

Write a short paragraph (200-250 words) describing how a famous historical event was carried out. Use the passive voice as much as possible. For example, describe how a major discovery was made, how a city was built, or how a law was passed.