British and American English - the same, but different

British and American people speak the same language, English, but with some small differences.

1 Vocabulary Some words are different in American English, for example, they say ZIP code, not postcode; vacation, not holiday; and cell phone, not mobile phone. Some words have different meanings, for example, in British English a purse is a thing where women have their money and credit cards. In American English a purse is a woman's bag.

2 _____ Colour, favour, and other words that end in -our in British English end in -or in American English. Centre, theatre, and other words that end in -tre in British English end in -ter in American English.

3 _____ There are some small differences, especially prepositions. For example, Americans say See you Friday, but British people say See you on Friday.

4 _____ This is the really important difference between American and British English. American accents and British accents are very different. When an American starts speaking, British people know he or she is American, and vice versa.

I'M NOT FAMOUS... BUT MY BROTHER IS

Doug is a businessman, and a photographer. He is also the founder of Care to Learn, an organization which helps poor children in the USA to do well at school. He's married with three children, and he and his family have a normal life. But for many people, he is always '_____ 's brother'.

Doug's life can be difficult. People follow him in the street. They ask him questions about his brother, his brother's ex-wife, who is also very famous, and their six children. The paparazzi follow Doug's children and take photographs.

But it also has advantages. 'I go to film premieres and I meet famous actors. And when I phone people and ask for money for Care to Learn, it helps when I say I'm _____ 's brother.'

Doug is not jealous of his older brother. He is happy with his life. 'I see the world of famous people from the outside. I can leave it, but my brother can't.'

MOTHER...

Marjan Jahangiri, originally from Iran, is one of the only women professors of cardiac surgery in Europe. She does more than 300 operations a year. She lives in London with her husband and their 17-year-old son, Darius.

Can you describe your daily routine?

I get up between 6.00 and 6.30 a.m., I get to work at 7.00, and my meetings usually start at 7.30. After that, I don't have a break. I have lunch at my desk. I often do two operations a day, and I also have lectures and more meetings. At home, I have dinner with my son. Between 9.30 and 11.30 p.m., I do research and I watch the news on TV. One or two nights a week I'm on call, so I probably need to do operations during the night. I often work at weekends, too. But that's OK – I think I have a fantastic life because I love my work.

How do you balance work with your family life?

I spend a lot of time with my son. I want him to learn about hard work and good values, and I want to be an example for him. My husband is away a lot, but we speak on the phone every day. I think one reason why I am successful in my professional life is because he isn't at home all the time!

What do you do to relax?

I play the piano for an hour every day, late at night. I think it helps me with my operations – it's technical in the same way. I also go to the hairdresser twice a week. I do a lot of my research there!

They turn the music off for me and I use the time to read all my academic papers.

CAN YOU understand this text?

- a Read the article once. What is unusual about David Guetta's life?

A LIFE IN THE DAY

THE SUPERSTAR DJ DAVID GUETTA

I wake up at about 1.00 p.m., and the first thing I do is go outside. I live in Ibiza and I like having breakfast in the sun. I usually have fruit juice, eggs, fruit, and tea. I never drink coffee. After breakfast, I answer my emails for an hour, then I go to the gym.

I never listen to music in the house, or even in the car, because music is my job. On a typical day I spend two or three hours in my studio, then another four hours at a nightclub. My work starts in the evening. I usually have dinner in a restaurant, and then I go to the club. I try to have a normal life, but my job isn't normal. I arrive at a club like a secret agent - I go in through the back door and Security takes me to the stage.

I finish work at 4.00 in the morning. Security takes me out, and then I go home. After about four hours playing music I'm very excited. My manager says, 'Go home and sleep', but that's impossible. First I need to calm down. When I get home I have a cup of tea, brush my teeth and say, 'Thank you for this wonderful life'. I am 47 now, but I want to do this when I'm 60 or 80. I want to do this forever.

What to do in London at different times of the year

In spring

Watch (or run!) the London Marathon. One of Europe's biggest marathons takes place in spring every year,

- 05 usually in April. About 40,000 people, including top runners and celebrities, run 26.2 miles through the city. It's a fantastic atmosphere. You can watch anywhere along the route, but the Tower of London and the finish, near Buckingham Palace, are my favourite places. April in
- 10 London doesn't always mean good weather – be prepared for sun, showers, and wind!

In summer

Go to the Open Air Theatre in Regent's Park. Open

- 20 from May to September, this is a great place to see Shakespeare and other classics. Come prepared for all types of weather. If
- 25 it rains – and it can – you can buy plastic raincoats at the theatre. In bad weather they sometimes cancel a performance, but you can use your tickets on a
- 30 different day. You can buy a picnic or take your own, and you can buy dinner, too (quite expensive!).

3 READING & SPEAKING

a Read the questions about things to do in London. Then read the online guide and find the answers. Answer with LM (London Marathon), OAT (Open Air Theatre), TW (Treetop Walkway), or V&A (Victoria and Albert Museum).

Where can you...?

- 5 ___ watch what's happening from different places
- 6 ___ buy something to keep you dry
- 7 ___ see famous people doing sport
- 8 ___ have lunch, but not dinner

In autumn

35 Go to the Treetop Walkway at Kew Gardens. This is one of the highlights of Kew, London's botanical gardens. It's open all year round, and it's beautiful in autumn when the trees are changing colour. The Walkway is 18 metres above the ground, and you can see all the gardens and a lot of famous buildings, including Wembley Stadium. You can also see birds and insects very close up, and find out all about the trees around you. But if the weather is very windy, the Walkway sometimes closes.

In winter

55 Visit the V&A. London is full of wonderful museums, where you can happily spend a cold winter's day. My favourite, which not all tourists know about, is the Victoria and Albert Museum, or V&A. It's the world's top museum for art and design, and has amazing collections of clothes, furniture, jewellery, clocks, and ceramics. Exhibitions include the clothes of fashion designer Alexander McQueen, and the career of David Bowie. It has special activities for children, and a great café open daily until 17.15. Entrance is free, but some exhibitions charge a fee.

b Look back at the guide. Complete the nouns for these adjectives.

The Glass Bottle

PART 1

Hassan and Walid are brothers. They live in a small house in the desert, near the mountains, a long way from a town or village. They're very poor. They have no money and they have no animals. Their house only has two rooms. Every day is the same. They get up, and they have sweet black coffee for breakfast. Then Hassan works in the fields – but Walid just sits and looks at the hot, empty desert and the hot, empty sky. They live with their mother. She looks after them, but she's old and tired.

One day she says, 'We're poor and hungry. Why don't you leave here and find work? We need money for food and clothes.'

'If you want some money, you have your silver ring – you can sell that,' answers Walid.

'I can't sell it', she says. 'It's your father's. Every night I look at it and remember him.'

Hassan wants to help his mother, and he decides to leave home. His mother gives him bread, and water in a glass bottle. He kisses her, and he walks towards the mountains.

  - What does the prince give Hassan?
  - Why is Hassan's mother happy when he comes home?
  - What is Walid's plan?

PART 2

Hassan walks for five days through the mountains. The sun shines. At night, it's very cold. Then, one evening, he arrives at a rich and beautiful palace. The prince in the palace welcomes <sup>1</sup>him. He gives him food and drink, and Hassan sleeps in a comfortable bed. There is one strange thing – the windows have no glass.

The next day, Hassan says goodbye. <sup>2</sup>He wants to thank the prince and give him something, but he only has <sup>3</sup>his empty water bottle. He gives <sup>4</sup>it to <sup>5</sup>him. The prince is very surprised.

'What's this?' he says. 'I can see through it! It's beautiful! It's wonderful!'

<sup>6</sup>He is very happy, and in return he gives Hassan a box.

'Don't open <sup>7</sup>it until you get home,' he says. 'And be careful with it. It's very valuable.'

