

Module Test Paper 2

IV-th Year Students

1. The following defines: Narrative literary works whose content is produced by the imagination and is not necessarily based on fact.
 - A. Fantasy
 - B. Pulp fiction
 - C. Detective story
 - D. Fiction
 - E. Whimsical literature
2. It is often used to indicate ownership of a book:
 - A. Blurb.
 - B. Binding
 - C. Bookplate
 - D. Jacket
3. Rare books can be qualified as
 - A. Books vulnerable to theft
 - B. Books bound in leather
 - C. Well-thumbed books
4. An individual who loves books, especially "for qualities of format", who loves books for their content, or otherwise loves reading is a:
 - A. Alert reader
 - B. Bookworm
 - C. Keen reader
 - D. Avid reader
5. Match the given words with their English equivalents.

To plump for something (1), to send somebody to Coventry (2), to ponder over something (3), to size somebody up (4), to come to grips with somebody (5), to linger in the mind (6), an odd coincidence (7).

Дивний збіг обставин (1), обрати щось (2), оцінити когось (3), не виходити з голови (4), не розмовляти з кимось (5), обдумувати щось (6), розуміти когось добре (7).
6. Without base or good reason
 - A. Objective
 - B. Groundless
 - C. Assured
7. Become fashionable:
 - A. Come down
 - B. Come off
 - C. Come about
 - D. Come in
8. What is considered socially correct, fashionable
 - A. The thing is
 - B. Quite the thing
 - C. To suit someone down to the ground

- D. Opposite
9. To give up control means to:
- A. Yield
 - B. Oppose
 - C. Attend
 - D. Cover a lot of ground
10. To be based on fact means to be:
- A. Not quite the thing
 - B. Well-grounded
 - C. Objective
11. Promise, statement made to give confidence is a/an:
- A. Attention
 - B. Assurance
 - C. Initiative
12. The ability to do things before others is:
- A. Opposition
 - B. Objection
 - C. Initiative
 - D. Reassurance
13. A peculiar attitude or feeling toward somebody/something means to:
- A. Be opposed to
 - B. Have a thing about
 - C. Attend
14. To advance or improve means to:
- A. Suit someone down to the ground
 - B. Come along
 - C. Look round for ideas