

You make...

- an excuse
- friends
- plans
- a joke
- an effort/attempt
- an offer/request
- a choice/decision
- a mistake/error
- money
- a profit
- a fire
- a mess
- a phone call
- a reservation
- a wish
- progress
- a bed (this means to put the sheets on a bed neatly)

We use do for actions and tasks. For example, we do our homework.

Do ...

- your homework
- work
- your job/duty
- your best
- a favour
- well/poorly
- research
- damage
- your share/part

We use do for household chores and beauty.

You do...

- chores
- the laundry
- the dishes (this means to wash the dishes)
- your hair (this means to style your hair)
- your makeup
- your nails
- the ironing
- the washing

We also use do for activities (like sports) that do not have their own verb.