Hassan walks through the mountains again, and after five days he arrives home. Walid and <sup>8</sup>their mother watch <sup>9</sup>him open the box. He finds 100 gold coins inside. His mother is very happy! 'Hassan, you clever boy!' she says. 'Now <sup>10</sup>we can buy food and clothes!'

The next night, Walid makes a plan.

'100 gold coins in return for a glass bottle,' <sup>11</sup>he thinks. 'If I give the prince my mother's silver ring, perhaps I can get 1,000 gold coins!'

So Walid gets up, goes very quietly into his mother's room, and takes <sup>12</sup>her ring from a box under her bed. The next morning he asks his brother where the palace is, and he leaves.

Good times, bad times

In the UK, the third Friday in June is the happiest day of the year, says psychologist Dr Cliff Arnall. It's easy to see why – it's summer, it's warm outside, the evenings are light, and it's the day before a weekend! And the third Monday in January is the most depressing day of the year. Why? Because it's winter, the weather is usually grey and cold, the days are dark, and Monday is the first day of the working week. People are also often short of money after Christmas, and some people feel bad after breaking their New Year's resolutions.

THE MOMENT I WAKE UP...

Getting up in the morning is hard, but for many people, music seems to help them start the day. There is actually a list of perfect 'wake-up songs' compiled by a psychologist, David M. Greenberg, using data from the music download website, Spotify.

When choosing the perfect 'wake-up songs', Greenberg considered things like how the music builds up, positive lyrics and strong rhythm. He says that the music needs to start gently, and then slowly build up to help people to wake up. It must have positive lyrics to change people's mood from bad to good.

The rhythm also needs to be strong, with a lot of bass and drums.

Greenberg's top choice of song is Viva La Vida, by Coldplay, which has all the three necessary elements. 'Science shows that music affects us in all kinds of ways, including emotionally, physiologically, and in the brain,' he says. 'The right music - like Viva La Vida, with its positive energy and strong momentum - can help you wake up and feel energetic for the rest of your day.'

What's your favourite 'wake-up song'? Leave your comments below.

Comments:

S Mine is definitely Say a Little Prayer by Aretha Franklin. I always play it first thing in the morning. Sandy

M I like getting up to a song by Imagine Dragons, called On Top of the World. I think it fits Dr Greenberg's criteria because it's really positive! Martha

M I hate listening to music when I wake up. I prefer listening to the early morning news. Then I can start the day knowing what's happening in the world. Martin

His first novel was Piano Player, published in 1952, but it wasn't a success. However, his novel Slaughterhouse-Five, an anti-war book, was a best-seller, and was made into a film in 1972. In later life, he was interested in politics and painting. His art was an escape from the 'work' of writing.

She was a performing arts student at the BRIT School in London, where she was a classmate of singers Leona Lewis and Jessie J. Her first album, 19, in 2008, was an immediate success and she is now a major star. Adele isn't a painter; this self-portrait was for an online art project called Face Britain.

NEW YEAR'S EVE – ONE TO REMEMBER OR ONE TO FORGET?

MINA This was last year, and I went to a hotel with some friends. It had a bar on the top floor, and that's where the party was. We got there at about 11.00.

05 About half an hour before midnight I realized I didn't have my phone – it was in my car. So I took the lift down to the car park. I found my phone, and then I got back into the lift – I was the

10 only person in it. But then, between the third and fourth floors, the lift stopped completely and I couldn't get out. I pressed the button and asked for help, but a guy said there was an electrical

15 fault and I needed to wait. Then a few minutes later, I could hear people outside celebrating. It was awful – I didn't get out until almost 1.00 in the morning. And on top of it all, my friends

20 didn't realize that I wasn't there!

JENNY I had a fantastic New Year's Eve in Iceland in 2013. First, we went to a really expensive restaurant for dinner. It was early, about 6.00, because that's when people have dinner in Iceland. I wore a lovely dress, but after dinner we got a taxi back to the hotel and I put on boots and a warm 25 jacket. Then we went out and watched the amazing fireworks. Suddenly, at about 10.00, everyone went home to watch TV – there's this famous programme they always watch on New Year's Eve! It was really strange – the streets were empty for a bit. But then just before midnight people came out again and danced and drank till about 5.00 in the morning. It was incredible.

35 but just when I thought it was time to start the countdown to midnight, I saw that people were all at the bar, not on the dance floor, and the TVs were on. On the screens I could see fireworks, and Big Ben! I looked at my watch and I realized f Would you like to stay in The Langham in room 333? Why (not)?

WOULD YOU LIKE TO STAY IN ROOM 333?

Britain is well-known for having houses and hotels with ghosts, but did you know there was one in central London?

The Langham is a famous London hotel situated between Hyde Park and Regent's Park and opposite the BBC. The hotel was built in 1865 and has 380 rooms. In the past, many famous people stayed at the hotel, including the Duke of Windsor, Napoleon III, and the Irish writer Oscar Wilde. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, who wrote the Sherlock Holmes stories, also stayed there, and The Langham appears in some of the stories. More recently, the hotel appeared in a James Bond film, GoldenEye.

The Langham has the reputation of being haunted, especially room 333. People say the hotel has several ghosts, including a Victorian doctor who murdered his wife and then killed himself. He appears on the third floor and in room 333. In 1973, a well-known BBC journalist woke up suddenly in the night and saw 'the shape of a man wearing Victorian evening clothes floating towards him'. The journalist got up and ran. Other ghosts also like room 333. A German prince who jumped out of a fourth floor window walks through the door in the early morning, and another ghost moves the bed when the guests are asleep.

When the English cricket team stayed at the hotel, players reported that some very strange things happened during the night. One of the players told the Daily Mail newspaper, 'It was very hot in the room and I couldn't sleep. Suddenly the taps in the bathroom turned on. I turned the lights on and the taps turned off. Then when I turned the lights off, the taps turned on again. It was very strange.'

CAN YOU understand this text?

- a Read the article once. Do you have any favourite detectives or detective writers?
- b Read the article again. Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).
- Gillian Flynn and Lee Child are modern crime writers.
  - Sherlock Holmes only appeared in short stories.
  - Agatha Christie's novels were similar to older crime fiction.
  - She wanted her readers to try to solve the crimes themselves.
  - If you read detective fiction from the 19th and early 20th century, you can learn about how people thought and behaved.
  - Not many people now enjoy Dorothy Sayers's books.

How the modern detective novel was born

Millions of readers, like me, love the books of Gillian Flynn and Ruth Rendell, of Lee Child and Laura Lippman. But most fans of modern crime fiction know very little about the writers who invented the modern detective novel.

Many of the best early detective stories were short stories. Edgar Allan Poe (1809–1849) was probably the author of the first detective story. Arthur Conan Doyle (1859–1930) created perhaps the most famous detective, Sherlock Holmes. Father Brown was also a detective who was nearly as popular as Holmes; he was created by G.K. Chesterton (1874–1936). Father Brown only appeared in short stories, and Sherlock Holmes appeared in over 50 short stories and only four novels, including The Hound of the Baskervilles, where he solves the mystery of an enormous ghost dog.

In 1916, in her book The Mysterious Affair at Styles, Agatha Christie introduced a new type of detective novel, and a new detective, Hercule Poirot. This book was a bit different because the plot was more important than the characters and the writer asked readers to guess the name of the murderer. Later, in the 1930s and 40s, Dorothy Sayers wrote detective novels where the relationships between the characters were sometimes more interesting than the plot.

Reading can give us a fascinating view of the past, and when we read these detective stories and novels we can also learn something about how people lived and thought in the 19th and 20th centuries. These authors are still very popular. They influence present-day authors such as J.K. Rowling and they are probably going to inspire crime fiction for decades to come.

