why I had come.

- 8 For negative commands, use not before to.

He told me not to tell anyone.

The police warned people not to go out.

12.3 Reported questions

- 1 The word order in questions is different in reported speech. There is no inversion of subject and auxiliary verb and there is no do/does/did.

'Why have you come here?' I asked her why she had come here.

'What time is it?' He wants to know what time it is.

'Where do you live?' She asked me where I lived.

- 2 If there is no question word (What, Who, Why, Where, ...), use if or whether.

She wants to know

if whether she should wear a dress.

- 3 The rules are the same when we report questions that are thoughts.

I didn't know what was happening.

I wondered where she'd bought her dress.

We couldn't understand what they were saying.

Roleplay

4 Work with a partner. Act out the situations.

- 1 You are with an English friend when you meet another friend. Introduce them to each other.

- 2 You are in a coffee bar. You asked for a latte and a muffin but the waiter has brought you an espresso and a piece of chocolate cake.

- 3 You are in a hotel. You ring reception because the television in your room isn't working.

- 4 You are at the airport and you can't find the check-in desk for your flight to Prague. Ask at the information desk.

- 5 You are cooking for some friends. They're all having a drink and chatting. You want them to come to the table and help themselves to the food.

READING – A Shakespearean tragedy

5 Read Shakespeare's lines from Romeo and Juliet in more modern English.

Romeo and Juliet

- 1 Tybalt Peace? I hate the word peace like I hate hell, all Montagues, and you.
- 2 Romeo Did my heart ever love before now? Because I never saw true beauty before tonight.
Juliet The only man I love is the son of the only man I hate!
- 3 Juliet Oh, Romeo, Romeo, why are you a Montague? Forget your father and give up your name. ... What's a Montague anyway? ... A rose would smell just as sweet if it was called any other name.
- 4 Romeo I have fallen in love with the beautiful daughter of rich Capulet.
Friar Laurence This marriage may be lucky enough to turn the hatred between your families into pure love.
- 5 Romeo Now, Tybalt, ... Mercutio's soul is above our heads. Either you, or I, or both of us have to join him.
Tybalt You, wretched boy, are going with him now.
- 6 Nurse I'll find Romeo to comfort you.
Juliet Oh, find him! ... And tell him to come and say his last goodbye.
- 7 Juliet Oh, do you think we'll ever meet again?
Romeo I have no doubt. All these troubles will give us stories to tell in our future life together.
- 8 Friar Laurence Take this small bottle and drink the liquid. No pulse or breath will show you are alive for forty-two hours.
Juliet Give it to me! Love will give me strength.
- 9 Juliet Romeo, Romeo, Romeo! Here's a drink. I drink to you.
Nurse Oh hateful day! There has never been so black a day as today. Oh painful day!
- 10 Romeo Eyes, look for the last time! Arms, make your last embrace! ... Here's to my love! Oh, honest pharmacist! Your drugs work quickly. So I die with a kiss.
- 11 Juliet What's this here? A cup, closed in my true love's hand? Poison, I see ... I will kiss your lips. Some poison is still on your lips. Your lips are warm. Oh happy dagger! Let me die!
- 12 Prince There never was a more tragic story than the story of Juliet and her Romeo.

MODERN DILEMMAS

Readers ask, readers reply

2 Read the readers' questions and the full replies.

1 A reader asks

How should I deal with my difficult and disagreeable neighbour? He is in the habit of dumping his garden waste along the public footpath between our two houses.

Jim T. via email

(d) A reader replies

You've got to act with self-control in a situation like this. I don't think you should confront him. Rows between neighbours can get out of hand. If I were you I'd quietly clean up his mess and keep the peace.

2 A reader asks

Is it OK to greet people with a "how are you?"? In California (my home) it's considered friendly, but in London some people react with a cold look. Should I be less friendly in my greetings?

Erica Fleckberg, London

(c) A reader replies

You don't have to be like the English just because you're in England. Be yourself. Be warm. Be American.

3 A reader asks

My new PC automatically picks up wireless networks to gain access to the Internet. This includes the one belonging to my neighbour. Is it right for me to use it?

Richard Dalton, via email

(g) A reader replies

You can stop others accessing your wireless network if you use a password. You must tell your neighbour this. It's the only fair thing to do.

4 A reader asks

My stepfather was disqualified for two years for drink-driving, but we have learnt that he still drives while under the influence of alcohol. Should we keep quiet or inform the police?

Stella Milne, Newcastle

(a) A reader replies

Your stepfather is not allowed to drive by law. He is a danger to himself and everyone else on the road. You must ring 'Crimestoppers' and report him. You don't have to give your name.