- a Look at the photo of blogger Nathan Wiebe's lunch. Can you name any of the things in the photo? Do you think it's a healthy lunch?
- b Look at the title. Why do you think he eats the same thing every day? Read his blog and check.

- c Read the blog again. Answer the questions with a partner.

- 1 What do Jobs, Zuckerberg, and Einstein have in common?
- 2 What are two positive things about Nathan's diet?
- 3 Does he ever get bored of it? Why (not)?
- 4 Do you think Nathan's diet is healthy?
- 5 Is there a meal where you eat the same thing every day? What?
- 6 Would you like to try wearing the same clothes or eating the same food every day? How long do you think you could do it for?

Steve Jobs, Mark Zuckerberg, and Albert Einstein have one thing in common. They all wear, or wore, more or less the same clothes every day. Why? Because if you wear the same clothes every day, you don't waste time choosing what to wear. I decided to copy them, but with my diet, so I eat the same food every day. This is what I have:

- breakfast: a cup of black coffee
- lunch: some smoked salmon, an avocado, and some cream cheese on a piece of bread
- dinner: some bacon, two eggs, some cheese, and some green vegetables

The good thing about this plan for me is that I spend less time and money buying food, and I also never need to worry if my diet is healthy or not (because I know it is). Now, you're probably thinking, 'he's sure to get tired of eating the same food every day'. Well, after about a year, I can promise you that I'm not. I change my meals a bit by having different kinds of cheese and using different herbs and spices. I also change the vegetables that I have for dinner.

Pub Quizzes

A pub quiz is a general knowledge quiz held in a pub or bar. They started in the UK in the 1970s, and there are now more than 22,000 weekly quizzes in pubs all over the country. Friends form teams, usually of about five or six people, and they decide on a name for their team. The person who asks the questions is called the 'quizmaster', and the teams write their answers on a piece of paper. You can't use your phone to look for the answers! In some pubs, teams pay to be in the quiz – from about 50p to £5 per person – and the winning team gets the money. But a lot of pub quizzes are free because pubs want people to come on nights which aren't usually busy, like Mondays and Tuesdays.

Imagine you want to advertise your town or city for tourists. Write an advert using superlative adjectives. Add photos if you can.

Come to Kielce. It isn't the biggest or the most beautiful town in Poland, but it has the cleanest air and the most delicious cheesecake...

The most dangerous place in the world to cross the road

If you want to cross the road in most countries, you wait for a gap in the traffic, and then you cross. But not in Ho Chi Minh City, where there's never a gap in the traffic. Apart from the cars, lorries, bikes, and buses, there are millions of motorbikes and scooters, which are the most popular form of transport in Vietnam. Crossing the road is an adventure, and many tourists find it impossible. So what can you do?

Keep walking. The receptionist at my hotel told me, 'When it feels right, walk into the road. The most important thing to remember is to keep walking. Don't stop. Don't run. Don't look left or right. And don't walk in front of a bus, because they can't stop easily.'

Cross with a local person. They know what they're doing, and this is the safest way for beginners. I looked for a middle-aged local man and I crossed the road with him. I made sure that he was between me and the traffic, and I prayed as I walked next to him. And I got to the other side!

Cross in a group. I met some American students who were happy to walk across the street with me. But this time when I saw a car coming straight at me, I stopped and put up my arm (like a traffic policeman). This was a big mistake.

Find a policeman. There are lovely policemen in green uniforms, and their job is to help frightened tourists to cross the road.

Take a taxi. For one or two dollars they take you anywhere you want to go.

Interviewer So North America is your fourth continent?

'Good afternoon,' said Jane. 'I want to see Madame Yolanda, the fortune teller.'

'Madame Yolanda is not here today,' said the man. 'But don't worry. I'm going to tell you about your future. What questions do you want to ask?'

Jane looked at the fortune teller. She couldn't see him very well because the room was very dark.

Part 3

He turned over the second card.

'Mm, a house. A new house. You're going to move, very soon, to another country.'

'But my boyfriend works here. He can't move to another country.'

'Let's look at the next card,' said the fortune teller. He turned over the third card.

'A heart. You're going to fall in love.'

'Who with?' asked Jane.

'Let me concentrate. I can see a tall dark man. He's very attractive.'

'Oh, that's Jim,' said Jane.

'Who's Jim? Your boyfriend?'

'No. Jim is a man I met at a party last month. He's an actor, from New York. He says he's in love with me. It was his idea for me to come to Madame Yolanda.'

'Well, the card says that you're going to fall in love with him.'

'Are you sure?' asked Jane. 'But what about my boyfriend?'

'Let's look at the fourth card,' said the fortune teller.

TRAVEL

The world's most unusual hotels

A For people who love nature, Verana in Puerto Vallarta in Mexico is an amazing spa hotel with beautiful views on all sides. It has ten guesthouses, and four new buildings with balconies above the trees, from where you can see the beautiful Bay of Banderas. The spa has an infinity pool and offers a variety of different spa treatments, as well as yoga classes. You can go whale-watching, fish for tuna, and explore the area on foot. This is the perfect place for your wedding, your honeymoon, or both. But remember, you can only get there by boat!

B Would you like to sleep in a mine? Then book the underground suite in Sala Silvermine in Sweden, and enjoy the world's deepest bedroom, 155 metres below the surface. Although the corridors are cold and dark, your rooms are warm (18°C), and the light comes from candles in beautiful silver candlesticks. You can also explore the caves and magical lakes with a guide. There are no other guests, so it's not for nervous people. Mobile phones don't work, but you have a radio for emergencies. In the morning they bring breakfast down to you. Perfect for romantic couples who like a bit of adventure.

C You don't need to travel to the Arctic Circle to spend time with Siberian huskies. At the Husky Lodge in the Swiss canton of Schwyz, dog-lovers can sleep in cabins, heated with wood fires, next to the dogs' kennels. During the day you can join in with their training runs. They pull sledges in winter and bikes and carts in summer. In the evening there's an excellent restaurant. And if you have to work, there are three rooms for small conferences and seminars. If you can't afford the cabins, there's a campsite too – though maybe only in summer!

THINGS I DIDN'T KNOW UNTIL I GOT HERE

What was a surprise for you when you came to live in America?

LENA FROM UKRAINE

When I eat out with my husband or friends, we usually share, because food portions are huge and we don't want all that food. But you can take home everything you don't eat, and I like that.

In the winter, you often see people in the street or on the subway who are wearing just a T-shirt when it's really cold outside.

RAHIM FROM PAKISTAN

When people speak to their boss (and to their teachers) they call them by their first name. They do the same to old people too, even when they don't know them well. It doesn't seem polite to me.

NATASHA FROM BELARUS

The American President's salary is about the same as a doctor's. He isn't the richest person in the country. That surprised me!

Some hospitals are like smart hotels – but a lot of people can't go there because they don't have medical insurance. Also, doctors don't always explain everything to their patients in my country. Here, they tell you everything.

TARA FROM INDIA

I couldn't believe the tipping system, for example, in places like the hairdresser's. You cut my hair and I pay you – a lot! Why do I need to give you a tip as well?

Public transport can be dangerous in India. But I was on the subway here in New York, going home late at night, when a group of people got on. They were very loud – I think they were drunk – and we were quite frightened. But at the next stop two police officers got on. The people stopped shouting when they saw the police. I felt really safe.

JULIE FROM CANADA

My husband is from Ecuador, and when he first arrived, he was really surprised by his salary. As a chef, he could earn enough money to pay bills, buy food, pay rent, have a good social life, and buy luxuries like our Xbox. In Quito, he worked 15 hours a day, and more at the weekend, and he earned half the money.

About me

Hi! I'm Stef, a traveller from Germany with a passion for travel, food, and photography.

During my studies, I worked in the Canary Islands and in Argentina and I studied for two semesters in the UK. After I finished, I decided that I didn't want to work for the rest of my life. I was 21 and couldn't imagine sitting in an office for the next 40 years and more. So I decided to go to Australia on a working holiday visa. First, I worked for six months in Germany because I needed to save some money. I went to Sydney at the end of 2011. I spent Christmas on St Kilda Beach in Melbourne, I worked in a pub and then I travelled all over Australia and New Zealand.

After coming back I got a job as a project assistant in an IT company – an office job. I was happy to have a routine again, but I spent all my holidays travelling – to Amsterdam, Istanbul, Portugal, Switzerland, Chile, Prague, and Morocco.

Some months passed, but finally I realized what I wanted to do with my life, at least for now. Having experiences is very important to me – more important than working in an office all week to pay for a flat that I hardly ever spend time in, and to buy things I don't really need. Three months ago, I left my job. I decided to work in different jobs, sometimes here, sometimes abroad, sometimes as a volunteer, sometimes for money. I have a lot of dreams and I want to make them come true.

Life before the internet

This morning in the office somebody mentioned 'teletext'. 'What's that?' our intern Francesca asked. She genuinely had no idea. For all of you who are too young to remember, teletext was sort of like a very, very basic internet on your TV. After that conversation, we started to remember life before the internet. Can you remember any of these?

FAX MACHINES Sending an email is so easy these days, but some years ago, when you needed to send something to somebody urgently and the post was too slow, you sent a fax. When they were introduced in the 1970s people thought they were a technological miracle. 'You can print something and send it over the phone in seconds! Magic!'

THE YELLOW PAGES If you needed to book an appointment with your hairdresser or phone a local Chinese takeaway, what did you do? You looked up the phone number or address in a big fat yellow book – the Yellow Pages. Amazingly, it still exists online.

ENCYCLOPAEDIAS When you needed information for your studies, or to win an argument, you looked it up in an enormous encyclopaedia – sometimes ten or twelve books of information in alphabetical order. Some people had them at home, or they went to a library.

WALKMANS This is how we listened to music. A Walkman was a lot heavier than an MP3 player! And if you didn't have the cassette or CD of a song, you couldn't listen to it.

AN A-Z If you had a meeting or job interview, or you wanted to go to a new restaurant in a part of town you didn't know, what did you always take with you? Your A-Z book of maps. And your reading glasses to read the street names, because they were so small!

CAN YOU understand this text?

- a Read the reviews of Pizza West once. Which review is most positive and which is most negative?

A ALAN
I go here quite often because it's very near my flat. The pizza is OK, and it's really good value. The atmosphere is great, perfect for a Friday or Saturday night. It's very popular, but if you don't mind waiting you can usually get a table. Or book online!

B STEVE AND JANE
Very expensive. In most pizza places we usually pay about £10 for a pizza; here it's £15 for more or less the same thing! The food is fine, but we definitely aren't going to eat there again.

C SARAH
We've been here a lot and we always enjoy it. The menu is very good, and they have great starters as well as pizzas. We went yesterday for an early dinner with our three-year-old daughter and they really made us feel at home – and they produced a delicious birthday cake for her. Great food, friendly waiters, fantastic atmosphere.

D BRIDGET
We booked a table, but when we got there they asked us to sit with a lot of other people at a big table. We didn't want to because there were only two of us. Then they asked us to wait until a different table was free, so we waited at the bar for 45 minutes! But I recommend it because the food is excellent!

E GEORGE
The pizza here isn't the best I've tasted, but it's OK (and the salads are delicious). The service is a bit slow and the place is very busy – it can often be really noisy. However, the atmosphere is great and it's obviously popular. Not the place for a romantic dinner – it's more of a fun, exciting place.

Ikaria is a small Greek island near the coast of Turkey. How do the people there live? They eat a lot of beans, potatoes, and green vegetables, and they sometimes eat fish, but they hardly ever eat red meat or sugar. They drink a lot of herbal tea, but they also drink some red wine every evening with their dinner. They do a lot of exercise, but they never go to a gym. They work in their gardens, and they walk everywhere – not many people in Ikaria have a car. They also have a siesta every afternoon.

Ikaria is a very safe place. In the village of Raches, the police station is closed. The people say they don't need police. People also have a very good social life. The island is famous for its tradition of panagiria, or festivals. Between May and October, the island has between two and four festivals every week, where people eat, drink, and dance all night. They call Ikaria 'the island where people forget to die'.

Nicoya is in the north-west of Costa Rica, near the border with Nicaragua. Most of the people who live there are farmers. In Nicoya people eat small meals. They usually have beans, rice, sweet potatoes, and sometimes a little meat, an egg, or some cheese. They also have some unusual fruits, for example the marañón, a fruit similar to an orange, with a lot of vitamin C. They drink a lot of water – the local water is unusually rich in calcium and magnesium.

They are very active during the day – they work outside, and they walk everywhere, or ride horses. They don't watch television and they don't use the internet, so they go to bed when it's dark and get up when it's light. They sleep well, usually eight hours a night.

All people in Nicoya have something called a plan de vida. It means 'a reason to get up every morning'. This may be work or family, and it's what makes even people who are over 100 still feel necessary.

My favourite day

 March 24 #favourite#weekend#family#food

My favourite day of the week is Saturday, because it's the first day of the weekend!

I get up very early during the week, so on Saturday it's nice to get up late, and I always stay in bed until about 10.30. Then I usually go shopping with a friend. In Spain a lot of shops are closed on Sundays, so Saturday is the only day for shopping. We don't always buy something, but we have fun just looking.