5 A reader asks

I am a medical student. After I qualify in June, I have one month before my first house job starts. My fiancée says I am not allowed to claim unemployment benefit for this. I disagree, because I'll be unemployed. The dole is for all those who are out of work. What do you think?

J. R. Collin, via e-mail

(b) A reader replies

Your fiancée's right. You aren't allowed to claim unemployment benefit but I think you are allowed other benefits. You should check online. Perhaps you should claim it and give the money to charity, if you don't need it.

6 A reader asks

Is it wrong for me to record CDs borrowed from my local library? I am not denying anyone the money, as I wouldn't buy the CD anyway.

Pete Rodriguez, via e-mail

(e) A reader replies

It's not only wrong it's illegal. You are not allowed to do this. You should buy the CD.

7 A reader asks

Is it ever permissible to lie to children? I lied to my two-year-old granddaughter to remove her from a fairground ride without a tantrum. I said: 'You must get off now because the man is going for his dinner.' She got down without any fuss. But I'm worried, if she remembers this, she won't trust me in future.

Barbara Hope, Perth Australia

(f) A reader replies

Not only should you lie sometimes, you often have to. Children should be treated with respect but you don't have to explain everything. Also, it's a good way to learn that we often have to tell 'white lies', such as when asked 'What do you think of my new boyfriend?' 'Er- very nice.'

WRITING – Telling a story

- 7 Compare your stories with the story below.

THE TROJAN HORSE

The Greeks and the Trojans had been at war for ten years.

The exhausted Greek army was camped outside the city of Troy, when the Greek king Odysseus suddenly had a good idea. He knew that horses were sacred animals to the Trojans, so he decided to build a huge, hollow wooden horse on wheels. A horse big enough for some of his soldiers to hide inside.

The horse was duly built and some of the soldiers climbed inside. The others set fire to the camp and pretended they were going to sail back home to Greece, defeated. In fact they hid nearby.

The Trojans, delighted that the Greeks had left, immediately came out of the city gates and found the horse. They were very curious indeed. As part of the plan, the Greeks had left behind one soldier hiding near the horse. The Trojans soon found him and asked him about the horse. He said it was an offering to the goddess Athena.

The Trojans tried to pull the huge horse into the city. However, it was so big that they had to tear down part of the city wall to get it in. They took it to the temple of Athena, and had a big party to celebrate victory over the Greeks and the end of the war.

Finally, everyone was exhausted from all the festivities and they fell asleep. Now the Greek soldiers crept out of the horse. They killed all the guards on the walls and then signalled to the Greeks on the other side to attack Troy.

There was a bloody battle and the Greeks won easily. All the Trojan men were killed, and the women and children were taken back to Greece as slaves.

Verb patterns

Verbs + -ing
adore can't stand don't mind enjoy finish imagine loathe	doing swimming cooking

Note

We often use the verb go + -ing for sports and activities.

I go swimming every day.

I go shopping on weekends.

Verbs + preposition + -ing give up look forward to succeed in think of	doing

Verbs + to + infinitive afford agree choose dare decide expect forget help hope learn manage mean need offer plan promise refuse seem want would hate would like would love would prefer	to do to come to cook

Notes

- Help* and dare can be used without to.
We helped clean up the kitchen.
They didn't dare disagree with him.
- Have to* for obligation.
I have to wear a uniform.
- Used to* for past habits.
I used to smoke, but I quit last year.

Verbs + sb + to + infinitive advise allow ask beg encourage expect force help invite need order persuade remind tell want warn would like	me him them someone	to do to go to come

Note

Help can be used without to.

I helped him do the dishes.

Verbs + sb + infinitive (no to) help let make	her us	do

Notes

- To* is used with make in the passive.
We were made to work hard.
- Let* cannot be used in the passive. Allowed to is used instead.
She was allowed to leave.

Verbs + -ing or to + infinitive (with little or no change in meaning) begin continue hate like love prefer start	doing to do

Verbs + -ing or to + infinitive (with a change in meaning) remember stop try	doing to do

Notes

- I remember posting the letter.*
(= I have a memory now of a past action; posting the letter.)
I remembered to post the letter.
(= I reminded myself to post the letter. I didn't forget.)
- I stopped drinking coffee.*
(= I gave up the habit.)
I stopped to drink a coffee.
(= I stopped doing something else in order to have a cup of coffee.)
- I tried to sleep.*
(= I wanted to sleep, but it was difficult.)
I tried counting sheep and drinking a glass of warm milk.
(= These were possible ways of getting to sleep.)