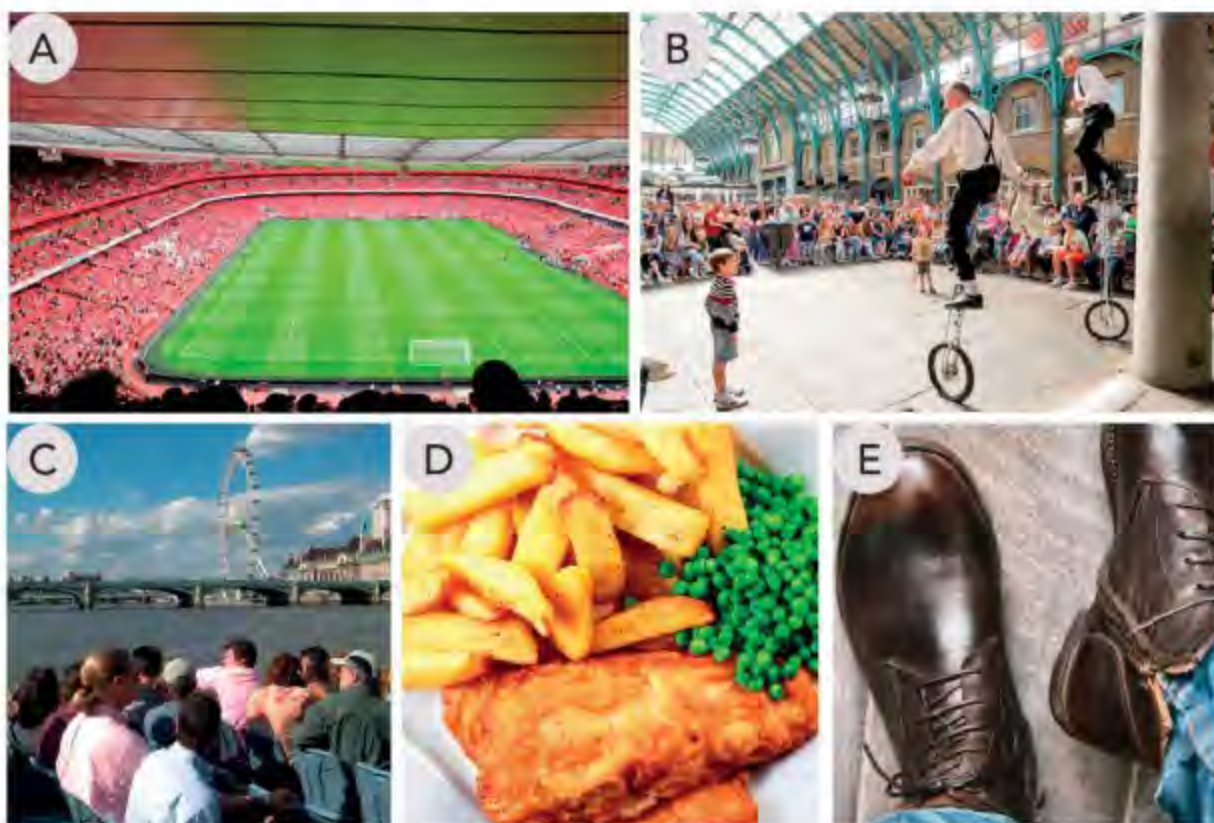

I often have lunch at my mother's house, with her and my brother. It's great, because my mum is a really good cook – she always makes things we like, and my brother and I have time to talk about our week. After lunch I sometimes study from about 4.00 to 6.00, especially if I have exams.

In the evening I usually go out with my friends. We often go to the cinema, and after that we have a pizza or tapas. I never go to bed before 1.00, or sometimes later.

Flat	2	1	Budapest	£23 per night

Summary

My flat is in a quiet street in a residential area of Budapest. It's on the third floor. There are two bedrooms, a living room, a bathroom, and a light, pretty kitchen. One bedroom is big, and one is a study with a sofa bed. The kitchen is small, but there's a table and chairs, so you can eat there. There's a great view from the balcony – you can see the city lights in the evening and the sunrise in the morning. There isn't a garden, but the flat is very near a beautiful park, and Gellert Hill is also quite near. The flat is a 15-minute walk from Buda Castle and only five stops by bus from the historic city centre.

Grace He's a lawyer, and Miriam's a teacher.

Anna How old are their children?

Grace Alex is four, and Helen's 13 months now.

Anna They look lovely!...So how about you and Mark? When's the wedding?

Grace Wedding! No, thanks! I'm too young!

Interviewer What time do you get up in the morning?

Darius I get up at about half past seven.

Interviewer How do you feel when you get up?

Darius I know half past seven isn't that early, but it's early for me and I usually feel tired and in a bit of a bad mood.

Interviewer Do you have breakfast?

Darius Absolutely. I have cereal and milk, and some bread with honey or jam. I love honey!

Interviewer Do you walk to school?

Darius No, it's quite far away. I go to school by Tube. I usually get to school about twenty past eight. I like to be early.

Interviewer What time does your first lesson start?

Darius It starts at nine. I have four or sometimes five lessons before lunch.

Interviewer Where do you have lunch?

Darius I usually have lunch at school at about one o'clock. I know people usually say that school food is terrible, but actually at my school the food is really good.

Interviewer And after lunch?

Darius We start lessons again at 1.45. I usually have two or three lessons in the afternoon.

Interviewer What time does school finish?

Darius At 4.15. But I don't go home then. I stay at school to do extra things – I study in the library or play music.

Interviewer What kind of music?

Darius Well, I sing in the school choir on Tuesdays, and on Thursdays, I play percussion in the orchestra. I love music – it's my main hobby.

Interviewer So what time do you usually get home?

Darius At about six o'clock.

Interviewer What's the first thing you do?

Darius I have a shower, and then I have dinner. And then, of course, homework.

Interviewer How much homework do you have?

Darius Two or three hours. It's my last year at school and I have my A levels this summer. I need to get really good marks to get into university.

Interviewer Do you watch TV in the evening?

Darius No, never. I don't have time. When I finish my homework I practise the piano and then I go to bed.

Interviewer What time do you go to bed?

Darius At about half past ten. I'm usually so tired I go to sleep straight away. All I really do these days is study, eat, and sleep.

Interviewer So no social media or anything like that?

Darius Well...I do spend a bit of time on Facebook. But not much, I promise!

B Oh right.

The best thing about the weather in London is that it's never extreme. It isn't usually very hot or very cold. In the summer, it's sometimes sunny and sometimes cloudy, with temperatures of about 22 degrees. And of course, it sometimes rains. In winter the temperature is usually between zero and 10 degrees. It can be windy and cold, but it hardly ever snows. In spring and in autumn the weather is very changeable – you can have all the four seasons in one day! It can be sunny in the morning, cloudy at lunchtime, raining in the afternoon, and then cold and windy in the evening. I always tell tourists to take their sunglasses and their umbrellas when they go out! But one thing you don't often see these days in London is fog. A lot of tourists come to London and say, 'Where's the fog? London is always foggy in films!' Well, it's true that, in the past, that is, until the 1950s, London was a very foggy city because the air was really dirty. But today the air is clean and it's hardly ever foggy.

Part 3 Walid walks for five days through the mountains. The sun shines, and at night it's very cold. Then, one evening, he finds the palace. The prince welcomes him and gives him food and drink, and a comfortable bed. But Walid can't sleep. He's thinking about the 1,000 gold coins. The next morning he says to the prince, 'I want to say thank you to you. Please have this silver ring. It's my mother's.' The prince is very happy. 'This is a beautiful ring,' he says. 'Thank you. Let me give you something in return.' He gives Walid a box. 'Don't open this until you get home,' he says. 'Be careful with it. It's very, very valuable.' Walid runs through the mountains, and after three days he arrives home. 'Where's my silver ring?' shouts his mother. 'Don't worry about your ring!' says Walid. 'Look at this!' Hassan and their mother watch as he opens the box. Inside he finds...

This painting is a self-portrait by the Dutch painter Vincent van Gogh. Van Gogh was born in the Netherlands on 30th March 1853. His parents weren't poor – his father was a church minister, and his mother was an artist. Van Gogh's first job was in his uncle's company, selling paintings, but later he was a teacher in England, and finally a painter. We only really know what he looked like because of his many self-portraits. Only three photographs of him exist, and they are all from when he was young. This portrait is from his time in Arles in the South of France, in 1888, when he was 35. He was very poor, but he was happy because of the beautiful light and colours there. This portrait was a present for his friend, the painter Paul Gauguin. Gauguin and van Gogh were together in Arles for a month. Van Gogh was not strong mentally, and the relationship between them was difficult. After a big fight, van Gogh cut off his ear, and was in a mental hospital for some time. He died on 29th July 1890. He was only 37 years old. His paintings weren't popular during his lifetime and he was never rich or famous. But today people think that Vincent van Gogh is one of the greatest painters in the world, and his paintings, like Sunflowers, and The Starry Night, sell for millions of pounds.

Kevin and his partner Jeanette live in Birmingham, England. Last year they decided to go on a winter holiday to Trinidad in the Caribbean, and they looked for flights online. They were very happy to find cheap flights – only £800 return for the two of them. Kevin booked the flights and they started to plan their holiday.

On the day of their flight, they arrived at Birmingham Airport and parked their car in the long-stay car park. Then they walked into the terminal building and tried to check in their bags. The check-in assistant looked at their boarding passes and asked where they wanted to go. 'Trinidad,' they replied. 'We're going there on holiday.' The check-in assistant looked surprised.

7.7

- Assistant Where do you want to go?
Jeanette Trinidad. We're going there on holiday.
Assistant I'm sorry, but there are no flights from here to Trinidad.
Kevin No flights? But we booked last month!
Assistant Let me check your booking. Oh, I see. I'm really sorry, but your booking isn't from this Birmingham. It's from Birmingham Alabama, in the United States.
Jeanette No, it can't be.
Assistant I'm very sorry, but it is. Look, it says BHM – that's the code for Birmingham airport in the States. You can't fly from here.
Jeanette I don't believe it. Kevin, did you check the airport when you booked?
Kevin Yeah. It was Birmingham. I didn't check which Birmingham.
Jeanette You idiot!
Assistant I'm very sorry, but you can't fly today.

7.17

- Friend What was your best ever New Year's Eve? One you always remember?
Denisa Oh, definitely 2014, when I was in Rio.
Friend Who were you with?
Denisa I was with my boyfriend Marcelo, who's Brazilian.
Friend Why was it so special?
Denisa Well, Brazil has special traditions for New Year's Eve, and they were all new for me. For example, it's a Brazilian tradition to wear white clothes for New Year's Eve because white is a symbol of peace, so I wore a beautiful white dress, which Marcelo's mother bought me. I have a photo somewhere on my phone. Yes, here, look!
Friend How lovely. So what did you do?
Denisa Er, let me think. Well, first we had a typical New Year's Eve dinner with Marcelo's family. And then, I suppose it was about ten, we got a bus to Copacabana.
Friend What was the atmosphere like there?
Denisa Oh, it was amazing! The streets were already full of people. We went to a show at a place near the beach. It was great, and we danced samba.
Friend Wow. Were you there at midnight?
Denisa No, no. When we saw it was nearly midnight, we went to the beach, and the typical countdown started, you know – ten, nine, eight...Happy New Year! Everywhere we heard the sound of people opening champagne, and we watched the wonderful fireworks.
Friend It sounds great. What did people do when the fireworks finished?
Denisa Most people went to other parties, or they went home.
Friend And what about you?
Denisa We decided to go to a different beach, a beach called Praia do Arpoador, and we had our first swim of the new year. It was magical.

Then the inspector questioned Barbara Travers.
Inspector What did you do after dinner yesterday evening?
Barbara After dinner? I played cards with Gordon, and then I went to bed.
Inspector What time was that?

Barbara It was about half past eleven. I remember, I looked at my watch.
Inspector Did you hear anything in your father's room?
Barbara No. I didn't hear anything.
Inspector Miss Travers, did you have any problems with your father?
Barbara No, I didn't have any problems with him at all. Daddy was a wonderful man and... a wonderful father. I'm sorry, Inspector.
Inspector Don't worry, Miss Travers. No more questions.

8.5

Next the inspector questioned Gordon Summers.

Inspector What did you do after dinner, Gordon?
Gordon I played cards with Barbara. Then she went to bed.
Inspector Did you go to bed then?
Gordon No. I stayed in the living room and I had a glass of whisky. Then I went to bed.
Inspector What time was that?
Gordon I don't remember exactly. I didn't look at the time.
Inspector Did you hear anything during the night?
Gordon No, I didn't. I was very tired. I slept very well.
Inspector You and Mr Travers were business partners, weren't you?
Gordon Yes, that's right.
Inspector And it's a very good business, I understand.
Gordon Yes, Inspector, it is.
Inspector And now it's your business.
Gordon Listen, Inspector, I did not kill Jeremy. He was my partner and he was my friend.

8.6

Finally, the inspector questioned Claudia Pasquale.

Inspector What did you do yesterday evening, after dinner?
Claudia I went to my room and I had a bath and I went to bed.
Inspector What time was that?
Claudia About 11 o'clock.
Inspector Did you hear anything?
Claudia Yes. I heard somebody go into Jeremy's room. It was about 12 o'clock.
Inspector Who was it?
Claudia It was Amanda, his wife.
Inspector Are you sure? Did you see her?
Claudia Well no, I didn't see her. But I'm sure it was Amanda.
Inspector You were Mr Travers's secretary, Claudia.
Claudia Yes, I was.
Inspector Were you just his secretary?
Claudia What do you mean?
Inspector Were you in love with Mr Travers?
Claudia No, I wasn't.
Inspector The truth please, Claudia.
Claudia Very well, Inspector. Yes, I was in love with him and he said he was in love with me. He said he wanted to leave his wife – Amanda – and marry me. I was stupid. I believed him. But he didn't leave her. He used me, Inspector! I was very angry with him.
Inspector Did you kill him?
Claudia No, Inspector. I loved Jeremy.

8.12

Barbara Let's go upstairs. Follow me...Be careful. The ceiling is very low here.
Leo It's a very old house.
Barbara Yes, the house is 300 years old. My family lived here for nearly 80 years. There are six bedrooms. This was my father's bedroom.

Kim Is there central heating in the house?
Barbara Yes, there is. Why do you ask? Are you cold?
Kim Yes, it's very cold in here.
Leo That's because we're from California.
Barbara Let's go and see the other bedrooms.
Leo Yes, of course.
Leo Well, what do you think, Kim? I love it! Don't you?
Kim I'm not sure. There's something about the house I don't like.
Leo Kim, it's perfect for the kids. Think of the garden. And it's a real, authentic English country house. What do you say?
Kim I suppose so. If you're sure.
Leo I am sure! Miss...er, Barbara. We want it. We want to rent the house.
Barbara Excellent.
Leo When can we move in?
Barbara As soon as you like.

8.14

Leo Hello.
Barman Good evening, sir, madam. What would you like to drink?
Leo Do you have champagne?
Barman Yes, sir.
Leo Two glasses of champagne, please.
Barman Here you are!
Leo Cheers, Kim.
Kim Cheers. To our new house.
Barman You're Americans, aren't you?
Leo Yes, that's right. We're from California.
Kim But this afternoon we rented the big house near here.
Barman Which house? The Travers family's house?
Leo Yes.
Barman Oh.
Leo Is something wrong?
Barman Who showed you the house?
Kim Barbara. The old lady who lived there before.
Barman Ah, Barbara. Old Mr Travers's daughter. Some people thought that she was the one that did it.
Kim The one that did what? What happened?
Barman Didn't she tell you?
Kim Tell us what?
Barman About the murder.
Leo & Kim Murder?
Barman Yes, Mr Travers was murdered in that house in 1965...in his bed.
Kim Oh, how horrible!
Barman The man who killed Mr Travers was Barbara's lover. The family never lived there again. They tried to sell the house, but nobody wanted to buy it. Not after a murder. That's why that house is always rented. Barbara never married, of course.
Leo Kim?
Kim Yes?
Leo Are you thinking what I'm thinking?
Kim Yes – I don't want to live in a house where somebody was murdered. Come on. Let's go.
Barman Hey, hey, your champagne! You didn't drink your champagne...Ah, well.

1 We stayed at The Langham for two nights. It's a wonderful place – a very elegant, very English hotel. The service, atmosphere, and room were excellent, and we really enjoyed our stay. But we had a very strange experience. On the first night we woke up at about 5.30. There was a strange noise outside our door. It was like somebody was scratching the door with their fingers. To tell you the truth, we were a little bit frightened. Then we thought that probably it was other guests coming back late from a party, maybe they were drunk or something, and we went back to sleep. But the second night exactly the same thing happened. So we just thought, strange, maybe it's because it's an old hotel. But when we got home, we told the story to a friend, and he told us that that The Langham is haunted. We looked on the internet, and we read that people say that room 333 has a ghost! And our room was 332, the next room! We sent an email to The Langham and told them about it and they sent us some really interesting information about the ghost stories. We'd really like to stay in this fantastic hotel again, but maybe not in room 333!

2 I stayed at The Langham in November last year with my husband. It's a beautiful hotel, with a wonderful location. It's between Hyde Park and Regent's Park. We were in a room on the second floor. We knew that people said there were ghosts, and we knew about room 333, but we weren't worried at all. We had a nice meal in the hotel restaurant and then we went to bed. But in the middle of the night – about 3.00 in the morning – we suddenly woke up and we could hear loud noises from the room above us. They were really loud noises – like people were moving the bed or moving a heavy chair. Anyway, after two or three minutes, the noises stopped and we went back to sleep. There weren't any more strange noises, and we slept for the rest of the night. The next morning we went to Reception and said, 'We slept really badly last night – the people in the room above us made a terrible noise.' The man at Reception asked for our room number and said, 'Let me check'. He looked on the computer and he said, 'The room above you is empty, madam.' So I said, 'Are you sure?' And he said, 'Yes, madam. The room above yours is room 333. There wasn't anybody in that room last night.' We checked out of the hotel the same morning. Never again!

Woman We need food for the weekend – can you do the shopping on your way home this evening?
Man OK, I suppose so. What do we need?
Woman Let's see. We need some coffee, we don't have any.
Man OK...coffee...
Woman And some milk. And some juice.
Man Orange juice?
Woman Fine. And maybe apple juice, too.
Man OK. What else?
Woman Get a pineapple if they have them.
Man One pineapple...
Woman And some oranges – four or five oranges – and some bananas. And I want to make a vegetable curry, so get some onions, some potatoes, some tomatoes...
Man Hold on, wait a minute...! Potatoes...
Woman Yes, two or three big ones. Oh, and forget the tomatoes – we've got some in the fridge. And a bottle of wine.
Man White? Red?
Woman Don't mind. Oh, and a lettuce, I want to make a salad.
Man A lettuce...Do we need any tomatoes?
Woman No, I said no tomatoes!
Man Sorry, yes, you did. Is that everything?
Woman Yes, I think so. And don't forget anything!

9.4

1 This is for my foodie friends. In case you thought lettuce was only for salads, here I'm cooking it in some butter with an onion.

Then I add some mushrooms, chicken, fresh tomatoes, and some other things – not sure yet. Lettuce is also great in soups, or you can grill it and serve it with blue cheese.

- 2 We didn't feel like cooking last night, and anyway we didn't have any food in the house, so we decided to order some takeaway salads from our wonderful local pizzeria. They were all very good, but my favourite was a chicken salad with carrots, tomatoes, peppers, lettuce, and some pieces of fried bread.
- 3 Dinner last night at a restaurant in Piccadilly, called NOPI. We had lots of different sharing plates. I loved everything, especially this dish called shakshuka, which is North African, and it's basically eggs in a tomato sauce, but the mixture of herbs and spices makes it just fantastic. And the bread we had to dip in the sauce was wonderful, too. Go there. Soon.
- 4 OK guys, this is it! Our Thanksgiving dinner – which we had at 6.30 last night. All the usual things: turkey with cranberry sauce, roast vegetables, mashed potatoes, lots of vegetables, and more...and more... Mom said, 'why not go to a restaurant this year, maybe have seafood', but I said, 'no – I want it home-made and traditional' – so she did it. Thanks, Mom. I now need to spend a few hours on the sofa before I even think of going to bed. So how was yours?

Presenter Well, let's hope so. The rules are the same as always. I'm going to read you some sentences, and you have ten seconds to say if the sentence is true or false. If you get the first answer right, you win £100. Then for each correct answer you double your money, so if you get the second answer right, you win £200, and for the third correct answer, you win £400. For eight correct answers you win £12,800. But if you get an answer wrong, you lose all the money. Remember, you can also phone a friend, so if you're not sure about one of the answers, you can phone your friend to help you. Is that OK, Eddie?

Eddie Yeah, OK.

9.17

- Presenter OK, Eddie, first question for £100. A whale can make a louder noise than a lion. True or false?
- Eddie A whale can make a louder noise than a lion. Er, true.
- Presenter Correct. Blue whales can make a sound of up to 188 decibels whereas a lion's roar is never more than 114 decibels. Ro-arrrr. Now, for £200, the First World War was shorter than the Second World War. True or false?
- Eddie Er, I think it's true.
- Presenter Correct. It's true. The First World War lasted four years, from 1914 to 1918, but the Second World War lasted six years, from 1939 to 1945. Next, for £400, the American film industry is bigger than the Indian film industry.

- Eddie I think it's false. You know, Bollywood and all that is huge. I think it's false.
- Presenter Correct. The Indian film industry is much bigger than the American one. It produces about 1,000 films every year, which is double what Hollywood produces. In fact, America isn't even the second country that makes the most films, which is Nigeria. Next, for £800, in July, Edinburgh is hotter than Sydney. True or false?

- Eddie In July, Edinburgh is hotter than Sydney. Er, true.
- Presenter Correct. The average temperature in July in Edinburgh is 15 degrees, and in Sydney it's 13 degrees. Of course Australia's in the southern hemisphere, so it's winter there. Next, for £1,600, silver is heavier than gold. True or false?

- Eddie Er, true. No, er, false.
- Presenter Do you want to phone a friend?
- Eddie No, I think it's false. I remember from science lessons at school. Gold is heavier than silver.
- Presenter Correct. Gold weighs about 19 grams per cm<sup>3</sup>, and silver weighs only 10.5 grams. That means that gold is almost twice as heavy as silver. OK, for £3,200, the mountain K2 is more difficult to climb than Mount Everest.
- Eddie Er, true.
- Presenter Correct. 30% of the people who try to climb K2 die, usually on the way down, whereas only 5% of the people who try to climb Everest die. OK, Eddie, now for £6,400, driving in Italy is more dangerous than driving in Belgium. True or false?

- Eddie Er, I think that's a trick question. We all think the Italians drive really fast, but maybe they're good drivers. I think it's false.
- Presenter Well done, Eddie! It may be hard to believe, but in fact, out of every 100,000 people, six people died because of car accidents in Italy, compared to seven in Belgium. And finally, the last question. Be very careful, Eddie. If you get it right, you win £12,800, but if you get it wrong, you get nothing. Are you ready?

Eddie Yes, ready.

Presenter OK, for £12,800, it's better to do exercise in the morning than in the afternoon.

Eddie Er...er...

Presenter Quickly, Eddie, your time is nearly up.

Eddie I think it's false, but I'm not sure. I want to phone a friend.

Presenter Right, Eddie. So, who do you want to call?

Eddie Sandra.

Presenter Is she your girlfriend?

Eddie Yes, she is.

Presenter OK then. Hello, is that Sandra?

Sandra Yes, it is.

Presenter I'm phoning from Quiz Night. Eddie needs some help. You have 30 seconds, Eddie. Here she is.

Eddie Hi. Sandra?

Sandra Yes.

Eddie Listen. It's the last question. 'It's better to do exercise in the morning than in the afternoon.' True or false? I think it's false.

Sandra Er, I think it's true. I always see people running in the park in the morning...

Eddie Google it. Quickly. On your phone.

Sandra What do I put in?

Eddie Just that sentence and see what comes up! 'It's better to do exercise in the morning than in the afternoon.' Come on!

Sandra Yes, I'm writing it. Oh sorry, I just got a message.

Eddie Hurry up, Sandra!

Presenter Time's up, I'm afraid. OK, Eddie. So, true or false?

Eddie Er. True.

Presenter Final answer?

Eddie Final answer. True.

Presenter I'm sorry, Eddie, it's false. It's better to do exercise in the afternoon, between 4.00 and 5.00. Eddie, you had £6,400 pounds, but now you go home with...nothing.

Eddie Why did I phone Sandra? Why didn't I phone my friend Dave?

10.10

Interviewer Gunnar, can you give us a quick summary of your journey?

Gunnar OK, so we left Istanbul 20 minutes late, at 1.30 in the morning – not a good start. But we arrived in Casablanca more or less on time. We visited the mosque at 4.30 in the morning. We couldn't go inside though – we just saw it from the outside! Then we went back to the airport and flew to Paris. When we arrived, we rushed outside and took some photos, and then went back in to a different terminal. It was really stressful, the most stressful part of the trip – but we just got to the gate in time for our flight to Punta Cana. When we got there, we went to a beach that was just 20 km from the airport, and we relaxed there for a bit, and then went back to the airport and got our flight to Caracas. And we arrived here at 10.00 at night, and we officially entered the country at 10.15. So – five continents in one day! We did it!

10.12

If you're thinking of having a holiday or travelling somewhere nice, the planning can be complicated. The internet is full of reviews of hotels, restaurants, and attractions. There are so many different ways of travelling, and thousands of places to go. Where do you start? Why not follow these three simple steps to find the right holiday for you.

Step 1. Think about what you want to do on your holiday. The first thing people usually try to decide is where they want to go, but it's probably better to start by thinking about what you want to do. Do you want to relax? Then think about how you relax. For example, do you like reading, or doing yoga, or do you like doing something more active? Do you want to go somewhere completely different? Do you want to visit an exciting new city, or see some countryside and animals that are different from where you live? Seeing something completely new is a great way to forget about your normal life. Do you want to have an adventure? Perhaps you're dreaming about climbing Everest or living with an African tribe. You could use your holiday to make one of those dreams come true. Do you want to learn something new? Not everybody wants to sit in a classroom learning Spanish or be in a kitchen learning to cook when they're on holiday, but some people love it. And nowadays you can do courses in many countries and experience a different culture at the same time.

So now Step 2. Think about the people you're going to go with. Are they family or friends? Do they have children? What do they want to do? People have different needs and interests, and if you're all going to enjoy the holiday, you need to make sure you all want the same things. But if what you really want to do is to meet new people, perhaps it would be better to travel alone.

And finally, Step 3. Think about good holidays you had in the past. Why were they good? Perhaps it was the people you were with. Perhaps it was something you learned, or an experience you had. What can you repeat from those holidays?

Of course, there are always other things you need to consider, like how much money you can spend, and how much time you can be away. But first follow these three steps, and then you're ready to start thinking about where you want to go!

10.15

Part 2

Jane Well, I have a problem with my boyfriend. We argue all the time. I'm not sure that he loves me. I want to know if we're going to stay together.

Jim Please choose five cards, but don't look at them...Ah, this is a good card. This means you're going to be very lucky.

Jane But am I going to stay with my boyfriend?

Jim Maybe...We need to look at the other cards first.

10.17

Part 4

Jim Now I can see everything clearly. You're going to leave your boyfriend and go away with the other man, with Jim...to another country. And very soon you're going to get married.

Jane Married? To Jim! But am I going to be happy with him?

Jim You're going to be very happy together. I'm sure of it.

Jane Oh no, look at the time. I'm going to be late for work.

11.4

The first thing that I really noticed when I arrived here was how incredibly friendly the people are. The 'ticos' – that's what they're called – are much friendlier than people in Europe. They always say buenos días to you even if they don't know you. And if something's good, like a beautiful day or a good meal, they say pura vida, which I love. It literally means 'pure life', but I think it really means 'things are great', or something like that. One thing that can be difficult though, their sense of time is completely different from ours – they call it 'tico time'. If they have an appointment at, let's say, seven in the evening, they probably leave home at seven o'clock, so they're always late. Luckily, my school works on what they call 'British time', so classes start punctually!

Another thing that surprised me was the weather. I thought Costa Rica was hot and sunny all the time. That's true in the dry season, and the temperature's about 25 degrees all year round, but in the rainy season, especially in September and October, it rains really heavily for maybe two hours a day. Really amazing rain, nothing like in England.

Everyone told me that the scenery was beautiful in Costa Rica, but it was even more beautiful than I expected. Incredible animals, birds, trees – and volcanoes. Some of them are active and smoke quietly, and then suddenly there's a big bang and they start erupting. I was quite frightened the first time it happened.

What else? Er, I thought that life here was going to be very cheap, but in fact, food is very expensive, especially imported food. The only thing that's cheap is fruit, vegetables, and coffee – wonderful, wonderful coffee. And the fruit and vegetables are very different from what we have in Europe. One day, I went to a market and I didn't recognize any of the fruit.

I like San José. I don't feel that it's dangerous, but it probably is. A colleague of mine was in a taxi the other day, and the taxi driver took out a gun and asked him for all his money! And the roads are terrible, especially in the rain! But in general, I love it here.

11.11

A No, I don't.

I Do you have any unusual apps that you sometimes use?

C I have a 'night sky' app. If it's a starry night, I sometimes use that. You point your phone at the sky and it tells you the names of the stars and planets and things.

12.6

A Yes, I have. I drive a lot in my job, several hours a day, and I like listening to books – it's much better than listening to the radio. I probably listen to a couple of books every week.

B Yes, I've seen Blade Runner at least ten times. It's a really great film, I never get tired of it, I always notice something new.

C No, never. I've definitely fallen asleep watching TV, but never in the cinema.

D Yes, I have. I got a box set of Downton Abbey for Christmas last year, and the next day I watched four episodes one after another.

E No, I haven't. It usually takes me a long time to finish a book, so I never read them again.

F Yes, I bought the soundtrack of Catching Fire, you know, The Hunger Games, after I saw the film. It's got some amazing music: Coldplay, Imagine Dragons, Christina Aguilera.

12.7

Alison Let's go out for dinner next Saturday. We can celebrate that it's nearly the end of term.

Brett Good idea. Where?

Alison Let's try somewhere new, somewhere that we haven't been to before.

Brett Yeah, good idea.

Clare How about that Indian restaurant near the station, Curry Up?

Joe Curry Up? I've been there. It wasn't very good.

Clare OK. Joe says it's not great. What about Chinese then? Somebody told me The Great Wall is very good.

Alison Yes, I haven't been there, but people say it's great.

Joe The Great Wall? I've been there. I went there last week. It is good, but I don't really want to go again.

Brett Well, there's a new Thai place, Thai-Chi. It opened really recently.

Joe Thai Chi? I've been there, too. I went on Wednesday.

Alison Well, I don't know. Have you been to Mexican Wave?

Joe Mexican Wave? Yes, I have.

Alison When did you go there?

Joe Last month. I went for dinner with people from work.

Alison The Acropolis? That Greek place?

Brett I'm sure Joe's been there!

Joe No, I haven't. I haven't been to The Acropolis. But it closed a few months ago.

Brett Oh, this is ridiculous!

Alison OK, Joe, here's the answer. You cook dinner for us!

- 2 I work hard.
We speak English well.

- We use adverbs of manner to say how people do things.
- Adverbs usually go after the verb or verb phrase.
I speak English well. NOT ~~I speak well~~ English.

- 1 We normally form adverbs by adding -ly to adjectives.
- 2 Some adverbs are irregular. They can be the same as the adjective, e.g. fast, hard, or a different word, e.g. well.

adjective	adverb	spelling
slow	slowly	+ -ly
quick	quickly
bad	badly

- Remember the difference between adjectives and adverbs.

They speak really slowly.

- We use the adverbs very, quite, etc. to modify adjectives or other adverbs.
- They always go before the adjective or adverb.

 Words ending in -ly

- 2 I would like to = I want to (now or in the future). would like is also followed by to + infinitive.
- Contractions: 'd = would. wouldn't = would not.

1 We use the:

- when it is clear what we are talking about, e.g. Close the window. = the window that is open.
